27th Sunday in Ordinary Time - October 7, 2018

Gospel

But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female. For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, no human being must separate."

Mk 10:6-9

Mission Statement

The Church of St. Luke is joyful, welcoming, caring, active family of believers striving to grow in knowledge of and love for God and each other. Challenged by the Word, nurtured by the Eucharist, and enlivened by the Spirit, we seek to live the message of Jesus in serving the needs of others both within our Parish and in the larger community.

27th Sunday in ordinary time

First Reading: Genesis 2: 18-24

Second Reading: Hebrews 2: 9-11

Gospel: Mark 10: 2-16

Reflection: What words of phrases caught your attention during the Liturgy of the Word this Sunday? What connection do those words or phrases have to your day-to-day life? (Why do you think they caught your attention?) What might God be trying to say to you through these words or phrases? What response should you make? What action should you take?

Alternate: Reflect upon/share about a time when you have experienced being "one" with another person? (Or, maybe, "in sync with" another person?) What was it, in your relationship, which makes you feel one with this person? How can you better become one with the Lord?

From the Pastor

Dear parishioners,

Some people have told me that their friends have asked them how they can continue to be Catholic after all of the scandal. One of the people who spoke with me said her friends were mentioning things that she didn't even know about. I'm going to try to list the major ones real quick for you. You can google them to find more information. (Maybe you don't want to…)

First, I think, is the abuse of minors by priests. Most know about that. It started becoming public in 1985, reached a head in 2002 and is rearing itself again now in 2018 because of the Pennsylvania Grand Jury Report. What has been added now, is details and stories of bishop culpability.

Also, in current news, is the Archbishop McCarrick scandal. There were others at this level, notably the founder of the Legion of Christ, Fr. Marcial Maciel Delgado who had a variety of abuse complaints against him. There was also Bishop Patrick Zeimann of Santa Rosa who resigned after being sued by another priest for sexual abuse. The priest had been removed from his parish for stealing Church money.

Then there are the seminary scandals. The most recent ones are in Boston, Philadelphia and Nebraska. Or maybe they've heard about sex and drug orgies in Rome and other parts of Italy. Of course, they've heard of Ireland and …. It goes on and on. That's what we get for being a huge international presence. That presence needs, obviously, to become the presence of holiness.

First, I think, we tell them that the center of our faith is not bishops and priests, no matter how well they might preach or how charismatic they might be… or how much they might engage in evil. The center of our faith is the Eucharist, the Lord Himself. The Eucharist, and the Eucharistic liturgy, is what nourishes us and keeps us going in the midst of evil happenings all around us. He is what holds us together as He has done over centuries of periodic scandal.

There is the experience of the Lord in the Liturgy of the Word and in the community gathered for Mass. Sometimes the experience of the Lord in the presider, at Mass, is overshadowed by our experience of the presider. But, the Lord's presence in His Word proclaimed and in the gathered community, helps us get beyond the distractions of human sin and weakness.

Secondly, we might say that we are committed to the Church. That we are committed to getting beyond this scandal by helping make changes that will bring the Church closer to worthiness to hold the treasure we hold in earthen vessels. (If they know their Scripture, they'll get that one. It's 2 Cor 4:7.) We recognize that we will never be fully worthy, but our Lord calls us anyway and wants us to try.

Thirdly, invite them to pray for us as we travel this tough road. We are on the same road they are on. We follow the same Lord. We serve Him in our day-to-day lives just like they do. And, we need to stick together.

In His service,

Fr. Ron

"A Time to Listen" with Bishop McElroy

Bishop McElroy will be hosting a series of "Listening Sessions" in October as a result of the crisis we face as a church due to the sexual abuse of minors and other vulnerable adults by clergy, and the failure of bishops to adequately protect those entrusted to their care. The purpose of the town hall meetings is to hear the input of the Catholic faithful regarding meaningful reform of the church, to hear from those who have been abused or their family members, to allow the people to hear from their bishop directly regarding safeguards in place here in the Diocese of San Diego, and, perhaps most importantly, simply to pray for God's guidance every step of the way.

Upcoming Listening Sessions:

Wednesday, October 17, 7:00pm
Oceanside Deanery,
Church of the Nativity

Thursday, October 18, 7:00 pm
Escondido Deanery, St. Gabriel Parish,
Msgr. Charles Dollen Hall

If you or a loved one cannot attend Sunday Mass, a Minister of the Eucharist is available to bring the Eucharist to your home, hospital or convalescent home. Please call the Church Office (619-442-1697) and your name will be forwarded to the ministry. One of our Ministers will call to set up a convenient time for a visit.

The Journey of Faith begins with your questions:

What is faith? How does faith grow? What do Catholics believe, and why is it different from other faith traditions?

Classes for the Christian Initiation of Adults are available for anyone who wants to learn more about the Catholic faith. The process begins with an "inquiry" period, when questions can lead to exploration.

Wednesday, October 10th
7:00pm • Youth Room

If you or someone you know is interested in learning more about the Catholic faith, or is interested in completing their sacraments, please plan to attend!

If you have any questions, please contact Deacon Jerry Stenovec
