FATIMA 1917–2017.

During his pilgrimage to Fatima , Portugal on May 13th, Pope Francis declared two of the three shepherd children believed to have seen a vision of Our Lady 100 years ago there saints. Millions of faithful each year visit the Fatima shrine.

The canonization of Francisco Marto and his sister Jacinta Marto coincide with the 100th anniversary of the reported apparitions by the two and the third visionary, Lucia Dos Santos. Francisco and Jacinta died while they were still children several years after the visions. Lucia became a nun and died in 2005 at the age of 97. The Catholic Church posthumously confers sainthood on people considered so holy during their lives that they are now believed to be with God and can intercede with him to perform miracles. Miracles are usually the medically unexplained healing of someone. The miracle connected to Jacinta and Francisco was believed to be the inexplicable healing of a Brazilian infant whose parents had prayed to the siblings. Francisco and Jacinta Marto were beatified - the last step before sainthood - by Pope John Paul in 2000. The beatification process for Lucia began after her death in 2005.

The Church believes that Our Lady gave the children three messages, the so-called three secrets of Fatima. The first two were revealed soon and concerned a vision of hell, seen by believers as a prediction of the outbreak of World War Two, a warning that Russia would "spread her errors" in the world, and a need for general conversion to God and a need for prayer. The "third secret" intrigued the world for more than three-quarters of a century, inspiring books and cults convinced that it predicted the end of the world. In 2000, the Vatican said the third secret was a prediction of the 1981 assassination attempt on Pope John Paul on May 13, the same day of the first reported apparition in 1917.

MAY THEY REST IN PEACE

Entrance:

*Come O Creator Spirit blest,
And in our hearts take up Thy rest,
Come with Thy grace and heavenly aid,
To fill the hearts which thou hast made.*

*Great Paraclete to Thee we cry,
O highest gift of God most high,
O fount of life, O fire of love,
And sweet anointing from above.*

*Drive far from us the foe we dread,
And grant us Thy true peace instead,
So shall we not, with Thee for guide,
Turn from the path of life aside.*

Recessional:

Queen of the May

*Bring flowers of the fairest Bring blossoms of the rarest
From garden and woodland
And hillside and dale
Our full hearts are swelling
Our Glad voices telling
The praise of the loveliest Flower of the vale*

*O Mary! we crown thee with blossoms
today
Queen of the Angels, Queen of the May O Mary! we crown thee with blossoms
today
Queen of the Angels, Queen of the May*

*Their lady they name thee,
Their mistress proclaim thee, Ah, grant that thy children on earth be as true
as long as the bowers
are radiant with flowers, as long as the azure shall keep its bright hue*
