Vocation Reflection

Rev. John McNamara

As we kick off the month of November we are reminded of the three parts in the Mystical Body of Christ. First off, a few days ago on November 1st, we celebrated All Saints Day, remembering the Triumphant, those who have completed their earthly life and properly disposed to enter into God’s presence forever; they have reached the perfection of charity. A day later, on November 2nd, we commemorated the Purgative, those being purified with God’s love prior to their entrance into Heaven. And let’s not forget the Militant, us on earth fighting the good fight, striving to accept God’s love day by day and living a life of virtue. This month let us be inspired by the saints who have gone before us; pray for our brothers and sisters in need of purification; and be ever more attentive to our personal calling to be holy men and women. What’s our primary calling? By the grace of God, we are all called and chosen to be saints!

“THINK SPRING”

Plans are being made for a “Prayer Garden” here at St. Paul’s. A beautiful and peaceful retreat to visit and encounter God in nature. We will be asking for donations of flowers, plants and your time to help make this a holy place for all to enjoy. MORE information to come.

St. Paul Christian Women garden committee.
