Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the Pastor's Keyboard:

Lexio divina

We owe it to ourselves to find some time each day for prayer. Prayer with Sacred Scripture is one of the most powerful ways we can pray. I invite each of you to consider joining us for lexio divina. This Sunday we will have an introductory session at 10 AM in the parish library. If you miss that, come next week at 10 AM on Sunday, or the week after. There are also sessions at 8:30 AM and 7 PM on Tuesdays. There are no requirements beyond being able to read and an openness to God. It is for both the spiritually advanced and the spiritual newbie. You can come and just listen, you don't have to share anything. Thanks to Gary Uthoff for his generous and zealous leadership of this program.

Spenke Tournament

We are in the midst of the Msgr. Spenke Soccer Tournament. Spenke is more than just a children's soccer tournament; it is a great opportunity for us to gather together as a parish and celebrate our community. Stop by on a Friday or Saturday evening for good BBQ, cold drinks, enjoyable soccer, and excellent fellowship.

Men's Club

Our soccer field is almost green enough to make the local country clubs jealous. What a great reminder of all that the members of the St. Ann's Men's Club do to support the youth of our school and our parish. The soccer tournament not only builds community, it strengthens our whole community. Funds from the tournament go to support children's athletics here in our parish, helping to build our young people's confidence and physical abilities. The Men's Club also works to maintain our wonderful facilities. They updated the field house restrooms this summer and work is underway to upgrade the gym lights.

Seminarians

I'm happy to welcome seminarian Zach Griffith, a Theology II student from the Diocese of Knoxville who will be with us on Sundays and ministering to the sick and homebound. You might also see Robert Lawson, a Theology I student from Holy Trinity parish in St. Ann who will be assisting at the Newman Center.

Sick?

I recently had an occasion to give the anointing of the sick to a family member and it reminded me that it has been a while since anyone here requested the anointing of the sick. If you're in the hospital or preparing for surgery or in any other way in need of pastoral care to the sick don't hesitate to tell me. I can't always get there right away, but I will do my best to visit anyone who is in the hospital and I will always make time to anoint anyone in need. If you know of anyone who is homebound and needs communion, I am happy to arrange for that too.
