A TIME OF HOPE

"It was the best of times and the worst of times." This was the start of a book, it could be a way of describing our times today. We have a possibility of denuclearizing the Korean peninsula. We can hope to continue the agreement with Iran and other countries to stop the creation of nuclear bombs. Both of these two things are major hopes and prayers to control our decisions of being bigger and stronger to use the bombs that could kill so many and bring a great darkness to our common home, the Earth.

On a different level, we have at the borders a number of families who have traveled from Central America seeking asylum from the killing and chaos of gangs and drugs in many of the countries there. The United States has signed, with other countries, a United Nations Accord, to be open to verify people's claims. Now that we have a large number of refugees here at the San Diego border, we seem to have forgotten that we signed on to verify their claims.

Be it big things or seemingly just poor people seeking a safe haven in a storm of violence and fear, we need to remember what the Statue of Liberty says, "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free, the wretched refuse of your teeming shore. Send these, the homeless, tempest-tossed to me, I lift my lamp beside the golden door!"

God Bless,

Fr. Michael, O.S.A.

6 de Mayo, 2018

Nuestro propósito como comunidad es trabajar juntos para que todos participemos más de la comunión de amor que existe entre el Padre y el Hijo.

Los discípulos estamos llamados a vivir la unidad entre sí, y por eso las discordias entre grupos parroquiales o personas no son un buen testimonio de vida.

Estamos llamados ante todo a vivir en la unidad en la que hemos sido llamados todos por un mismo Señor; una unidad que respeta y apoya a los demás grupos y personas, e idealmente ama como Cristo nos lo pidió.

La Misión del Amor

Al final de los cuatro evangelios, Jesús concluye antes de ascender al Padre, enviando a sus discípulos a continuar su misión.

Como el próximo domingo celebraremos la Ascensión, hoy la liturgia nos propone reflexionar sobre la misión que Cristo nos ha encomendado.

Y este año litúrgico, las lecturas lo resumen todo con el amor; el amor de Dios se ha manifestado en Cristo (segunda lectura de hoy), y Cristo al revelarnos este amor nos ha pedido que nos amemos los unos a otros (el Evangelio de hoy).

Este mandato fue lo que vivieron las primeras comunidades cristianas en los hechos de los apóstoles (primera lectura). El amor entre ellos fue obra de ese regalo de Cristo, el Espíritu Santo.

Se podría decir que el protagonista del libro de los Hechos de los apóstoles es el Espíritu Santo. El Espíritu actúa por medio de los Apóstoles, y ha seguido manifestándose a lo largo de toda la historia, hasta nuestro mismo presente.

Realmente, mediante su acción, el Evangelio se hace vivo en las conciencias, en los corazones, y en las comunidades.

El Espíritu Santo nos fortalece para cumplir aquella misión de Cristo de amarnos los unos a otros.

Por eso el programa de educación religiosa en la parroquia es tan importante, porque tiene como fin, que los niños y jóvenes comiencen y conozcan que son amados por Dios.

Para muchas familias, es su entrada a la Iglesia, y de ahí van conociendo, y se van incorporando a participar más.

Hace unas semanas hablaba con alguien que me compartía como desea conocer más a Dios.

En ese momento me llegaron a la mente estas palabras que expresan un deseo en el corazón de Cristo: "Esta es la vida eterna: que te conozcan a ti, el único Dios verdadero, y al que tú has enviado Jesucristo" (Jn 17, 3).
