HEALTH IS YOUR WEALTH

Everyone, at sometime, has a breach of good health. When we are young, we generally recover quickly because we are strong. Later on, we start to feel the changes that effect our health. We put on more weight, our metabolism slows down and we don't recover as quickly as we want. I say these things because, in time, we all need the help of good doctors and good medical advice.

For a long time, America thought of a Health Plan as great, as long as we had it provided by your place of business. Lots of people could not afford a Health Plan and many did not receive it as an employment benefit.

A number of our Presidents have tried to create Health Plans for everyone, but mostly were not able to get the Health Care Plans passed through the Congress. The excuse was usually that it was too expensive. Finally, we had a Plan that was passed, but only by half of the Congress. The other Party decided not to support it. When they, the other Party, eventually gained control, they took away the financial help needed to allow millions of people to participate in the "Affordable Care Act" program or "ACA."

So after Congress finally passed something that allowed the poor and parts of the middle class to share in Health Care, it, too, has been taken away.

There is a lot of talk about how Congress is going to create a less expensive Plan, a better Plan, but unfortunately, it is only talk. To my mind, it is a great disservice to have so many millions of people without proper Health Care. It is not right! Let us pray for Congress to finally find a solution that works for everyone.

God Bless,

Fr. Michael, O.S.A.

20 de Mayo, 2018

Sigamos el ejemplo de la Virgen María, que se reunió con los discípulos en oración, esperando el regalo que Jesús les había prometido -el Espíritu Santo.

Hoy que celebramos Pentecostés, pidámosle al Espíritu Santo que renueve su presencia en nosotros, para llegar a participar de la ronda de amor entre Padre e Hijo, y antes amarnos como Cristo nos amó aquí en la tierra.

Pentecostés

Decía San Agustín, que el Espíritu Santo es el amor entre el Padre y el Hijo; tan especial que es una persona divina.

Cristo ha compartido con nosotros este Espíritu de amor que “procede del Padre y del Hijo,” como rezamos en el Credo. Ya que hemos recibido este regalo, Dios existe como don en el Espíritu Santo. Pero antes de haberlo recibido nosotros, el Espíritu Santo ya era eternamente el regalo entre Padre e Hijo.

También al principio de la creación, el Espíritu Santo, dice la Escritura que se movía como viento sobre las aguas, para luego poner un orden y función a todo. Con el ser humano Dios quiso compartir su Espíritu, después del misterio pascual de Cristo su Hijo.

Cristo que vino para entregar Su vida, para que tuviéramos la intensidad y plenitud de vida en Él, nos dio El Espíritu Santo, quien hace posible Su obra en nosotros. Es decir, el Espíritu Santo, es la gracia sobre toda gracia, que hace presente y operante la salvación de Cristo en nosotros.

Para nosotros los seres humanos, la vida que recibimos al ser concebidos es un don que espera otro don que la supera; es decir, nuestra vida es un regalo para recibir a Aquel que nos dio la vida. Este regalo lo recibimos en nuestro bautismo, Su sello en la confirmación, y un anticipo de cielo en la Eucaristía.

Los sacramentos nos comunican ser parte de la familia de Dios. La vida cotidiana entre familiares, como amigos y vecinos, y como comunidad cristiana, puede ser una imagen, aunque imperfecta, de como Dios también quiere que estemos relacionados con El.

Y por eso nos ha dado al Señor que es “dador de vida,” y nuestro guía, abogado, consolador y Dios que habita en nosotros. Digámosle que venga nuevamente; y recordemos que la puerta de nuestro corazón se abre por dentro, y Dios espera que le abramos.
