THOUGHTS WHILE HAVING CHEMO

Of course, the first round of Chemotherapy is affectionately known as the "honeymoon" experience because you feel good about beginning treatment and actually attacking the disease from the medical standpoint. So other than it being a surreal moment, my time sitting there was more focused on you and the parish and random thoughts that sometimes a busy life does not afford. I want to share some of those things with you here in my pastor notes.

Note: Return of the Sunday Obligation

As you know I dedicated my consecration to Saint Joseph for the return of Sacred Mass as an obligation. I prayed in earnest for our community to return to who we are as Church and once again do it well. I also realized that there would be some Re-entry Phobias that would need to be battled and overcome. I wanted to personally invite you (invitation sent) as taking your seat at the table.

Random Thoughts – I remember that there was only one time that I missed Sunday Mass since I made my First Holy Communion outside of being too ill to get out of bed. That story I have relayed many times in the past but worthwhile repeating again. Simply I missed because I put work ahead of the urgency to attend Mass planning to go to a late Sunday Mass that weekend. I learned quickly one never should put off what is most important and taking for granted that we can do it later. Failing to attend Sacred Mass that weekend was a venial sin at best since my intention to attend was there but my ability to attend was taken due to finishing a job that went too long. My mom helped me to understand that I missed a great opportunity. No, not just Sunday Mass as I was obliged to attend, but opportunity to be where I needed to be in order to live my Catholic Faith. I realized then that I understood what obligation meant.

Obligations seems to be like commandments that you are demanded to do it and must submit your unwilling self to do what you rather not choose as a priority. The negative connotation of the guiderails of our Faith actually makes us less free to enter into what is best for us! Many times in life, we entertain activities that are less appealing to our senses and appetite and we "get" very little out of it and leave unsatisfied. I guess in a way we must acquire a taste for the good things for our well being and pleasure but without some kind of persuasion by others, who know better than we, it is a lost opportunity.

If exercising full freedom of expression is a right, then respect of this freedom must be an obligation.

The Obligation for Sunday Mass is that way. Someone, the Church in this instance, knows what is good for us... in fact what is necessary for us as true Christians/Catholics. They desire us to acquire a taste not at our own pace or whim but as being obliged to a great gift given. So, each week we attend and learn more and more how precious the time is that we spend in community, prayer, worship and the value of the Sacred Scriptures and Eucharist. If we were not obliged to experience how many of us would have fell upon such a treasure if we were never told that there was one buried in the Mass?

What does the church say about our obligation to attend Sacred Mass? Here is what the Code of Canon Law states:

Can. 1246 §1. Sunday, on which by apostolic tradition the paschal mystery is celebrated, must be observed in the universal Church as the primordial holy day of obligation. The following days must also be observed: The Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Epiphany, the Ascension, the Body and Blood of Christ, Holy Mary the Mother of God, her Immaculate Conception, her Assumption, Saint Joseph, Saint Peter and Saint Paul the Apostles, and All Saints.

Can. 1247 On Sundays and other holy days of obligation, the faithful are obliged to participate in the Mass.

In the Law it is stated straight forward and simply.

What does the Catechism of the Catholic Church say about our Sunday Obligation?

2181 The Sunday Eucharist is the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practice. For this reason the faithful are obliged to participate in the Eucharist on days of obligation, unless excused for a serious reason (for example, illness, the care of infants) or dispensed by their own pastor.¹¹⁹ Those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave sin.

2182 Participation in the communal celebration of the Sunday Eucharist is a testimony of belonging and of being faithful to Christ and to his Church. The faithful give witness by this to their communion in faith and charity. Together they testify to God's holiness and their hope of salvation. They strengthen one another under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

RE-Entry Phobias

I know that the pandemic has paralyzed many from just simply reentering society and communal participation. Many, pray for them all, may still be afraid or were afraid even before the pandemic to be in crowds due to psychological or health reasons. These are fears that truly exist and each individual must respond to them within their own comfort zone.

Weakened Immune systems and other direct health deficiencies that keep one from the grocery store, eating in public restaurants, attending sporting events or family gatherings may find that the close proximity to others at Mass as a risk must act accordingly and can without the pain of serious (mortal Sin). Phobias and health issues hold two different realities and both of them can hinder a person's ability and desire to attend Mass. We understand and for those people watching Mass on television, spending time each Sunday with the Sacred Scriptures and making a spiritual communion (like during the pandemic) can suffice as our "participation" in these extreme cases. But one should always challenge themselves, in the case of phobia's, to trust in the Lord and the strength of the Holy Spirit to venture into the safety of His love.

Age Limit- There is no age dispensation for not attending Mass. Sometimes we confuse this with the age limits for the Lenten Fast and Abstinence. But age is a number and can not always be associated with ability and the health of an individual. So, Grandma at 90, capable to do all other sorts of activities is still required to fulfill her obligation. Perhaps more safely by a grandchild doing the driving!!

Powerful Reality of Holy Communion – The next few weeks we will be finishing up Chapter 6 of Saint John's Gospel: "The Bread of Life Discourse". The Discourse begins with the feeding of the multitude and ends with a call to accept Jesus as the real bread from heaven and whoever believes this truth (in the Eucharist) will receive eternal life. Jesus does not mince words about this Truth: "I will give you my flesh to eat and my blood to drink.... And who ever eats of my flesh and drinks of my blood will live forever!" This is the reality of the Eucharist and the power of attending Mass to receive Holy communion. A spiritual communion does not suffice for such a reality.

While sitting in the infusion chair I recalled a beautiful prayer written by Saint Thomas Aquinas for after communion. This prayer truly incorporates and encompasses the true grace of such a gift. I would like to share here with you:

I thank You, Lord, Almighty Father, Everlasting God, for having been pleased, through no merit of mine, but of Your great mercy alone, to feed me, a sinner, and Your unworthy servant, with the precious Body and Blood of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. I pray that this Holy Communion may not be for my judgment and condemnation, but for my pardon and salvation. Let this Holy Communion be to me an armor of faith and a shield of good will, a cleansing of all vices, and a rooting out of all evil desires. May it increase love and patience, humility and obedience, and all virtues. May it be a firm defense against the evil designs of all my visible and invisible enemies, a perfect quieting of all the desires of soul and body. May this Holy Communion bring about a perfect union with You, the one true God, and at last enable me to reach eternal bliss when You will call me. I pray that You bring me, a sinner, to the indescribable Feast where You, with Your Son and the Holy Spirit, are to Your saints true light, full blessedness, everlasting joy, and perfect happiness. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

I thought and prayed that this is the reason I will fight through these treatments and for how many times more Jesus affords me to offer Sacred Mass I will Treasure!

CLOSE THE BOOK ON THE GREATEST PIRATE SCOUT I HAVE EVER KNOWN.

When Adam Frazier was traded I realized that he was the last of so many that one Pirate scout had predicted correctly for baseball success before the name was known to the common Fan. This scout was my father! Yes, he loved baseball and as a true statistics man he diligently read the Sporting News in the day that it handled Baseball only and was considered the Bible of the game. The Sporting News created in 1886 was filled with major and minor league box scores and statistics. Page after page of never-ending statistics was meant for the pro scout and the one who lived in my Home.

I can recall year after year my dad's winter predictions of who will break the Pirate line up and the midsummers joy of my dad when these young men would finally adorn a Bucco uniform. Sure, he missed on some but most proved that he was not just telling stories but he knew his game. Here are a few of my Favorite Scouts anticipated and successful rookie ball players: Bruce Kison & Bobby Robertson 1971; Richie Zisk 1972; John Candelera 1974; Tony Pena 1979.

I remember the excitement in his voice as spring rolled around. "Johnny, the Pirates have two rookies who will come up this summer (Kison & Robertson) and make us contenders. My dad was never prouder than the Third year of Richie Zisk's career when he drove in 100 runs! I will never forget the first time John Candelara pitched and he seemed to strike out everyone he faced and Bob Prince going nuts and my dad slamming the steering wheel (on our way to grandmas for Sunday dinner) with great joy!

When Adam Frazier was taking his turn to crack the Pirate line up my dad could no longer utter more than one word at a time. We were talking baseball, of course, and my father in a low whisper said to me: "Frazier" shaking his head with certitude... This is the next guy dad? What do you think that? He smiled, wet his lips and said while making the motion of swinging at a pitch: "Madlock." Yeah, no doubt Frazier proved to have the same condensed powerful swing of the great Bill Madlock... Dad was right again.

So as Adam moves on so ends my scouting report from my beloved scout. I thought to myself what a great dad I had and how much he taught me about being optimistic through baseball and even in greater realities like our Faith. Dad showed me that Hope springs eternal as a new season would begin. And, when criticized for staying with Baseball as a favorite, he would only say: Johnny you know why I love baseball: Because they play again tomorrow.

So, as I take on a new chapter of my life and challenge to follow Christ I must say "Hope Springs Eternal" and I will fight for another day... because tomorrow I will (play) go to altar again with renewed hope in the promise of Christ! Thanks Dad!!

Eucharistic Procession - August 15th at 2 pm

Together, Immaculate Conception Parish and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton are sponsoring a Eucharistic procession at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton this year. To participate as a community makes a statement of welcoming back God into our parish families after a year of just personal devotion. It is a time of reverence and awe to be shared with each other.

While this is being sponsored by both parishes all are welcome to participate. We will begin in the church in silent prayer and the ten icons of saints and will be presented and all will process out followed by Fr. John as he carries the Blessed Sacrament in the monstrance. At each tent we will stop and pray asking healing and strengthening for ourselves, our parishes and our nation. We will then process back into the church to be blessed and sent forth.

The Eucharist is the source and summit of the whole Christian life. A Eucharistic procession, therefore, is a public witness of the veneration toward the most holy Eucharist. It takes place in this way: A consecrated host – that is, the real and substantial presence of Jesus Christ: body, blood, soul and divinity – is placed within a monstrance, which is then lifted and carried by a priest who leads the faithful in procession. Like a pilgrimage, a Eucharistic procession normally starts at one holy place and ends at another. This earthly journey reminds the Catholic faithful of their spiritual journey toward eternal life with God

It is customary to show respect for what we are doing by dressing in appropriate clothing, i.e., Sunday best-dresses, skirts, dress slacks for women with modest tops and full coverage shoes-No sandals or flip-flops. Men are to wear dress trousers, dress shirts, and ties. Casual clothing is not considered appropriate for this demonstration of our Catholic faith.

For some this will be a pleasant reminder of the last Eucharistic procession in the streets of Irwin. For others who are unaware of this devotional practice and will be introduced to a practice that will enrich their personal experience as members of the Catholic faith.

Please spend some serious time considering the benefit to you and your family to attend this. You will be blessed and enriched by your prayerful presence to this celebration.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

1 Kings 19:1-8

Elijah went a day's journey into the desert,
until he came to a broom tree and sat beneath it.
He prayed for death saying: "This is enough, O LORD!
Take my life, for I am no better than my fathers."
He lay down and fell asleep under the broom tree, but then an angel touched him and ordered him to get up and eat.
Elijah looked and there at his head was a hearth cake and a jug of water.
After he ate and drank, he lay down again, but the angel of the LORD came back a second time, touched him, and ordered,
"Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!"
He got up, ate, and drank; then strengthened by that food, he walked forty days and forty nights to the mountain of God, Horeb.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 34
Proulx/Gelineau

SECOND READING

Ephesians 4:30-5:2

Brothers and sisters:
Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God,
with which you were sealed for the day of redemption.
All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice.
And be kind to one another, compassionate,
forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ.
So be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love,
as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us as a sacrificial offering to God for a fragrant aroma.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Jews murmured about Jesus because he said,
 "I am the bread that came down from heaven, "
 and they said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother?
 Then how can he say, 'I have come down from heaven?'"
 Jesus answered and said to them, "Stop murmuring among yourselves.
 No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draw him,
 and I will raise him on the last day.
 It is written in the prophets: They shall all be taught by God.
 Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me.
 Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father.
 Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life.
 Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died;
 this is the bread that comes down from heaven
 so that one may eat it and not die.
 I am the living bread that came down from heaven;
 whoever eats this bread will live forever;
 and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.
 I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God,
 born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.
 For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
 he suffered death and was buried,
 and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
 the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
