Note From The Pastor

Happy New Year and Thank You!

As we move into the "Ordinary Time" of our Liturgical Season I look back to the end of 2021 celebrating the Christmas Liturgies with great joy and look ahead to celebrating another year with you! I know that 2020, 2021 and now 2022 seem to be all the same with the Covid Virus challenging our health and sanity but the one constant through all of this is our Faith and the community of believers that bring strength to these ongoing challenges. I am well pleased each week to celebrate Sunday Mass in your presence and to have the Holy Eucharist be our true remedy in working through day to day life.

I want to thank everyone for all the wonderful cards, gifts, cookies and prayers over the Christmas Holy Season! I read each card prayerfully and I am so thankful for your generosity. With so many well wishes and prayers for my health I cannot be anything but hopeful for what God has instore for me this year.

New Year Reminders: Sacramental Sponsorship and Cremation with Reverence

Two themes that I feel that are worth to repeat on a regular basis is the responsibility, as a Catholic, to take seriously the call to be a sponsor to Baptism and Confirmation as well as the proper interment of cremains of our loved ones with proper burial. The more that the secular practices take hold of our society we must remember that our call in the Life, Death and Resurrection of Christ must be reflected in how we nurture Faith and prepare for the final day in the Resurrection! Having good sponsors in Faith for our children at Baptism and again at Confirmation is paramount to preserving the purity and holiness of our life in Christ. The proper interment of cremains is also paramount in showing the reverence and hope in the restoration of our lives in the resurrection. So I am posting two articles that everyone should read and pass onto others who may have a questions on these two issues.

Following the celebration of All Saints and All Souls days this past November the question always arises about proper burial and internment of the deceased. The question usually concerns the Church's position on cremation and if it is permissible within the Catholic Church. This is a legitimate question in our world today. I think that it is very important that we, as Catholic Christians, know the what, where, how and the why we tend to the deceased in the way we do as a matter of Faith. The explanation below is what we should consider prayerfully and respectfully. Also, please pass this article on to those who may need the following explanation as well.

Principles Regarding Cremation:

Reverence for the Sacredness of the Human Body:

Because the human body is integral to the human person, it is difficult to think of a person apart from their body. "Thus, the Roman Catholic Church's reverence and care for the body grows out of a reverence and concern for the person whom the Church now commends to the care of God." The long-standing practice of burying the body of the deceased in a grave or tomb continues to be encouraged as a sign of Christian faith. However, the Church does not forbid cremation as a means of disposition of the body, unless it has been chosen for reasons which are contrary to Church teaching.

Preference for the Presence of the Body: The body of a deceased loved one forcefully brings to mind the mystery of life and death. As Christians, the body of the deceased speaks also to our belief that we are destined for future glory at the resurrection of the dead. Therefore "the Church clearly prefers and urges that the body of the deceased be present for its funeral rites, since the presence of the human body better expresses the values which the Church affirms in its rites."

Funeral Rites: When cremation is chosen, the Church prefers that the body be cremated after the Funeral, thus allowing for the presence of the body at the Funeral Mass. When circumstances require it, however, cremation and committal may take place even before the Funeral liturgy. All the usual rites which are celebrated in the presence of the body of the deceased may also be celebrated in the presence of the cremated remains.

The primary symbols of the Roman Catholic funeral liturgy are retained even when the funeral liturgy is celebrated in the presence of the cremated remains. The cremains must be treated with the same dignity and respect as the body. They may be carried in procession and/or placed on a table where the coffin normally would be. The Paschal Candle and sprinkling with holy water are primary symbols of baptism and should be used during the Funeral Mass. However, the pall is not used. Photographs and other mementos may be used at the vigil, but are not appropriate for the Mass.

Final Disposition and Memorialization of the Cremated Remains :

“Cremated remains may be buried in a grave, entombed in a mausoleum or columbarium or even buried at sea.” The practice of scattering cremated remains on the sea, from the air, or on the ground is not permitted. Likewise, “keeping cremated remains in the home of a relative or friend of the deceased are not the reverent disposition that the Church requires.” The principle of respect for the cremated remains of a deceased Christian mirrors the respect afforded their body. The body is always laid to rest with solemnity and dignity.

Note: If you are aware of members of your family who have not properly interned the cremains of your beloved please share with them the above. It is out of respect for the relationship of the deceased, with their eternal design, that there be proper interment.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION CEMETERY HAS CREMATION AND BURIAL PLOTS AVAILABLE

I am pleased, as a Pastor, to have a wonderful cemetery to serve our Faithful Departed. In the past several years we have made great improvements to the cemetery by adding two new sections for the “Catholic” community of the Norwin area to intern their loved ones. The cemetery has both crematory and burial plots to offer the families of our community. If you have not yet made arrangements for yourself or loved ones I would encourage you to visit our cemetery or call for more information and availability @ 724-244-5831. Jerry Kunkle, the Cemetery Manager, will help you with all your questions and needs.

“GOOD STEWARDS OF BAPTISM”

The Role of Godparents

The excitement that surrounds a birth generates a great desire to invite others to share in the life of the child. Many times the choice of Godparents is based on the relationship of the parents with their own brothers and sisters or life-long friends. Choosing from this group is most logical for they will have the greatest contact with the child throughout their lives. But the role of Godparent is more than an honorary one for it demands one to represent the Church and a life of Faith.

Godparents: “Are you ready to help these parents in their duty as Christian Mothers and Fathers?”

(Rite of Baptism) “For the grace of Baptism to unfold, the parents' help is important. So too is the role of godfather and godmother, who must be firm believers, able and ready to help the newly baptized on the road of Christian life. Their task is a truly ecclesial function (officium). The whole ecclesial community bears some responsibility for the development and safeguarding of the grace given at Baptism, but is secondary to the parents and godparents.” (Catholic Catechism)

An Ecclesial function denotes sponsorship based on the profound faith and active life in the Church by one who is to fulfill the role of godparent.

Prerequisites of the (sponsor) god parent to fulfill the role:

- ✠ Sponsors are to be at least 16 years of age
- ✠ They must be Catholics who are already confirmed and have received the Holy Eucharist.
- ✠ They must be leading a life of faith in harmony with the duty that they are undertaking, (valid sacramental marriage and weekly Mass attendance).
- ✠ They must have the qualification for and intention of carrying out this duty.

Note: The proposed sponsor must be approved by their Pastor according to the Canonical Law before they can be admitted as a Godparent.

BEFORE YOU ASK...BE A GOOD STEWARD!

Many times parents fail to investigate whether the person in which they desire to be the Godparent of their child meets the above criteria. This can cause great disappointment for the parent as well as the potential Godparent if they are not properly disposed or qualified to act as sponsor. Before you ask... Make sure they are more than a close friend or relative, make sure they are a good practicing Catholic who can aid your child in accomplishing Eternal Life.

Samuel Sebastian Wesley

VOCATIONS PRAYER

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father’s voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless, you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Isaiah 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not be silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her vindication shines forth like the dawn
and her victory like a burning torch.
Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory; you shall be called by a new name pronounced by the mouth of the LORD.
You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal diadem held by your God. No more shall people call you "Forsaken," or your land "Desolate," but you shall be called "My Delight," and your land "Espoused." For the LORD delights in you and makes your land his spouse. As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 96
Steven Janco

Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 12:4-11

Brothers and sisters: There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord;
there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom; to another, the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit; to another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit; to another, mighty deeds; to another, prophecy; to another, discernment of spirits; to another, varieties of tongues; to another, interpretation of tongues. But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

John 2:1-11

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from — although the servers who had drawn the water knew —, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him,
"Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.

Diocese of Greensburg

Holy Father Asks Us All to Share Ideas In Survey, Town Hall Listening Sessions

The Diocese of Greensburg is undertaking a massive effort to listen to a broad range of people throughout our faith community and discuss major issues together with a goal of hearing where the Holy Spirit is calling the Church. These efforts include a pastoral connectivity survey and a series of both in-person and virtual town hall meetings at which Bishop Larry J. Kulick will be present.

What is a synod?

A synod is a gathering of church leaders, both clergy and laity. In April 2021, Pope Francis initiated a synodal journey of the whole People of God, to take place in individual Dioceses in 2022 and culminating in October 2023 in the Assembly of the Synod of Bishops.

The USCCB says this "Synod on Synodality" is intended to inspire people to dream about the Church we are called to be, to make people's hopes flourish, to stimulate trust, to bind up wounds, to weave new and deeper relationships, to learn from one another, to build bridges, to enlighten minds, to warm hearts, and to restore strength to our hands for our common mission.

How you can participate:

1. Take the Pastoral Connectivity Survey.

This short survey is open to everyone and can be taken online at www.dioceseofgreensburg.org/synod (click on "Take Pastoral Connectivity Survey"). Or, take the paper survey included in your parish bulletin on "Survey Saturday/Survey Sunday, January 22-23. The paper survey will also be available in the January 20 issue of The Catholic Accent. Please mail your response to: Office of Communications, 725 E. Pittsburgh Street, Greensburg, PA 15601.

2. Attend an in-person Town Hall Listening Session.

For a complete listing, check your bulletin or log on to www.dioceseofgreensburg.org/synod for more information.

3. Participate in a Zoom Town Hall Listening Session.

Check your bulletin or log on to www.dioceseofgreensburg.org/synod for more information.

We are happy to announce our ninth annual “Night at the Races” - Saturday, February 5, 2022. In addition to being a fund-raiser for Immaculate Conception Parish it will be a great night out!

But what exactly will take place....Let's review. How can one win money and also give a donation to the church! Following is an outline of the night's events so you can be sure of what to expect.

Registrants will receive one admission ticket, the ownership of a horse or jockey, great food, drinks and dessert – at a cost of $20.00. The horse owners are entitled to the naming of a horse and have it entered into one of the 8 races for the evening. NOTE: Once 80 horses have been sold the names of additional horses will become jockeys. Each race will have ten horses and jockeys running for the roses! The winner of the race entitles the owner(s) to glean the $40 prize for that race! Each race will be displayed on the TV screens in the hall and the race will be called “live” by our professional caller. He will provide 25 DVD races chosen randomly by one of our guests. The winner is disclosed only to the caller.

Placing Bets

Even though you may not be an owner of a horse or jockey in a particular race everyone is welcome to lay as many bets on whatever horse and jockey you fancy. Maybe you will bet on your friend's horse or jockey or a name that “sounds” like a winner! All bets will be taken at the betting windows and then the race is run. The odds will be figured out based on how many have bet on the winning horse and jockey leaving of course the house a purse as well. The winners will be notified of the payout and will pick up their winnings at the payout window. Then the windows will be open for the next race!

Other games of chance and other prizes!

Throughout the night there will be a 50-50, paint sticks, and strip tickets. You may want to take a chance on SUPER BOWL RAFFLE TICKET which includes a TV, other prizes and cash.

The Food Menu - There will be plenty of great food and of course dessert. The thirst for beer and soda will be satisfied! We encourage you to bring your own favorite food or beverage to share with your friends at your table.

Auction Race – At the end of the 8 races the excitement is only to begin when bets are taken for the auction race! Ten Horses will be auctioned off to the highest bidder. Usually these horses are sold for well over $100 which allows whole groups of people to pool their money to buy a horse. The winnings will be a straight 50-50 split with the house! It is very realistic to win over $500 in this race!!

BRING PLENTY OF CASH WITH YOU TO INCREASE YOUR CHANCES TO WIN AND THE OVERALL SUCCESS OF OUR FUND RAISER!!!

You can make checks payable to “Immaculate Conception Church” in exchange for betting cash.
