NOTES FROM THE PASTOR

Trinity Sunday

The western Church observes the feast of the Most Holy Trinity on the first Sunday after Pentecost. Every Sunday, and every day, being dedicated to God. Therefore, in a measure a feast of the Trinity, a special feast did not become general until the 14th century, and it is still unknown in Eastern rites. It was first used in the church of Canterbury under Saint Thomas Becket and spread from thence.

Light, Radiance and Grace are in the Trinity and from the Trinity A letter by St Athanasius

It will not be out of place to consider the ancient tradition, teaching and faith of the Catholic Church, which was revealed by the Lord, proclaimed by the apostles and guarded by the fathers. For upon this faith the Church is built, and if anyone were to lapse from it, he would no longer be a Christian either in fact or in name.

We acknowledge the Trinity, holy and perfect, to consist of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. In this Trinity there is no intrusion of any alien element or of anything from outside, nor is the Trinity a blend of creative and created being. It is a wholly creative and energizing reality, self-consistent and undivided in its active power, for the Father makes all things through the Word and in the Holy Spirit, and in this way the unity of the holy Trinity is preserved. Accordingly, in the Church, one God is preached, one God who is above all things and through all things and in all things. God is above all things as Father, for he is principle and source; he is through all things through the Word; and he is in all things in the Holy Spirit.

Writing to the Corinthians about spiritual matters, Paul traces all reality back to one God, the Father, saying: Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of service but the same Lord; and there are varieties of working, but it is the same God who inspires them all in everyone.

Even the gifts that the Spirit dispenses to individuals are given by the Father through the Word. For all that belongs to the Father belongs also to the Son, and so the graces given by the Son in the Spirit are true gifts of the Father.

Similarly, when the Spirit dwells in us, the Word who bestows the Spirit is in us too, and the Father is present in the Word. This is the meaning of the text: My Father and I will come to him and make our home with him. For where the light is, there also is the radiance; and where the radiance is, there too are its power and its resplendent grace.

This is also Paul's teaching in his second letter to the Corinthians: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all. For grace and the gift of the Trinity are given by the Father through the Son in the Holy Spirit. Just as grace is given from the Father through the Son, so there could be no communication of the gift to us except in the Holy Spirit. But when we share in the Spirit, we possess the love of the Father, the grace of the Son and the fellowship of the Spirit himself.

FROM THE CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH— THE HOLY TRINITY

IN BRIEF

261 The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian faith and of Christian life. God alone can make it known to us by revealing himself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

262 The Incarnation of God's Son reveals that God is the eternal Father and that the Son is consubstantial with the Father, which means that, in the Father and with the Father the Son is one and the same God.

263 The mission of the Holy Spirit, sent by the Father in the name of the Son (Jn 14:26) and by the Son "from the Father" (Jn 15:26), reveals that, with them, the Spirit is one and the same God. "With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified" (Nicene Creed).

264 "The Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father as the first principle and, by the eternal gift of this to the Son, from the communion of both the Father and the Son" (St. Augustine, De Trin. 15, 26, 47: PL 42, 1095).

265 By the grace of Baptism "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit", we are called to share in the life of the Blessed Trinity, here on earth in the obscurity of faith, and after death in eternal light (cf. Paul VI, CPG § 9).

266 "Now this is the Catholic faith: We worship one God in the Trinity and the Trinity in unity, without either confusing the persons or dividing the substance; for the person of the Father is one, the Son's is another, the Holy Spirit's another; but the Godhead of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit is one, their glory equal, their majesty coeternal" (Athanasian Creed: DS 75; ND 16).

267 Inseparable in what they are, the divine persons are also inseparable in what they do. But within the single divine operation each shows forth what is proper to him in the Trinity, especially in the divine missions of the Son's Incarnation and the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Diocesan Lenten Appeal Success and Upcoming Projects

I first want to thank everyone who shared in the Diocesan Lenten Appeal again this year! We reached our Diocesan Goal of $138,116.00. As of June 4th, our parish share is $87,618.00. We are $7,382.00 away from our parish target of $95,000.00. On behalf of Bishop Kulick and myself we thank you for helping us to continue the missions of the Diocesan and parish life. The Diocesan portion helps with the overall mission of the church and the parish share helps us to continue the facilities repairs and upgrades that are necessary for safe environment and growing parish life. Our projects are always managed in a timely fashion and only challenged today by supply and demand.

So here is brief summary of what we are working on to accomplish before summer's end.

- ◇ Refinishing the exterior doors of the church – This will be the third time during my tenure that we have refinished the exterior doors of the church. They are solid oak and need to be refinished and restored to their original luster. We will also be replacing the door in the alley since the bottom has nearly rotted through. That project began this week.
- ◇ Exterior Lights for the parking Lots – This project has been under way with bids on exterior lights that will better light our parking area. These lights will be placed on the administration building and give a safer and more visible parking for all parishioners.
- ◇ Parish Organ upgrade – Excited about the upgrade of the parish organ with the latest electronic advances but frustrated by supply chain issues. As soon as the parts are available we will begin the renovation.

Easter Take Down -- if you have a few minutes to spare after 11:30 am Mass on June 19, please consider joining us as we remove the Easter decorations from our Church's interior. Thank you!

Please Donate items for our USA Missions. Broken Rosaries, extra rosaries, medals, Saint Holy cards, small crosses for rosaries and other small religious items. There will be a basket in the back of the church for these items. Thank you very much.

Noah Kelly of the 412 Youth High School Ministry, in conjunction with St. Barbara's Youth Ministry, is raising money to attend the National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC) in Long Beach, California. NCYC is an immersive experience for high school students that includes nationally known speakers, adoration, praise and worship, and faith-based workshops. They will also get to spend two days in Disneyland! In order to offset the cost, Noah will be selling hoagies after the 4:30 mass on Saturday, June 18th. The cost is $7.00 each. Grab a delicious hoagie and help our youth grow closer to Christ.

Queen of Angels Catholic School - It is with great pleasure to honor and recognize the graduation Class of 2022, Brayden N. Frischolz, and Xavier Michael Wolf.

These students have had many accomplishments while attending Queen of Angels. I am sure they will continue to be successful as they strive to complete their education. We are blessed to have a Board of Trust Administrators to lead and guide us spiritually. Our Catholic Faith will continue to grow with their guidance.

We appreciate and are thankful to our parents of Queen of Angels. We are fortunate to have been a part of their children's lives and education.

We wish our eighth-grade students the best as they move on to a new school. Our thoughts and prayers go with them always.

God bless you,
Mrs. Jennifer Filak

ORGAN PRELUDE

Prelude on "Diademata"

Barry Ferguson

VOCATIONS PRAYER

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Crown Him with Many Crowns

DIADEMATA

1. Crown him with man - y crowns, The Lamb up - on his throne;
2. Crown him the Lord of life, Who tri-umphed o'er the grave,
3. Crown him the Lord of heav'n, Where an - gels sing a - bove;

1. All king-doms of the earth re - sound In praise of him a - lone.
2. Who on the third day did a - rise And hope to sin - ners gave.
3. Crown him the King, to whom is giv'n The won - drous name of Love.

1. A - wake, my soul, and sing Of him who died for thee,
2. His glo - ry now we sing, Who died and rose on high,
3. Crown him with man - y crowns, As thrones be - fore him fall.

1. And hail him as thy ris - en King For all e - ter - ni - ty.
2. Who came e - ter - nal life to bring, Who lives, no more to die.
3. Through - out the earth his praise re - sounds For he is Lord of all.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Proverbs 8:22-31

Thus says the wisdom of God:
"The LORD possessed me,
the beginning of his ways,
the forerunner of his prodigies of long ago;
from of old I was poured forth,
at the first, before the earth.
When there were no depths
I was brought forth,
when there were no fountains
or springs of water;
before the mountains were settled into place, before the hills, I was brought forth; while as yet the earth and fields were not made, nor the first clods of the world.

"When the Lord established the heavens
I was there,
when he marked out the vault
over the face of the deep;
when he made firm the skies above,
when he fixed fast the foundations of the earth;
when he set for the sea its limit, so that the waters should not transgress his command;
then was I beside him as his craftsman,
and I was his delight day by day,
playing before him all the while,
playing on the surface of his earth;
and I found delight in the human race."

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 8
Michel Guimont

O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

SECOND READING

Romans 5:1-5

Brothers and sisters:
Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:
"I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now.
But when he comes, the Spirit of truth,
he will guide you to all truth.
He will not speak on his own,
but he will speak what he hears,
and will declare to you
the things that are coming.
He will glorify me,
because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you.
Everything that the Father has is mine;
for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.

MISSION

As you read a Bible story tonight before bed, ask the Holy Spirit to teach you what Jesus wants you to learn.
