Thoughts from the Pastor

HOW IS MY DRIVING? CALL 1-800-VATICAN Bless me Father for I have sinned

Before seatbelts, airbags, power steering and Anti-lock Brake Systems we relied on my Fathers driving skill and PRAYER to arrive safely at our destination. We piled into the car and as dad headed up the road—no matter how far the trip— we began our prayer: “Our lady of the highway, be with us on our journey, for all your ways are beautiful and all your paths are peace.” This invocation followed by a “Hail Mary” successfully carried the Moineau family from point “A” to point “B” each and every time. Then when I got older I was given the keys to the car myself and was asked to make a commitment to the Sacred Heart and the Driver’s Oath before I was allowed to venture out onto the roadways. The privilege of driving was to be respected, recognized as dangerous and approached with moral responsibility. So when the Vatican recently addressed driving as an “occasion of sin” handing down “Ten Commandments” to follow it made perfect sense to me..... Especially when so many people confess their actions behind the wheel as sinful. So, the car can be an occasion of sin or a vehicle of Grace... we must decide...

OCCASION OF SIN COULD LEAD TO DEATH

When our nation went on alert against possible terrorist attacks guarding against anthrax, bombings and military threats we remain caught in the cross-hairs of irresponsible drivers controlling a two-ton missile loaded with combustible fuel. Whether the driver is on a suicide mission or murder suicide adventure we are subjected to threat. Just last week a man paid $25,000 for the newest of these weapons and within a mile of the dealership he rocketed his mustang into the air nearly killing himself and his passenger. 42,635 people died in auto accidents while 10,143 of those deaths were alcohol-related fatalities. Is it any wonder the commandment: “Thou shall not Kill” comes to mind? So as the culture goes so does the Church in addressing basic moral laws and virtues to our everyday life. People may laugh at the Catholic Church for being “Pastoral” towards their approach to driving.... But it is no laughing matter.

VEHICLE OF GRACE

Each of us jump into our vehicles and head off to church, work, school, the soccer fields, grocery stores or to visit friends without giving it a thought that our vehicle is an opportunity to practice the Virtues. The statement on “driving” that the Vatican released states that the Virtues of charity of neighbor, prudence, justice and hope are to be practiced as safe driving guidelines.

Charity of Neighbor means to make sure your vehicle is safe for the roadways and does not present potential hazards to others sharing the road with you. Practicing patience and humility affords one to be courteous to others and aware of pedestrians, cyclists and less skilled drivers. Waving a hand for someone to move into the flow of traffic is preferable to raising one finger in disdain of those trying to edge their way into traffic. Love the least of your brother.... AMEN.

Virtue of Prudence can simply be recognizing your own abilities and the limits of the car to perform. Such awareness to speed and braking distances, the use of turn signals and weather conditions allows one to travel safely through the everyday hazards of the roadways. Personal distractions as the use of radio (louder than the senses) and cell phones should be considered as distractions that can impair your ability to drive safely.

Virtue of Justice requires that drivers have a full and precise knowledge of the Highway Code. Indeed, those who use the roads should know the regulations and take them into account. Furthermore, drivers are obliged to demonstrate that they are in a suitable physical and psychological condition. If they are inebriated, they should never get behind the wheel of a car nor be authorized to do so. Like anyone else, they are obliged to be sober: in fact, alcohol creates a state of euphoria and reduces mental capacity to the extent of giving rise to fatal accidents.” Restitution for damage done in careless driving is a moral obligation. The Virtue of Justice must always find forgiveness from the victims toward the aggressors as well.

Virtue of Hope means that every traveler has the hope to arrive safely at their destination. Acting in a charitable way in assisting others who become stranded by car malfunctions or mishaps calls to mind the aid the good Samaritan gave to the man along the road and the aid Joseph and Mary finally received in Bethlehem. Allowing oneself plenty of time to travel safely also plays into the journey being one of virtue instead of an occasion of sin.

ROAD RAGE – NOT A NEW THING

In 1998 the Washington post coined the term “Road Rage” for the over aggressive approach to driving. It has become a matter of extreme hatred for people in other cars Especially for those who are following the laws of the road and if by any chance you are making a left turn you are an idiot and incompetent driver. There is a sense that each highway should be a raceway and every city street a place of contempt for those who are simply driving to work or home.

This is not a new phenomenon, for I think driving and rage have been there since the invention of the automobile. Recently I purchased on eBay a collection of magazines called the “Ligoian” from 1964. As I read through the magazine it seems that the problems we have today are the same problems we suffered some 60 years ago. As I was reading through one magazine I came across a “Drivers Litany” that still applies to todays challenges of driving and go along with this article virtues vs. sin. I want to post it here in this article as well as the Holy Father’s Ten Commandments of driving.

A Driver’s Litany- May 1964

From Domineering driving, from the vanity of power and infection of speed, God Deliver me

From carelessness and indifference, from the demon of impatience and the tyranny of time. God Deliver me.

From ignorance and ungraciousness, from harsh judgment and the food of invective, God Deliver me

From inattention and monotony, from the delusion of drink and obscurity of fatigue, God Deliver me

Grant me, O Lord, a divine courtesy to all. Awake in me abiding care for the slowness of age and the rashness of youth. Let our vehicles become instruments of thy purpose bringing happiness to all who travel with us and leaving no one weeping at our passing. This we beg in Christ’s name Amen.

Rev. Robert Strapps

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS OF DRIVING:

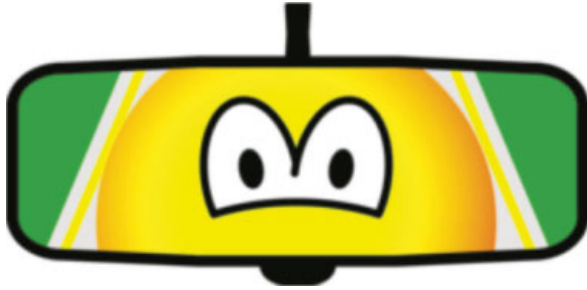

1. You shall not kill.
2. The road shall be for you a means of communion between people and not of mortal harm.
3. Courtesy, uprightness and prudence will help you deal with unforeseen events.
4. Be charitable and help your neighbor in need, especially victims of accidents.
5. Cars shall not be for you an expression of power and domination, and an occasion of sin.
6. Charitably convince the young and not so young not to drive when they are not in a fitting condition to do so.
7. Support the families of accident victims.
8. Bring guilty motorists and their victims together so that they can experience forgiveness.
9. On the road, protect the more vulnerable party.
10. Feel responsible towards others.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless, you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING 1 Kings 19:16b, 19-21

The LORD said to Elijah: "You shall anoint Elisha, son of Shaphat of Abelmeholah, as prophet to succeed you." Elijah set out and came upon Elisha, son of Shaphat, as he was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen; he was following the twelfth. Elijah went over to him and threw his cloak over him. Elisha left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, "Please, let me kiss my father and mother goodbye, and I will follow you." Elijah answered, "Go back! Have I done anything to you?" Elisha left him, and taking the yoke of oxen, slaughtered them; he used the plowing equipment for fuel to boil their flesh, and gave it to his people to eat. Then Elisha left and followed Elijah as his attendant.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 16 John Schiavone

You are my inheritance, O Lord.

SECOND READING Galatians 5:1, 13-18

Brothers and sisters: For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery. For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love. For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you go on biting and devouring one another, beware that you are not consumed by one another. I say, then: live by the Spirit and you will certainly not gratify the desire of the flesh. For the flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you may not do what you want. But if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING Luke 9:51-62

When the days for Jesus' being taken up were fulfilled, he resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem, and he sent messengers ahead of him. On the way they entered a Samaritan village to prepare for his reception there, but they would not welcome him because the destination of his journey was Jerusalem. When the disciples James and John saw this they asked, "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?" Jesus turned and rebuked them, and they journeyed to another village. As they were proceeding on their journey someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." Jesus answered him, "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." And to another he said, "Follow me." But he replied, "Lord, let me go first and bury my father." But he answered him, "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." And another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
