St. Peregrine Patron Saint of Cancer Patients Conference

Monday July 11 6:30 pm/Tuesday July 12th 6:30 pm
St. Elizabeth Ann Seton (in the church)

St. Peregrine, like St. Paul, was in open defiance of the Church as a youth. Once given the grace of conversion he became one of the great saints of his time. His great fervor and qualities as a confessor brought many back to the true Faith. Afflicted with cancer, Peregrine turned to God and was richly rewarded for his Faith, enabling him over many years to lead others to the truth. He is the patron of cancer patients.

All are welcome to attend.

Tuesday, July 12th, is an Anointing Mass for cancer patients

Thoughts from the Pastor

Pro-life Focus: “Changing Hearts and Saving Souls”

In the wake of the over-turning of Roe vs. Wade focus now must shift more to “Changing Hearts and Saving Souls.”

When I was young I thought that it would be difficult for any soul to end up in Hell. For then, as I do today. Know and believe that God’s Mercy is greater than any sin.... I mean any sin no matter how atrocious and evil it may be in its action and execution. Abortion is a great evil in our society and the promoting of it as a women’s right of their body is the same approach Satan used in the Garden of Eden when half-truths were told to Adam and Eve making them also believe that they were just as capable of deciding right and wrong, good and evil for themselves. Their sin was devastating causing the loss of the gift of paradise and in return receiving death. Every grave sin is a choice to set ourselves up as a God and believe that we have the right to choose what IS right and wrong for the glory of our own earthly lives. Notice I said to choose what IS right and wrong. This is not the same as using free will to choose an Absolute right over a absolute wrong which is Divine truth revealed by God. One is always free choose evil over good but we must not misconstrue this principal with the modern day and theory of moral relativism. Which states:

Ethical relativism is the theory that holds that morality is relative to the norms of one's culture. That is, whether an action is right or wrong depends on the moral norms of the society in which it is practiced not upon the absolute of Divine Truth.

This view leads one into two grave and moral dilemmas’:

1. That there is no Divine Truth
2. That there is no need for a moral code or a responsibility for our actions in relationship with God.

Moral relativism is the slippery slope on which a society shuts out God and creates a world that seeks to act freely without any consequences for those actions because their behavior is relative only to the Truth that “they” have conjured up in their own mind and uninformed conscience.

When I witnessed the absolute hate towards the over turning of Roe vs. Wade on the faces of many worldly officials and pro-choice people I felt the evil one’s presence and he was laughing at the sacredness of life. Oh yes, Satan is living a dream with those who believe that their sexual behaviors have no moral consequences and the offspring of the beautiful gift of procreation can be terminated and be labeled a women’s choice. Satan finds his winning groove again as he once had in the garden turning the beauty and sanctity of man, women and family into the selfless act of Pride and self-glory. Yes, it is true and firmly believed and taught that Jesus’ Mercy endures and can conquer the actions of grave and deadly sin.... But it has to be sought for... it has to be asked for It has to be desired as a way to know and live in Christ and the promise of eternal life. If one does not seek, nor asked or desire to live in the life of Christ or the love of God then the undeniable consequence of eternal damnation will be the reality of those who have closed their lives off from the Truth, the love of God and the sustaining and building of His Kingdom here on earth.

SO, WE MUST TURN OUR FOCUS ON CHANGING HEARTS AND SAVING SOULS!

This is the crux of the problem: One cannot legislate morality. We must teach the Truth and the importance of moral code as an act of love and not restraint. We must teach that choices against moral Truth is always sinful (a deadening of life) and not a freeing of the spirit. We must instruct teach and share the values of life and family to our children so they understand the dignity of women in the same light we hold the greatest woman and mother, Mary of the Lord. We must live in the way that life is sacred from the moment of conception until natural death through loving patience and charity.

Changing Hearts: This is the key we need to awaken in the hearts of all who believe that an abortion is a “right” and not a direct act of hatred against another human person. We must focus more on the unborn child and its complete dependence of its’ MOTHER! We must learn to allow the unborn, who has no voice, to use its beating heart (five weeks after conception) to sound loud as a cry for love and life!

PRO LIFE GENERATION

Our teenagers must be able to identify themselves with the idea that they are Pro-life! This means we must impress upon them the sanctity of life, the dignity of virginity and the wholesomeness of relationships that lead to family life of Faith. We need to help them to overcome the world’s view of “if it feels good do it” and show them that a child’s life, in every situation (because of its vulnerability) must be protected first above all other desires and concerns.

Putting the Child First – What mother, father, family member would not have sacrificed their own life for the sake and safety of their child in Uvalde Texas at the moment of the shooting and murders of the innocent. This is what we need to return to for the unborn as well for they too are defenseless to the procedure of abortion that takes their life.

Saving Souls – I believe and know that the Holy Innocent of abortion are in heaven suffering a martyr’s death. But the souls that are being lost are those who believe abortion is a right and the pregnancy is not a child and choose to end its life. The souls of doctors that perform abortions and see the death first hand. The souls of those who encourage abortions for the sake of the easier path. Souls are in jeopardy and we must act in a loving and merciful way to reach them. Prayers to our Lady and the recitation of the Divine Mercy should be our focus.

Sacrament of Reconciliation – We must encourage those that we know who have had abortions to seek reconciliation and healing through the Church. To become then advocates for others who need advice and comfort as they live the reality and pain of the choice to choose themselves over their unborn child.

Heart Speaks to Heart – We desire in our prayer that our heart may speak directly to the heart of Christ. Remembering: “Jesus took on flesh to become like us so that we may become like Him.” How beautiful this would be for a woman to realize that the very life with in them beats with a heart that is “shared” with theirs! How beautiful it would be if they could only imagine that their pregnancy was not a problem but a new life that would and could become like them. An image of themselves to nurture and to love into the love of God. This is our goal and we must work towards it with fervent love.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless, you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Moses said to the people: "If only you would heed the voice of the LORD, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes that are written in this book of the law, when you return to the LORD, your God, with all your heart and all your soul. "For this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious and remote for you. It is not up in the sky, that you should say, 'Who will go up in the sky to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?' Nor is it across the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross the sea to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?' No, it is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out."

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 69
Owen Alstott

*Turn to the Lord in your need,
and you will live.*

SECOND READING

Colossians 1:15-20

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church.

He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Luke 10:25-37

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test him and said, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" He said in reply, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live." But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied, "A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and cared for him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.' Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.

(For more information on these groups and more activities please visit our website www.icirwin.org)

Immaculata Men's Group (IMG)

IMG is an interactive men's group that is focused on the development of men in the modern world. It combines the best research for science with the teachings of the Catholic faith and the wisdom of the saints to develop the vision of authentic men capable of transforming society. The group meets regularly on Saturday mornings in Our Lady's Plaza beginning promptly at 6:30 a.m. until 7:50 a.m.

Immaculata Women's Group (IWG)

The IWG brings women of all ages together on a spiritual journey to grow in faith and to better understand and apply the teachings of the church. Women share how their Catholic faith has impacted their lives amidst the challenges of today's society. The group meets regularly on Sunday mornings in Our Lady's Plaza beginning promptly at 6:30 a.m. and concludes at 7:50 a.m.

Christian Mother's/ Women's Group (CM/WG)

The CM/WG brings women together to share their spiritual relationship with our Lord and to further enhance that relationship within their own families, parish and community. Through prayer, conferences and fellowship the Christian Mothers/ Women's Guild strive to support the spiritual growth our parish families. Meetings are bi-monthly on Tuesdays following the 6:30 pm Mass.

Theology on the Vine (TOV)

Intended for anyone 21 and older, this group meets on the last Thursday of the month for ten months during the year. Sessions begin at 6:30 p.m. with a community social and refreshments of wine and cheese followed by the main presentation/guest speaker at 7 p.m. and a question and answer session.
