Thoughts from the Pastor

Martha and Mary

Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak. Martha, burdened with much serving, came to him and said,

“Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me.” The Lord said to her in reply,

“Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her.”

Luke 10:38-42

(The article below was written by Jennifer Gregory Miller. Following the writing is information and a link for Jennifer’s bio.)

Volumes have been written about Martha and Mary, with all sorts of conclusions and “insights” about the two sisters, so I don’t want to belabor the point except sharing a few thoughts. Growing up my grandmother and aunts used to identify the females in the family with their tendency as either a Martha or Mary. My mother was a Mary, I was a Martha. It wasn’t until I was older that I could see that I needed to aim at imitating not just one of the saints, but the combination of the two.

Imitation of Martha and Mary

Martha shouldn’t be identified solely with her complaining to Jesus and preoccupation with work. She was chastised by Jesus for not having her priorities and she took it to heart. Martha learned her lesson, showing later when Lazarus died that she had learned to contemplate our Lord. When she comes to greet Jesus, she makes her statement of belief: “Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world (Luke 11:27).” If Martha had continued her state of busyness without prayer she could not have come to this act of Faith and recognition.

Imitating Mary doesn’t mean a life of inactivity and all contemplation. Yes, she sat at Our Lord’s feet in life at Bethany and repeated the gesture with anointing of Jesus’ feet (John 12:25) and again at His feet while He hung on the cross (John 19:25). But she is also recorded with actions of penitence and anointing, and also the intention of anointing Jesus’ body. She also bears the distinct privilege having the first recorded Resurrection appearance in the Gospels (John 20:11-18), afterwards running to notify the disciples immediately.

In contemplating both Mary and Martha in the Gospel, it seems we need to imitate both of them in action and contemplation. Even in our work we need to be in prayer, directing our thoughts to God, similar to the theme Ora et Labora of the order of the earlier July saint, St. Benedict. One of my favorite books provides practical advice for putting into action this contemplation in work is Praying While You Work: Devotions for the Use of Martha Rather than Mary by Dom Hubert Van Zeller (which is reprinted by Sophia as Holiness for Housewives).

Contemplating Christ at Bethany

This passage draws thoughts about Mary and Martha together with their brother Lazarus at their home in Bethany. How many times did Our Lord come to visit His friends? Bethany seemed to be His place of refuge from the crowds, where He could be comfortable and treated like family. Thinking of Bethany recalls the recent feast of Corpus Christi and the dedication of the month of July to the most Precious Blood and thoughts on the Eucharist and contemplation of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. St. Josemaria Escriva always called the tabernacle Bethany:

For me the tabernacle has always been a Bethany, a quiet and pleasant place where Christ resides. A place where we can tell him about our worries, our sufferings, our desires, our joys, with the same sort of simplicity and naturalness as Martha, Mary and Lazarus. That is why I rejoice when I stumble upon a church in town or in the country; it’s another tabernacle, another opportunity for the soul to escape and join in intention our Lord in the Sacrament (Christ is passing by, Number 154).

And we draw on imitating the sister saints in approaching Our Lord. We recall their intimacy with Jesus:

If you wish to get close to Our Lord through the pages of the Gospels, I always recommend that you try to enter in on the scene taking part as just one more person there. In this way (and I know many perfectly ordinary people who live this way) you will be captivated like Mary was, who hung on every word that Jesus uttered or, like Martha, you will boldly make your worries known to Him, opening your heart sincerely about them all no matter how little they may be (St. Josemaria, Friends of God, 222).

Depending on our state in life will decide whether we are primarily contemplative like Mary and adding work in our contemplation as Martha, or being primarily active as Martha, but praying while we work. May the dear friends of Jesus, Saints Martha and Mary, help us in our prayer and sanctification of our ordinary duties in life.

SAINT PEREGRINE CONFERENCE

God's Blessings bestowed upon us!

This past week, at Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Church, we held a two day conference in honor of Saint Peregrine as our intercessor for cancer patients. The two-day event allowed me to share with others, who were participating in Cancer, thoughts on how to embrace it as the cross of Christ and as a gift of purification and Holiness. I compared the five steps of the cross to the five stages of grief, contrasting the difference between an earthly experience and a spiritual one. That first night we also shared in the litany of Saint Peregrine followed by the blessing, of all those suffering from cancer and their support persons, with the relic of Saint Peregrine.

I felt so blessed to have been able to share in the lives of so many others who are carrying this cross of suffering. I only hope that I inspired them to persevere and become "holy" through their suffering as Saint Peregrine taught us.

The second evening we celebrated Sacred Mass and Father Roniel and I anointed all those who were present both the sick and those who aid the sick. It is important to me that we realize the importance of intercessory prayer and the overwhelming power of the Sacrament of the Sick and the Holy Eucharist. We can never forget the ordinary way that God reaches us through the Sacraments and how He empowers us to be witness to His Son, our Crucified Lord, in times of suffering as witness to our Faith on the way, our love to share in His suffering and our Hope to share in the glory of the cross!

Spiritual Reflections:

I have posted 32 spiritual reflections on OSM as part of my Health and Spiritual updates. Each of the reflections deals with the reality of walking the way of the cross while trusting in God's Miraculous power of grace and healing power. IF you are interested in sharing these videos please use the QR code provided here. It will take you to a full playlist of these reflections. Please pray for all who suffer without knowing the value of the cross. Pray that they see it as a walk with Christ to perfection and holiness.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Genesis 18:1-10a

The LORD appeared to Abraham by the terebinth of Mamre, as he sat in the entrance of his tent, while the day was growing hot. Looking up, Abraham saw three men standing nearby. When he saw them, he ran from the entrance of the tent to greet them; and bowing to the ground, he said: "Sir, if I may ask you this favor, please do not go on past your servant. Let some water be brought, that you may bathe your feet, and then rest yourselves under the tree. Now that you have come this close to your servant, let me bring you a little food, that you may refresh yourselves; and afterward you may go on your way." The men replied, "Very well, do as you have said." Abraham hastened into the tent and told Sarah, "Quick, three measures of fine flour! Knead it and make rolls." He ran to the herd, picked out a tender, choice steer, and gave it to a servant, who quickly prepared it. Then Abraham got some curds and milk, as well as the steer that had been prepared, and set these before the three men; and he waited on them under the tree while they ate. They asked Abraham, "Where is your wife Sarah?" He replied, "There in the tent." One of them said, "I will surely return to you about this time next year, and Sarah will then have a son."

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 15

Michel Guimont

He who does justice will live in the presence of God.

SECOND READING

Colossians 1:24-28

Brothers and sisters: Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ on behalf of his body, which is the church, of which I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God, the mystery hidden from ages and from generations past. But now it has been manifested to his holy ones, to whom God chose to make known the riches of the Glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; it is Christ in you, the hope for glory. It is he whom we proclaim, admonishing everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone perfect in Christ.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.

Immaculata Men's Group (IMG)

It combines the best research for science with the teachings of the Catholic faith and the wisdom of the saints to develop the vision of authentic men capable of transforming society. The group meets regularly on Saturday mornings in Our Lady's Plaza beginning promptly at 6:30 a.m. until 7:50 a.m.

Immaculata Women's Group (IWG)

The IWG brings women of all ages together on a spiritual journey to grow in faith and to better understand and apply the teachings of the church. Women share how their Catholic faith has impacted their lives amidst the challenges of today's society. The group meets regularly on Sunday mornings in Our Lady's Plaza beginning promptly at 6:30 a.m. and concludes at 7:50 a.m.

Christian Mother's/ Women's Group (CM/WG)

The CM/WG brings women together to share their spiritual relationship with our Lord and to further enhance that relationship within their own families, parish and community. Through prayer, conferences and fellowship the Christian Mothers/Women's Guild strive to support the spiritual growth our parish families. Meetings are bi-monthly on Tuesdays following the 6:30 pm Mass.

Theology on the Vine (TOV)

Intended for anyone 21 and older, this group meets on the last Thursday of the month for ten months during the year. Sessions begin at 6:30 p.m. with a community social and refreshments of wine and cheese followed by the main presentation/guest speaker at 7 p.m. and a question and answer session.
