There is a Homebound Ministry training for Homebound Ministers and anyone interested in becoming a Homebound Minister on Saturday, October 22nd at 10am in Our Lady's Plaza. All those taking Holy Communion to the homebound, nursing homes as well as family members and friends will be instructed on the procedure on being a Minister of Care to the Homebound. The program will include the purpose of the Ministry, "the Rite of the Sick", IC guidelines, handling the Sacred Host, and Do's and Don't's followed by a demonstration of a home visit by Father John.

Contact Sharyn at the Parish Office at 724-863-9550 or sgesmond@dioceseofgreensburg.org to sign up or with any questions.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Level I, for ages 3-6 years, still has openings for the 2022-2023 faith formation year.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is faith formation for young children which is currently offered at Immaculate Conception. It is based on the philosophy that even the youngest child is in a relationship with God. Modeled after the Montessori method of learning, Catechesis of the Good Shepherd uses a prepared atrium room to help children learn and grow in their faith.

To register or if there are any questions about the program, please contact Stephanie Scavnicky at 412-818-9730. Thank you.

Leaves are starting fall
(lots of clean up required!)
and soon we'll be putting up Christmas Lights
as well as our beautiful Nativity.

Did you know at our Church
the Landscaping Committee takes care of all these things?

Want to help us?

Thoughts from the Pastor

THIS WEEK: A TWO-DAY EVENT OF PRAISE AND HEALING WITH DEACON JACK SULLIVAN

RECIPIANT OF AN AUTHENTIC AND APPROVED MIRACLE THAT LED TO A SAINTS CANONIZATION!!

DAY ONE: October 13th at 6:00 PM.

Deacon Jack Sullivan will share his full story at the Theology on the Vine in Our Ladies Plaza. This is a chance to learn about the canonization process and see the living miracle pronounced by the Church!!

DAY TWO: October 14th at 6:30pm in Immaculate Conception Church

HEALING SERVICE and the BLESSING WITH THE RELIC OF CARDINAL NEWMAN
Deacon Jack will give the Homily and share about Cardinal Newman and the other miracles contributed to him through a blessing with his relic and intercession. After the blessing with the relic Father Roniel and I will offer the Sacrament of Holy Anointing!

Read a brief synopsis of Deacon Jack's story:

The beneficiary of a Vatican-approved miracle attributed to the intercession of Servant of God John Henry Cardinal Newman says an EWTN show inspired him to pray to the saint for the healing of his back injuries that could have paralyzed him. His use of a relic of the cardinal may also be linked to a second miracle.

John "Jack" Sullivan had awoken to excruciating pain in June 2000. A CT scan revealed that all or most of the vertebrae and discs in his back had turned inward and were squeezing his spinal cord. A neurosurgeon advised him to have immediate surgery to prevent paralysis.

Sullivan, in the second year of a four-year diaconate program, knew that the pain, the surgery and recovery period would mean the end of his effort to become a deacon. So, he prayed to Cardinal Newman for his intercession so that I might walk and go back to classes and be ordained.”

He felt tremendous heat and a tingling feeling all over that lasted for five or 10 minutes. After he experienced this, he immediately stood up straight. I was able to walk, not with a walker or cane, but on my own, without any difficulty or pain. Deacon Sullivan was ordained to the diaconate on September 14, 2001.

COME HEAR THE WHOLE FANTASTIC STORY AND SHARE IN THE GIFT OF HEALLING!!

POPE FRANCIS ON VISITING THE SICK

Jesus' life, especially in the three years of His public ministry, was an incessant encounter with individuals. Among these, the sick had a special place. How many pages of the Gospel talk about these encounters! The paralytic, the blind, the leper, the possessed, the epileptic, and innumerable sick of all sorts ... Jesus made Himself close to each one of them, and He healed them with His presence and the power of His healing strength. Therefore, among the works of mercy, to visit and assist the sick cannot be lacking.

With this work of mercy, the Lord invites us to a gesture of great humanity: sharing. We remember this word: sharing. One who is sick often feels alone. We cannot hide <the fact> that, especially in our days, precisely in sickness, one has a more profound experience of the solitude that runs through a great part of life. A visit can make the sick person feel less alone and a little company is an optimum medicine! A smile, a caress, a handshake are simple gestures, but so important for one who feels abandoned to himself. How many persons dedicate themselves to visiting the sick in hospitals and in their homes! It is a priceless work of volunteers. When it is done in the Lord's name, then it also becomes an eloquent and effective expression of mercy. Let us not leave the sick alone! Let us not impede them from finding relief, and us from being enriched by our closeness to those who suffer. Hospitals are real "cathedrals of pain," where, however, the strength of charity, which sustains and feels compassion, is rendered evident.

A Word from Tyler

Saint Charles

Borromeo Seminary

“Cassock Day”

An exciting tradition at St. Charles is “Cassock Day” where the “new men” receive their cassocks to wear for the first time during liturgies. The “older men” surprised us by throwing a party and decorating our rooms to welcome us “officially” to the seminary. Mid-terms are coming up soon and I can’t believe how quickly the semester is going! Pray for me!

A Note of Thank You

October 3, 2022

Dear Father John Moineau,

Land of Peace and Bethlehem Christian Families mission would like to express humble appreciation to you for allowing us to re-visit Immaculate Conception Parish weekend of October 1/2 of 2022. With your kindness and through the generosity of you and your parishioners, the sales of the olive wood carvings received a total amount of $3714

It was really a great excitement to observe so many kind people at your parish, who were interested in our religious articles, and some expressed their intention to visit the Holy Land! Please remember that you, and the members of your Parish are included in our prayers.

Thank you for your support in helping us and our brothers and sisters in Christ with compassion, dignity and respect especially in these difficult times. May you enjoy God's many glorious blessings!

Peace be with you always!

Dear Immaculate Conception Parishioners,
After many years of writing, my book, Love Was There: A Testimony of Faith, has finally been published. If my story touches the heart of just one person, then I'll have succeeded. Hope it touches your heart. I wrote this spiritual memoir to give testimony to God's love and mercy, and to give my readers hope and inspiration. It's a true story tracing my spiritual growth from childhood through my personal Pentecost transformation. My faith evolved and deepened after being miraculously cured of stage four cancer at a Catholic Healing Mass at St. Agnes Church where I rested in the Spirit. The focus of my memoir is on miracles I've witnessed throughout my life, the faith that sustained me during my suffering, the love manifested in suffering, and my evolving relationship with God. My book is available on Amazon, Barnes & Noble, eBooks, and Kindle.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless, you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING

2 Kings 5:14-17

Naaman went down and plunged into the Jordan seven times at the word of Elisha, the man of God. His flesh became again like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean of his leprosy. Naaman returned with his whole retinue to the man of God. On his arrival he stood before Elisha and said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the earth, except in Israel. Please accept a gift from your servant." Elisha replied, "As the LORD lives whom I serve, I will not take it;" and despite Naaman's urging, he still refused. Naaman said: "If you will not accept, please let me, your servant, have two mule-loads of earth, for I will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any other god except to the LORD."

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 98

Michel Guimont

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving pow'r, his saving pow'r.

SECOND READING

2 Timothy 2:8-13

Beloved: Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David: such is my gospel, for which I am suffering, even to the point of chains, like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore, I bear with everything for the sake of those who are chosen, so that they too may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, together with eternal glory. This saying is trustworthy: If we have died with him we shall also live with him; if we persevere we shall also reign with him. But if we deny him he will deny us. If we are unfaithful he remains faithful, for he cannot deny himself.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Luke 17:11-19

As Jesus continued his journey to Jerusalem, he traveled through Samaria and Galilee. As he was entering a village, ten lepers met him. They stood at a distance from him and raised their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!" And when he saw them, he said, "Go show yourselves to the priests." As they were going they were cleansed. And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. He was a Samaritan. Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" Then he said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
