The Diocese of Gallup covers over 55,000 square miles of Northeastern Arizona and Northwestern New Mexico and encompasses seven Native American reservations and pueblos. It serves 107,653 Catholics and this makes it one of our Nation's largest and poorest Dioceses. The Diocese is facing challenges with a third of the community, Native Americans, impacted by the Coronavirus pandemic with the highest infection, death and hospitalization rates in the nation."

Thoughts from the Pastor

Cremation with Proper Interment

Following the celebration of All Saints and All Souls days this past week the question always arises about proper burial and interment of the deceased. The question usually concerns the Church's position on cremation and if it is permissible within the Catholic Church. This is a legitimate question in our world today. I think that it is very important that we, as Catholic Christians, know the what, where, how and the why we tend to the deceased in the way we do as a matter of Faith. Please find the explanation below what we should consider prayerfully and respectfully. Also, please pass this article on to those who may need the following explanation as well.

Principles Regarding Cremation

Reverence for the Sacredness of the Human Body:

Because the human body is integral to the human person, it is difficult to think of a person apart from their body. "Thus, the Roman Catholic Church's reverence and care for the body grows out of a reverence and concern for the person whom the Church now commends to the care of God." The long-standing practice of burying the body of the deceased in a grave or tomb continues to be encouraged as a sign of Christian faith. However, the Church does not forbid cremation as a means of disposition of the body, unless it has been chosen for reasons which are contrary to Church teaching.

Preference for the Presence of the Body:

The body of a deceased loved one forcefully brings to mind the mystery of life and death. As Christians, the body of the deceased speaks also to our belief that we are destined for future glory at the resurrection of the dead. Therefore "the Church clearly prefers and urges that the body of the deceased be present for its funeral rites, since the presence of the human body better expresses the values which the Church affirms in its rites."

Funeral Rites:

When cremation is chosen, the Church prefers that the body be cremated after the Funeral, thus allowing for the presence of the body at the Funeral Mass. When circumstances require it, however, cremation and committal may take place even before the Funeral liturgy. All the usual rites which are celebrated in the presence of the body of the deceased may also be celebrated in the presence of the cremated remains.

The primary symbols of the Roman Catholic funeral liturgy are retained even when the funeral liturgy is celebrated in the presence of the cremated remains. The cremains must be treated with the same dignity and respect as the body. They may be carried in procession and/or placed on a table where the coffin normally would be. The Paschal Candle and sprinkling with holy water are primary symbols of baptism and should be used during the Funeral Mass. However, the pall is not used. Photographs and other mementos may be used at the vigil, but are not appropriate for the Mass.

Final Disposition and Memorialization of the Cremated Remains:

“Cremated remains may be buried in a grave, entombed in a mausoleum or columbarium or even buried at sea.” The practice of scattering cremated remains on the sea, from the air, or on the ground is not permitted. Likewise, “keeping cremated remains in the home of a relative or friend of the deceased are not the reverent disposition that the Church requires.” The principle of respect for the cremated remains of a deceased Christian mirrors the respect afforded their body. The body is always laid to rest with solemnity and dignity.

All references taken from the Order of Christian Funerals, Appendix: Cremation; 1997.

Note: If you are aware of members of your family who have not properly interred the cremains of your beloved please share with them the above message. It is out of respect for the relationship of the deceased with their eternal design that proper interment take place.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION CEMETERY HAS CREMATION AND BURIAL PLOTS AVAILABLE

I am pleased, as a pastor, to have a wonderful cemetery to serve our Faithful Departed. In the past several years we have made great improvements to the cemetery by adding four new sections for the “Catholic” community of the Norwin area to intern their loved ones. The cemetery has both crematory and burial plots to offer the families of our community. If you have not yet made arrangements for yourself or loved ones I would encourage you to visit our cemetery or call for more information and availability @ 724-244-5831. Jerry Kunkle, the cemetery manager, will help you with all your questions and needs.

COMING SOON TO IMMACULATE CONCEPTION CEMETARY: OUT DOOR COLUMBARIUM

In order to give more options for proper interment of the cremains of our beloved we are in the process of erecting a Columbarium at our cemetery near the Military Memorial. This beautiful granite tomb will provide 188 niches for above-ground burial of cremains.

The excavation and preparation for this new addition to our cemetery will begin this fall/winter. This will be a beautiful addition to respectfully intern the cremains of our beloved. If you would like more information please call the church office and ask for Courtney Ruby.

VOCATIONS PRAYER

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
 courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
 Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

What Wondrous Love is This?

1. What won-drous love is this, O my soul, O my soul!
 2. To God and to the Lamb I will sing, I will sing;
 3. And when from death I'm free, I'll sing on, I'll sing on;

What won-drous love is this, O my soul!
 To God and to the Lamb I will sing.
 And when from death I'm free, I'll sing on.

What won-drous love is this that caused the Lord of bliss
 To God and to the Lamb, who is the great I AM,
 And when from death I'm free, I'll sing and joy-ful be,

To bear the dread-ful curse for my soul, for my soul;
 While mil-lions join the theme, I will sing, I will sing;
 And through e-ter-ni-ty I'll sing on, I'll sing on;

To bear the dread-ful curse for my soul!
 While mil-lions join the theme, I will sing.
 And through e-ter-ni-ty I'll sing on.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless, you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING 2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14

It happened that seven brothers with their mother were arrested and tortured with whips and scourges by the king, to force them to eat pork in violation of God's law. One of the brothers, speaking for the others, said: "What do you expect to achieve by questioning us? We are ready to die rather than transgress the laws of our ancestors." At the point of death he said:

"You accursed fiend, you are depriving us of this present life, but the King of the world will raise us up to live again forever. It is for his laws that we are dying." After him the third suffered their cruel sport. He put out his tongue at once when told to do so, and bravely held out his hands, as he spoke these noble words: "It was from Heaven that I received these; for the sake of his laws I disdain them; from him I hope to receive them again." Even the king and his attendants marveled at the young man's courage, because he regarded his sufferings as nothing. After he had died, they tortured and maltreated the fourth brother in the same way. When he was near death, he said, "It is my choice to die at the hands of men with the hope God gives of being raised up by him; but for you, there will be no resurrection to life."

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 17
Joseph Sullivan

Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.

SECOND READING 2 Thessalonians 2:16-3:5

Brothers and sisters: May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting Encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word. Finally, brothers and sisters, pray for us, so that the word of the Lord may speed forward and be glorified, as it did among you, and that we may be delivered from perverse and wicked people, for not all have faith. But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one. We are confident of you in the Lord that what we instruct you, you are doing and will continue to do. May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the endurance of Christ.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Luke 20:27-38

Some Sadducees, those who deny that there is a resurrection, came forward and put this question to Jesus, saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us, If someone's brother dies leaving a wife but no child, his brother must take the wife and raise up descendants for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married a woman but died childless. Then the second and the third married her, and likewise all the seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. Now at the resurrection whose wife will that woman be? For all seven had been married to her." Jesus said to them, "The children of this age marry and remarry; but those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. They can no longer die, for they are like angels; and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise. That the dead will rise even Moses made known in the passage about the bush, when he called out 'Lord, 'the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; and he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
