Thoughts from the Pastor

The Church: Triumphant, Militant and Suffering

Sunday, in my homily I made a reference to eschatology (the study of end times) as it related to the month of November and the Sunday readings building up to the celebration of the Feast of Christ the King. To reflect on the “end times” is a healthy approach to the work we have to do here as children of God. The understanding that death came into the world because of sin helps us to desire perfect lives; sinless lives; eternal lives! This is what God intended at creation that the body and soul would live in perfect harmony with the love of God and in the love of God. To restore this gift, Christ had to conquer death through His death and restore our nature (body and soul) in the resurrection! What happens after death, for those who were faithful, are the stages of purgatory and heaven. For those who were not faithful, who rejected the Salvation offered by Christ will experience eternal damnation! Ouch! Yes, hell is real and the separation from the love of God is reversible.

HEAVEN HELL AND PURGATORY

In my most recent OSM video posted as a “RE-RUN TUESDAY” I discussed the topic and hope that you will take time to watch it and pass it on to others. It will bring some clarity to what happens after death.

I also shared with you the three stages of the Church that consist simultaneously and how important it is for us to be aware of how we are connected with the things of heaven and souls who are preparing, through purgation, to enter eternal bliss. Many have asked me to reiterate these three stages: Church Triumph; Church Suffering; and Church Militant. So, I want to share with you an article worth reading on the topic.

The Three Stages of the Church by Msgr. Francis Mannion

What you were taught in your catechism classes is indeed still valid, although it is not commonplace today to hear the description of the various states of the Church as you describe them.

The church triumphant describes the Church in heaven. In the kingdom of God — the realm in which the holy Trinity, the angels and saints, and the abode of all those who have reached the fullness of salvation in Christ — the Church already exists. It will have its fullest being at the end of time, when all of creation and (we hope) all human beings will be conformed to Christ and all reality will be one of divine praise and glory.

The term “church triumphant” underlines the truth that in the glory of heaven all human sin will have been transformed, death and suffering will be no more, and the glory of God will have triumphed over all the imperfections of human history. The church militant refers to the Church on earth. The term “militant” can suggest an antagonistic relationship between the Church and the world. Nevertheless, it refers to an authentic reality: that the Church on earth works to overcome the imperfect and sinful dimensions of human existence.

The Church's mission is not to oppose the world and society, but to work for their transformation by the convincing preaching of the Gospel and by the edifying power of the good works and example of those who are baptized into Christ. The Church's best asset is the saintly activity and example of those who have chosen the Christian way of life.

The church suffering refers to the church in purgatory. Purgatory is not a kind of temporary hell. It is rather the threshold, the antechamber of heaven. In purgatory, all those — whether Christian or not — who have reached the gates of death without reaching the full perfection of life represented in Christ are cleansed in a kind of ongoing baptism and are purified by the enlightening fire of the Holy Spirit. The suffering of purgatory is not one of destruction, but the suffering that comes from leaving the old self behind and taking on the new.

Liturgy focus: "The General Intercession at Sacred Mass"

Every Sunday, following the Creed, we share in an intercessory prayer for the people of the Church and the World. These prayers are known as the General Intercession or the Prayers of the Faithful.

According to the General instructions of the Roman Missal:

In the Universal Prayer or Prayer of the Faithful, the people respond in some sense to the Word of God which they have received in faith and, exercising the office of their baptismal Priesthood, offer prayers to God for the salvation of all. It is desirable that there usually be such a form of prayer in Masses celebrated with the people, so that petitions may be offered for holy Church, for those who govern with authority over us, for those weighed down by various needs, for all humanity, and for the salvation of the whole world.

The order of the prayer usually follows this format:

- ✠ Prayer for the Pope and leaders of the church
- ✠ Prayer for the people of God and the mission of being faithful
- ✠ Prayer for those who are struggling in their faith journey
- ✠ Prayer for the sick
- ✠ Prayer the departed Souls
- ✠ Prayers for particular holiday, or worldly need.

The consistency of these prayers helps us to focus on them and to make this prayer apart of our daily prayers while we serve the Lord throughout the week as the children of God.

So let us be attentive to these prayers as Mass and enter into them with love and Mercy!

Saint Charles

Borromeo Seminary

“Fall at St. Charles”

Mid-terms are done and the leaves are falling on the campus. It is unbelievable how quickly the semester is going! The last few weeks have included some of the most beloved traditions at the seminary. The greatest of which was the annual 40 Hours leading up to the feast of Saint Charles Borromeo on November 4. For three days there was continual exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, and communal solemn celebrations of the Liturgy of the Hours. I was excited to be on the organ bench and in charge of some of the liturgies! It was such a wonderful experience to get to spend time with our Lord in the peace and quiet of the chapel in the middle of the night.

One of the St. Charles Day traditions, is the Theology vs. College football game. Yours truly had the distinguished honor of somehow becoming “Borromeo Bear”, the college mascot. Which when I volunteered for that, I wasn’t expecting near record-setting heat! By half-time, my identity was pretty much figured out by the “opposing team” as I heard lots of “Is that Tyler from Greensburg?!” going through the crowd!

Please continue to keep me, and all of us seminarians in your prayers!

Thanksgiving*

THE THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

November 13, 2022 - Order of the Mass

VOCATIONS PRAYER

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
 courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
 Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Malachi 3:19-20a

Lo, the day is coming, blazing like an oven,
when all the proud and all evildoers will be stubble, and the day that is coming will set them on fire, leaving them neither root nor branch, says the LORD of hosts.
But for you who fear my name, there will arise the sun of justice with its healing rays.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 98

Michel GuimontThe Lord comes to rule the earth with justice.

SECOND READING

2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

Brothers and sisters: You know how one must imitate us. For we did not act in a disorderly way among you, nor did we eat food received free from anyone. On the contrary, in toil and drudgery, night and day we worked, so as not to burden any of you. Not that we do not have the right. Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us. In fact, when we were with you, we instructed you that if anyone was unwilling to work, neither should that one eat. We hear that some are conducting themselves among you in a disorderly way, by not keeping busy but minding the business of others. Such people we instruct and urge in the Lord Jesus Christ to work quietly and to eat their own food.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Luke 21:5-19

While some people were speaking about how the temple was adorned with costly stones and votive offerings, Jesus said, "All that you see here~ the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down." Then they asked him, "Teacher, when will this happen? And what sign will there be when all these things are about to happen?" He answered, "See that you not be deceived, for many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and 'The time has come.' Do not follow them! When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for such things must happen first, but it will not immediately be the end." Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place; and awesome sights and mighty signs will come from the sky. "Before all this happens, however, they will seize and persecute you, they will hand you over to the synagogues and to prisons, and they will have you led before kings and governors because of my name. It will lead to your giving testimony. Remember, you are not to prepare your defense beforehand, for I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking that all your adversaries will be powerless to resist or refute. You will even be handed over by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends, and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
