A SIMPLE HOUSE MISSIONARY WILL BE AT OUR PARISH OCT 7/8—OUR SECOND COLLECTION WILL BE FOR THEIR MISSION—OR TO DONATE ONLINE:

<https://osvhub.com/icirwin/giving/funds/mission-cooperation>

A Simple House missionaries live radically Christian lives in voluntary poverty and in service to the poor in Washington, DC and Kansas City, MO. Missionaries build real, deep friendships with the poor while meeting their material and spiritual needs. Each person is met, listened to, and loved. The missionaries live a simple and prayerful lifestyle in community, attend daily Mass, and pray morning and evening prayer from Liturgy of the Hours. THANK YOU!

PASTOR'S NOTES

THIS AFTERNOON: LIFE CHAIN 2:00 PM IRWIN PARK

Every year I have invited you to join me and 50 others to stand along Pennsylvania Avenue to quietly stand in prayer to witness to the truth and belief of the sacredness of life from the moment of Conception. Unborn children are discarded in our country as collateral damage to the careless use of the gift of procreation. More than ever we should all evaluate the seven reasons why we should participate. Please read carefully and consider joining me this afternoon! The Steelers will win or lose without us but the unborn need our love. Prayers and Support!

Seven Reasons Why

Catholic Christians Should Attend the Local Life Chain

1) To both receive ministry and to minister to the public, aided by the Holy Spirit. If we the church accept the ministry God has for His sons and daughters, He will empower us to minister truth to motorists and pedestrians and do so with humility, compassion, and conviction.

2) To provide God a witness to anoint and use to save lives and change hearts in each local area.

Life Chain is only a first step into pro-life activism, but it's an important step that tests our hearts and helps prepare us to defend the defenseless among us. Such is the story of the Good Samaritan and the story of Christ's Bride, the humble sheep who meet urgent needs in Matthew 25. Let us the church love the preborn and embrace mercy and justice. In so doing we defend our homeland more ably than can our military arsenal.

3) To join a national prayer chain that seeks God's forgiveness and intervention. "If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray... [2 Chron. 7:14]."

Consider the moral decay today in church, government, academia, and commerce. Consider the attack on traditional marriage. Consider the epidemics of pornography, sexual disease, cohabitation, illegitimacy, divorce. All are linked to abortion and innocent blood. If God used a catastrophic civil war to end institutional slavery in America, what might He use to end the legal mutilation of our preborn citizens? Under Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton, America has become one of the world's most violent nations. Also, in June of 2013, the U.S. Supreme Court struck down America's Defense of Marriage Act and opened the door for same-sex marriage in contested areas. Legal abortion and its grievous impact will cease when the church unites against it.

4) To better understand the impact abortion is having on our country and why the church must end the killing. The church can defeat legal abortion and its allies if we move beyond the "abortion issue" and value preborn humanity and their progeny as we should. Our lukewarm attitude grieves God, who assures us He does not forget "the cry of the afflicted" [Psalm 9:12]. Satan's goal is to steal our compassion and urgency and limit us to "good works" that do not confront deadly evils like abortion.

5) To move the church from the sanctuary to the "city gates" and "marketplace."

SIMPLY: "The pew cannot do what the pulpit is supposed to do." Of urgent need are shepherds who will lead, who will equip themselves for battle and inspire their sheep to do likewise. Then endangered lambs will have protection.

6) To honor our youngest citizens who perish needlessly, usually within blocks of multiple church altars. Let us acknowledge our replication of the German church under Nazism and cultivate heart for probably well over 100 million U.S. preborn and millions more in Canada who have died from surgical abortions and chemical birth controls. Like unto European Jews, the children had only the church to rely on.

7) To help build a resolute army of Christians who are pro-life in both word and deed. Let us engage the enemy, boldly and strategically, until the curse of legal abortion is lifted and America and Canada again provide security and freedom for every citizen, born and preborn. That we can do. We have the means. Let us attain the will.

DEVOTIONAL STATUES IN THE CHURCH

As a child I think I learned more about my Faith through sacramentals, devotions and statues. Walking into a particular room and of course into the body of the church there was always a Holy Water font (stoup) and "blessing" myself was an act of such power as I felt the love of God and the protection from evil. Having a rosary, holy cards and medals to wear around my neck kept me close to the beloved traditions of my grandma. But the statues in the church, always nearly life size and so magnificent made the church feel like heaven and a sanctuary of grace that it was for Catholics. Statues in church are also a wonderful teaching tool for the life of the Saints and to learn the devotional prayers for their intercession. So, it is by no surprise that many in the parishes still seek them out to bring the closeness of God's love through His most prized friends.

Saint Michael: On His Way to Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

So many parishioners have been asking for a Statue of Saint Michael like the one that is displayed in Immaculate Conception Church. A Saint Michael relief that will be mounted above the choir area is on its way. A very generous parish family has purchased the statue for the parish and I am so excited for its arrival. Saint Michael is our defender of Faith. We pray for his intercession at every mass and it reminds us how much evil is in the world and how Satan tries to devour good holy souls with evil temptations and allurements. So, when the statue is placed we will bless it and remember to always invoke his intercession.

Saint John Marie Vianney Statue for IC Church

Immaculate Conception has been Blessed with two seminarians and others from both parishes beginning to discern and think about priestly vocations. Saint John Vianney is the patron Saint of parish priest. St. John was humble and a man of great devotion to the Eucharist and prayer. But, he was most known for his tireless devotion to hearing confession where he would spend up to 12 hrs. a day forgiving sins and converting souls. His statue will be enshrined between the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I will spend much time there praying for vocations. We are blessed to have generous people to donate monies for these great devotional tools!

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Ezekiel 18:25-28

Thus says the LORD: You say, "The LORD's way is not fair!" Hear now, house of Israel: Is it my way that is unfair, or rather, are not your ways unfair? When someone virtuous turns away from virtue to commit iniquity, and dies, it is because of the iniquity he committed that he must die. But if he turns from the wickedness he has committed, he does what is right and just, he shall preserve his life; since he has turned away from all the sins that he has committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 25

Steven Janco

Remember your mercies, O Lord.

SECOND READING

Philemon 2:1-5

Brothers and sisters: If there is any encouragement in Christ, any solace in love, any participation in the Spirit, any compassion and mercy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, with the same love, united in heart, thinking one thing. Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves, each looking out not for his own interests, but also for those of others. Have in you the same attitude that is also in Christ Jesus.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Matthew 21:28-32

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: "What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He came to the first and said, 'Son, go out and work in the vineyard today.' He said in reply, 'I will not,' but afterwards changed his mind and went. The man came to the other son and gave the same order. He said in reply, 'Yes, sir, 'but did not go. Which of the two did his father's will?" They answered, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Amen, I say to you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you. When John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
