Creation Care Corner

Earth Day is an annual event officially held on April 22 around the world to demonstrate support for environmental protection and it has been recognized since 1970. The Catholic Church recognizes the importance of caring for the environment as a fundamental aspect of our faith. Here are some key points regarding the Catholic Church's position on Earth Day:

Stewardship of Creation: The Church emphasizes that care for the earth is not merely an Earth Day slogan, but a requirement. We show our respect for our Creator by responsibly managing and preserving the natural world.

Laudato Si': Pope Francis's encyclical Laudato Si', On Care for Our Common Home underscores the need for environmental stewardship. It calls for a holistic approach that integrates care for creation, social justice, and human dignity. Earth Day provides an excellent opportunity to teach about Laudato Si' and the Catholic principle of Care for God's Creation.

Catholic Social Teaching: Care for Creation is one of the seven principles of Catholic Social Teaching. It reflects the Church's commitment to safeguarding the environment, promoting sustainable practices, and advocating for the well-being of all living beings. In summary, the Catholic Church encourages its followers to actively participate in Earth Day and to be responsible stewards of the planet, recognizing that environmental care is deeply rooted in our faith. There will be numerous Earth Day events sponsored and held by local churches' Creation Care Teams in the next few weeks, open to all Immaculate Conception parishioners, that we will announce – stay tuned!

Don't' forget to join us this Wednesday, April 3rd at 6 pm for our monthly meeting in the Children's Liturgy Room in the back of the Church. All are welcome!

EASTER: FIFTY DAYS OF AWE AND WONDER!!!

*Thoughts while driving home...
The Easter Challenge*

Lent is over now and with Easter joy it is hard not to immediately cease our particular Lenten discipline—attending an extra Mass each week, the special hour of prayer or spiritual reading we promised to try to do, being more patient, eating less and giving more of ourselves to others with greater awareness of Christ suffering on the Cross. That is Lent...but what about Easter? What should we do out of Easter Joy?

The readings we hear during the Easter season, it is clear that, for the infant Church, Easter was a beginning. Of course, all beginnings are also endings. For the disciples it was the end of a magical time. They didn't all know it, but they had been walking and eating and talking with... God! Yet as magical as that must have been, they hadn't yet consumed God. They hadn't taken God in and begun the process of becoming divine themselves. They didn't yet have "resurrection eyes"—that ability to see things as they really are, to see as God sees. That was later.

On Easter, they stood at the empty tomb and were darned confused. And slowly out of that confusion and fear and sadness grew a little ragtag band of folks from a little ragtag part of the world who just happened to change the course of history. Easter marked the beginning of the Christian community. Easter Joy gave even a greater appreciation in Discipline and acts of love and charity. Imagine the promise of eternal joy that cannot be interfered by the worries of pain, money, loneliness or SIN!!! Wow!!!! The Christian community is the 'forum' to this new way of selfless living.

The Self-help book that has worked for over 2,000 years!!!

The scriptures of the New Testament have been provided to us by the Faith and Tradition of the early Christian Community. All other such "self-help" books are cheap "knock-offs" of this original source and have lost the effectiveness that Christ gives to the original. Read more carefully the Readings for the upcoming Sunday Liturgies, the great book of the Acts of the Apostles and the ones provided in the "little white book" and see how this forum will reinforce your pursuit for happiness!!!

A Proper Easter Diet that leads to a slimmer You!!!

The Easter Diet is more than just eggs, chocolate, kielbasa and ham... it is a steady diet of the Sacraments of Eucharist and reconciliation as well! Remember our Easter Duty is to participate in both these sacraments before Pentecost. But, I suggest Eucharist as often as you can... at least twice a week and Reconciliation monthly. This regiment will slim you down around the sin list and firm up your intentions to spread the Good News! Clogged arteries may stop the heart but a clean soul and a giving heart pushes you to the Eternal.

Easter Exercise Regimen that guarantees a loving community of Faith!

Exercising the "Hope" of sharing in the "Eternal Kingdom" will lead to more trust and less suspicion; more companionship and less loneliness; more appreciation for each other and less taking for granted; more forgiveness and less accusation; more true communication and less posturing; more truth-telling and less strategizing; more love and less apathy; more long, leisurely hours with those we love and less hurried, hurried hugs thrown at each other as we run out the door.

Remember: Three things are needed in the pursuit of Happiness and well purposed life...

Being Loved...Jesus provides this with His death and Resurrection
Something to Believe in....The Truth the Way and the "Eternal Life"

Hope...It only will get better each day and will last forever when we perform the above regimen within our Christian community....

Forever...is a long time....and I want to share it with you!!!

Divine Mercy: We will have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament after the 11:30 am Mass until 1:00 pm when we will pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy followed by Benediction. Please consider taking the time to come or stay after the 11:30 am Mass.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Acts 4:32-35

The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they had everything in common. With great power the apostles bore witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great favor was accorded them all. There was no needy person among them, for those who owned property or houses would sell them, bring the proceeds of the sale, and put them at the feet of the apostles, and they were distributed to each according to need.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 118

Hal Hopson

*Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
his love is everlasting.*

SECOND READING

1 John 5:1-6

Beloved: Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God, and everyone who loves the Father loves also the one begotten by him. In this way we know that we love the children of God when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whoever is begotten by God conquers the world. And the victory that conquers the world is our faith. Who indeed is the victor over the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? This is the one who came through water and blood, Jesus Christ, not by water alone, but by water and blood. The Spirit is the one that testifies, and the Spirit is truth.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

John 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
