FRENCH FRY FAMILY & HOT DOG CLUB ARE BACK AGAIN FOR THE 2024 BURGER BASH

As we prepare for the 2024 Burger Bash we hope to maintain our annual profits. Last year 18% of our expenses were paid for thanks to the donations from the “French Fry Family & Hot Dog Club.” People often ask if they can help besides volunteering or patronizing. If you are not able to attend a burger bash consider making a monthly monetary donation to offset the cost of the burger bash expenses. You can be a member of the “French Fry Family” or “Hotdog Club”. “French Fry Family” Sponsorship
donations for $49.00 & under “Hotdog Club”
Sponsorship donations for $50.00 & over.

Your donations can be mailed, dropped off to the parish office, dropped in the offertory basket or placed online at:

Today we celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday where we reflect on Jesus' care and love for us. The good shepherd is concerned about, cares for, and protects the sheep even to the point of laying down his life for the sheep.
Shepherding calls us to commit ourselves to good deeds, such as caring for the sick, feeding
the hungry, clothing the poor, and loving others as God has loved us. These good deeds are the very “stuff” of our everyday living and loving, in our families and in our service to our neighbors in need.

At the March food bank, 45 volunteers helped distribute food for 145 families. Over $11,000 has been distributed during the first quarter of 2024 to our neighbors in need. Calls were received on the help line for utility assistance, shut-off notifications, rent, auto repairs, temporary housing assistance, medical needs, and transportation assistance.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul thanks you for your continued support. Through your almsgiving you are indeed doing the will of God. Your gift brings Christ's love and compassion to our neighbors in need.

PASTOR'S NOTES

AMBASSADORS FOR CHRIST:

A Call to Cure the Sick

Last week, in the notes from the Pastor, I discussed our call and mission as ambassadors of Christ. We now look to how we reach the "Lost Sheep" of the flock using the "Tools of the Trade" that Jesus entrusted to His Church for the work that needs to be done in the field: cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers and drive out demons. This is the work of all of us at various levels depending on our state and position in life. This week we will deal with the call to cure the sick. Those who suffer from unexpected injuries or illness forcing them to face a change in their life or the face of death as well as the aged are on cusps of hope and despair. They find hope through the faithful who have been called to "Heal the Sick". This is the second (2) article from my 2007 five (5) part series.

Curing the Sick: A Holistic Approach

Based on Saint Paul's Theology of the body we have a responsibility to tend to needs of the sick. Since the Church is the body of Christ made up of many members the call to cure an individual of their sickness is truly a call to care for the whole. As individuals, we do not ignore an injury or an illness that affects only a part of our body with the attitude that it does not or will not affect the overall health and good spirit of our daily lives. We tend to its care in hope of restoring ourselves fully to health. The same applies to those who are "sick" not just physically but spiritually and emotionally in a way that it detracts from their willingness and openness to hope in the promises of Christ.

This call is in direct correlation to the greatest commandment. "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, mind and strength. The emotional, spiritual, mental and physical aspects of one's life is to share in the commitment to Christ. Our holistic approach encompasses sacramental, medical and communal outreach to the injured members.

In Christ's name, the Church provides the cure through a special Sacrament of the Sick. This sacrament in and of itself has a holistic approach. The laying on of hands and the anointing with oil provides the means of Ordinary Grace to physically cure the person if God so intends. The sacrament also provides for the opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation, which brings spiritual peace to a wounded soul. At the end of the Rite, the "sick" person is offered the Eucharist so they can encounter the suffering servant Himself in an intimate way. This Ordinary means of "healing" has been the role of the Church's priest as his pastoral ministry. Through this process, the priest can connect the sick person with the faith community with the assurance of their prayers at daily Mass.

The Church throughout history has always been instrumental in building and staffing hospitals throughout the world. Many Religious orders were founded on the very service to the sick and dying. Individual men and women who have accepted the vocation of medicine have also been able to reach the ailing members through their profession as well as their living faith reflected in their bed side manner which earns them the title of Ambassador for Christ.

It would be right to say that those who share in the medical and sacramental care of the sick serve them in the ordinary call to "Cure the Sick." One must believe that God works through both the physician of the body and the physician of the soul to bring healing that returns one to a "healthy state" of life in complete communion with the Church. Many days and hours can pass between the visit of the priest or the care of the doctor. In these hours, the communal outreach of the people named "Harry" dress the wounds and retie the bonds of faith and community.

In Comes "Harry"

We may not think of ourselves as ones who can cure the sick but our faithful outreach heals the festering wound of the soul that is more sensitive than that of the body. When one finds themselves in the throws of a sudden illness or injury that is life threatening, our faith seems to be questioned. If their faith was wavering or near non-existent it can lead to despair. Curing the sick in these cases is primarily up to the relative, neighbor or representative of the local parish. This ministry of healing is the ministry of Presence.

You can do it!

For a lonely Elderly shut-in one can stop to visit once a week for just a short period of time. Be on their schedule...they will look forward to seeing you. Connecting them to the larger parish community can be accomplished through offering them a chance to receive communion in their home. Always take a bulletin to leave with them so they can see what is place. This connection makes them feel that they are still a vital part of the Church. These visits can become an endearing relationship that will afford you the opportunity to share in their life allowing the true cure of loneliness to subside.

The broken-hearted need the same care. Someone who lost a spouse, a child or a parent needs to be supported beyond the week of the death and the funeral. A visit, card or a call on the phone can bring healing. If they are not coming to Church because it is difficult being alone, offer to go with them. It is the time beyond the Formal reaching out that brings the healing. When performing these acts of compassion and charity the assurance of your prayers (which should be for them daily) is more than an appropriate sentiment...but truly a graced filled comfort.

So, answer your call as an Ambassador and go out to the sick and step up to being numbered as those who have accepted the mission.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Acts 4:8-12

Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said:
"Leaders of the people and elders:
If we are being examined today
about a good deed done to a cripple,
namely, by what means he was saved,
then all of you and all the people of Israel
should know that it was in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazorean whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead;
in his name this man stands before you healed. He is the stone rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone.
There is no salvation through anyone else,
nor is there any other name under heaven
given to the human race by which we are to be saved."

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 118
Hal Hopson

*The stone rejected by the builder
has become the cornerstone.*

SECOND READING

1 John 3:1-2

Beloved:
See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are. The reason the world
does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now;
what we shall be has not yet been revealed.
We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

John 10:11-18

Jesus said: "I am the good shepherd.
A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. A hired man, who is not a shepherd and whose sheep are not his own,
sees a wolf coming and leaves the sheep
and runs away, and the wolf catches and scatters them. This is because he works for pay and has no concern for the sheep.
I am the good shepherd, and I know mine
and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father;
and I will lay down my life for the sheep.
I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd. This is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down on my own.
I have power to lay it down, and power to take it up again. This command I have received from my Father."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
