Creation Care Corner

When we look at nature, we can remember God, who created it. Nature can be awe-inspiring, even to the point of being almost incomprehensible. The richness of a sunset, the twinkle of stars and the diversity of animals, all witness to a creator and designer.

The details and immensity of nature show thoughtfulness and creativity. It is difficult to imagine how such intricacies could have come to be without God.

Seeing God's creation can invite us into a deeper admiration for God and His handiwork. In nature, surrounded by His creation, we may feel closer to Him. The beauty of creation is a reminder of God. When we respect any part of God's creation, be it nature or another human being, we are seeing value in what God created and admiring the creator.

PASTOR'S NOTES

AMBASSADORS FOR CHRIST

Casting out Demons

Note:

The past four weeks I have written in my pastor's notes on the call to Discipleship as Ambassadors of Christ based on MT 9:36-10:8. In this particular passage Jesus call His disciples to go to the lost sheep of Israel. Jesus gives us the "tools of the trade" to administer to the many needs of His flock. This is the final installment in this series of five as we deal with casting out Demons.

JESUS VS DEMONS

In the Gospels there are several stories of Jesus himself driving out demons from those who were brought to him. The most famous of all those whom Jesus cast of demons were the man who lived among the tombs in which Jesus cast out 100 demons into a herd of swine and Mary Magdalene whom which He cast out seven demons. In both cases one must not conclude that either of these people lived immoral lives because of the possession but were tormented severely and unable to serve in a meaningful or efficacious relationship with God. In both cases, the success of the exorcism returned both to a peaceful state seeking to follow Christ with the greatest love, and simultaneously challenging all witnesses to choose to do the same. In Fact, Mary Magdalene would accompany the Blessed Mother at the cross and would be rewarded the first to witness Christ after His resurrection.

THE EXORSIST

We are all familiar with the movie The Exorcist and more recently The Exorcism of Emily Rose. In both cases, a young girl's life was compromised by Satan and the lucky local priest was called upon to exorcise the demon. We know, in fact, that the role of the "Exorcist" within the Church still exist as so does true cases of demonic possession. But since neither you nor I are permitted to act in an official way as an exorcist (don't try this at home) how are we called to such a ministry as Ambassadors of Christ? Leaving to those assigned by the Church to perform the Rite of Exorcism, we must be aware of the social demons that can possess one to the point of rendering them unable to live out their relationship with Christ in Grace.

NAMING THE DEMONS AND CALL THEM OUT

The first power an ambassador of Christ has over the demon to be exorcised is to call "it" by name. Jesus called out Satan and he had to respond to His authority. When we identify the "demons" afflicting our family, friends and neighbors the process of healing has begun. The demons are known as Alcoholism, Drug abuse, pornography, gambling, television sitcoms, violent video games and MTV to just name a few. Any uncontrollable desire and participation in an outside stimulant which separates and destroys the bonds of one with the moral fiber of family and Church can be defined as demonic. All begin as subtle and harmless curiosities or experiments which take root. Calling such demons out is to challenge those inflicted to recognize and to admit to such possessions. This "calling out" invokes an act of Faith that is always present in the successful exorcisms of Christ.

SEEKING OUT THE LOST SHEEP

"If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them goes astray, will he not leave the ninety-nine in the hills and go in search of the stray? In just the same way, it is not the will of your heavenly Father that one of these little ones be lost... If your brother is in sin go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother. If he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, so that every fact may be established on the testimony of two or three witnesses. If he refuses to listen to them, tell the church. If he refuses to listen even to the church, then treat him as you would a Gentile or a tax collector." (Matt 8:12 -17)

INTERVENTION is the exercise of the Ambassador in this role of casting out demons. The above instruction of fraternal correction should be followed. If the Demon that you are calling out is not deeply rooted then you may have success one on one with the inflicted...if not be well advised that you may need to gather loved ones together and prepare to seek out professional involvement. No one said that being an Ambassador of Christ was easy.

PROTECTING YOUR SHEEP

Far before obsessions get a hold of the one inflicted, sometimes simple prevention could remove the very occasion of "slipping through the sheep gate". Monitoring social and private activities of children can curb the access to fulfilling their curiosities of addictive behaviors. Open and loving communication through a trusting relationship with parent and child also can prevent the need to experiment other avenues for attention and self-fulfillment. But, there is no perfect solution in such an imperfect indulging society.

DO NOT CONDEMN

Remember if one that you love is possessed by an addiction of demonic proportions do not cast them away...hate the sin...love the inflicted....remember Mary Magdalene. Do not waste time neither of blaming yourself for not seeing or knowing of a "potential" problem. Self-pity nor self-accusations lead to the casting out of the demon....only hope in the eternal kingdom and actions of a disciple of Christ can win the battle.

JESSICA (WUNDERLY) CARWILE & KYLE SHUMBER

A few months ago, I was highlighting high school students who while playing sports and participating in other activities never allowed attending Mass to be a hinderance to their success. Today I go back into the archives of wonderful young parishioners that accomplished great things while prioritizing their Faith First.

Jessica and Kyle both participated in JR ROTC at Norwin which lead to success and incredible accomplishments! Both have earned their wings and my choice of "High Flyers" soaring to heights with our Lord as their co-pilots!

Jessica (Wunderly) Carwile, since the fourth grade she was an Altar Server and then in high School she became a Eucharistic Minister until she went off to Penn State college. When she was on break she would still serve at Mass. While being invested (time wise) with JR ROTC at Norwin and other school activities, she was always at Sunday Mass. Jessica attended Penn State 2016 on a ROTC scholarship and graduated as mechanical engineer and was commissioned into the Navy in 2020. Jessica went to Pensacola Florida for initial training where she flew Cessna 172 and T-6B Texan. Her training continued in Texas to fly the T-44c Pegasus, where she was awarded her wings July 14, 2023. Now she flies the P-8A in Jacksonville Florida, whose mission is primarily ISR (Intelligence Surveillance & Reconnaissance), anti-submarine warfare, and secondary as humanitarian relief, and search and rescue! Having children growing up in the parish is the greatest blessing for a priest and to watch them grow in Faith and start their adult lives as people of God.

I had the privilege to have her wedding in December of 2022.

Kyle Shumber, a member of our parish since 2011 and has been, with his parents, faithful to their Sunday obligation while being involved in many outside activities at school and in the community. Just as Jessica, he got his start with the Junior ROTC program spurring him onto great success and obtaining his pilot license and a promising career! Here are the highlights of his journey toward being a high flyer!

- Attended Embry Riddle Aeronautical University in Prescott, Arizona on an Air Force scholarship offered through Junior ROTC
- All expenses paid program
- Two months over the summer of 2023
- Extremely competitive, two other cadets selected from Norwin High School
- Out of the 1,200 that applied 200 were accepted
- The cadets selected were 0.004% of JROTC worldwide
- Ended the program with 105 total flight hours, 9 of which were solo
- Had the privilege of seeing the Grand Canyon

Eucharist Revival

Eucharistic Pilgrimage Coming to Immaculate Conception on June 12, 2024

The Pilgrims will be coming to IC for a Holy Hour with Adoration at 3:00 p.m.
(All are Welcome for Adoration)

What is the Eucharistic Pilgrimage?

Young Adults, Priests and Seminarians are going to travel across the US, starting from different points, to bring Christ in the Eucharist to thousands of people along the road. They will be walking or driving, traveling with the Eucharist, and stopping at churches all along the route to share their love for the Eucharist.

We are inviting all children to participate for the day from 9 am - 4 pm for a full day of learning and fun! It is free for all and includes lunch & an ice cream social at the end. Use QR Code or Link below to register!

The children will learn what a pilgrimage is, and how they are called to be Saints! There will be activities, crafts and music! The music they learn will be shared with parents as we "send off" pilgrims to the next church participating.

THE SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

May 12, 2024 - Order of the Mass

VOCATIONS PRAYER

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

At Thy First Eucharist

1. At that first Eu - cha - rist be - fore you died,
2. For all your church, O Lord, we in - ter - cede;
3. We pray for those who wan - der from the fold;

O Lord, you prayed that all be one in you;
O make our lack of char - i - ty to cease;
O bring them back, Good Shep - herd of the sheep.

At this our Eu - cha - rist a - gain pre - side,
Draw us the near - er each to each we plead,
Back to the faith which saints be - lieved of old.

And in our hearts your law of love re - new.
By draw - ing all to you, O Prince of Peace,
Back to the Church which still that faith does keep.

Thus may we all one Bread, one Bod - y be;

Through this blest Sac - ra - ment of U - ni - ty.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Acts 1:15-17, 20-26

Peter stood up in the midst of the brothers —there was a group of about one hundred and twenty persons in the one place —. He said, “My brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled which the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand through the mouth of David, concerning Judas, who was the guide for those who arrested Jesus. He was numbered among us and was allotted a share in this ministry. “For it is written in the Book of Psalms: May another take his office.” “Therefore, it is necessary that one of the men who accompanied us the whole time the Lord Jesus came and went among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day on which he was taken up from us, become with us a witness to his resurrection.” So they proposed two, Judas called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias. Then they prayed, “You, Lord, who know the hearts of all, show which one of these two you have Chosen to take the place in this apostolic ministry from which Judas turned away to go to his own place.” Then they gave lots to them, and the lot fell upon Matthias, and he was counted with the eleven apostles.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 103

Thomas Strickland

The Lord has set his throne in heaven.

SECOND READING

1 John 4:11-16

Beloved, if God so loved us, we also must love one another. No one has ever seen God. Yet, if we love one another, God remains in us, and his love is brought to perfection in us. This is how we know that we remain in him and he in us, that he has given us of his Spirit. Moreover, we have seen and testify that the Father sent his Son as savior of the world. Whoever acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him and he in God. We have come to know and to believe in the love God has for us. God is love, and whoever remains in love remains in God and God in him.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

John 17:11b-19

Lifting up his eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed saying: “Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one just as we are one. When I was with them I protected them in your name that you gave me, and I guarded them, and none of them was lost except the son of destruction, in order that the Scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you. I speak this in the world so that they may share my joy completely. I gave them your word, and the world hated them, because they do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world. I do not ask that you take them out of the world but that you keep them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world. Consecrate them in the truth. Your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world. And I consecrate myself for them, so that they also may be consecrated in truth.”

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.

FREE MEDICARE HELP

Tired of getting tons of mail for Medicare? Are you confused about how the process works? Let Me Help! My services are free.

I represent most all carriers in Western PA, i.e. Highmark, UPMC, Aetna, Humana, Wellcare... and many more. I will provide a personalized "Medicare 101" class and assist you in enrolling in Part A,B,C & D.

I will be there for you all year round to help with any questions or concerns, and each year during Open Enrollment to make sure you are ready for next year.

I'm your local Medicare/Insurance Advisor - Chris Visco
