PASTOR'S NOTES

Responsible Shepherding

Today our Liturgy speaks to us about the many shepherds we have in life. We usually think of shepherds as being religious leaders; however, Jeremiah quickly reminds us that the kings and all the leaders of Israel were also shepherds, and they were the ones directly responsible for scattering the sheep, or the children of Israel. Jeremiah bemoans that everywhere he looked all he saw was spiritual, moral, social and political decay. It was the greed of the power hungry shepherds that was directly responsible for the fate of so many people.

It is easy for us to sit down and look back over history and recognize the “bad shepherds.” It is an entirely different matter to look into our own hearts and see how we may have led people astray. It is easy to look at political leaders and see the neglect of justice and truth that some of them have. It is a whole different matter to look into our own hearts and see these same flaws and weaknesses. Every society and family is fractured and split at times, losing hope, tense and nervous about the future. But like Jeremiah, God promises to bring about justice and save us. We need to be thankful to all of the prophets who, though unpopular most of the time, remind us of our own failings, but inevitably call us to live hopefully with the possibility of a new life in which our shepherds will reflect God’s own shepherding care.

The gospel shows us how enthusiastically the people were in learning from Jesus. They couldn’t get enough of his gentle wisdom on life and living. The people were starving to learn about God’s mercy. This enthusiasm however, would not allow the disciples to take a minute and rest. There is a valuable lesson for all of us to get from this scene. Unlike the self-serving shepherds that Jeremiah speaks of, those who want to shepherd in Jesus’ name must learn to put the needs of others ahead of even their own need to rest. How well we shepherd is directly proportionate to how effective we are in meeting the needs of others. It becomes our task to help people to be faithful to their covenant relationship with God. We are reminded of the importance of hearing and receiving Jesus’ teaching as a first step and essential ongoing aspect of our journey to salvation.

St. Paul in the second reading brings up another issue that is so much a part of our world. He speaks of the separations of people, specifically making reference to the differences between the Jews and the Gentiles. This is a call to each of us to do whatever we can to seek unity and peace between people of all faiths. Being a good shepherd takes a lot of work. We all must be aware of how we show ourselves to the people in our world understanding that it is our mission to be the goodness of Jesus to others.

Gift of Music

There is no better way to enrich and enhance our liturgy than through song, for when we sing we are praying twice! All of us have a voice and we are encouraged to use it. Why don't you consider being a part of our Choir? You don't have to be an accomplished singer; you don't even have to be able to read music, all you need is a willingness to share your voice. We can also use more people sharing their voice as a cantor. If you are interested you can contact our music director Bridget at bdeveney@dioceseofgreensburg.org

Thank You

A Genuine Thank You!

I just want to thank all of you for the reception after my installation last week. It was nice to see so many people and the warm wishes were greatly appreciated. Please know that we are on this journey together and together we can accomplish great things! Again, please know how grateful I am to you all.

Bio for Sister M. Ancilla Maloney, IHM

Mission Sharing: Sister M. Ancilla Maloney, IHM (Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Scranton, PA) who at present is missioned in a little city high in the south Andes mountains of Peru, will be sharing about her mission and diocese in Peru at our Masses on the 20th and 21st of July. Sister grew up on Long Island in New York and attended grade and high school staffed by the IHM Sisters. After a year of College, she entered the IHM Congregation in Scranton, PA. A graduate of Marywood University and the University of Notre Dame, Sister spent most of her religious life as a high school teacher of Religion and Social Studies and also doing Vocation work for her congregation. Her summers were spent with the Christian Appalachian Project in Kentucky or teaching religion in the migrant camps of North Carolina. Her last mission was in the Bronx in New York City. In 2012 she volunteered for her present ministry working in a parish in the diocese of Sicuani, Peru with two of her IHM Sisters.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

A Deserted Place

In one of my favorite shows, “Parks and Recreation,” there is a scene where one of the characters, Jerry, is tasked with stuffing hundreds of envelopes with flyers as part of his volunteer work for a local city council campaign.

Jerry’s efficient, almost mechanical completion of the job amazes his coworkers, who gather to watch in awe while he folds, inserts, seals, and stamps — over and over again. After several hours, the huge pile of envelopes is finally ready for mailing ... and Jerry realizes that he has stuffed them all with the wrong piece of paper.

“I always say, it ain’t government work unless you do it twice,” he quips as he restarts the task.

In any work, no matter how worthy or fulfilling it is, there is a point where the task transforms into mere routine. It can happen with anything: ministry, marriage, parenthood, even prayer. There is no shame in this. It doesn’t mean that we don’t enjoy these pursuits or feel passion for the mission inherent in them.

It only means that we are human, and we get tired.

When the Apostles return from their travels, Jesus recognizes their exhaustion. He encourages them to “come away to a deserted place.” He inhabits a human body, so he knows the weariness to which it is subject. He knows what it is to be tired, to be hungry. He knows that it’s hard to do the work when your body is failing you.

It’s important for us to recognize those times when Jesus is calling us to a deserted place — and it’s important for us to follow him there, even if we are pursued by feelings of doubt and guilt, just as the Apostles were followed by crowds hungry for their ministry.

Solitude is not selfishness. Contemplation is not idleness. To withdraw does not mean to run away.

The work we do — whatever it is — deserves our whole strength. If we have lost that, there is only one place we are sure to find it again.

“He said to them, ‘Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.’” — Mark 6:31

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

What can I do to help our family practice our faith each day?

Answer:

Some families practice their religion together as just another event on their schedule: go to church, observe Lent, help at the parish picnic, go to a meeting, volunteer time, make your confession, use your envelope... But the focus needs to be on who we are—God’s people, in relationship with him, loved, forgiven, and redeemed, and called to live and proclaim the Gospel. Our awareness of God’s presence and our sense of mission are supported by the daily rituals, celebrations, and traditions that help us stay focused. Sharing our faith strengthens us and clarifies the beliefs and values of Christian living.

Daily family practices include time for prayer—before meals, before bed, before important meetings and activities. Attend Sunday Mass together and discuss the homily afterward. Create family celebrations for holy days and holidays. Make religion a regular part of your discussions. Include others, especially the elderly and the less fortunate, in your activities and charitable efforts. By applying the virtues of faith, hope, and love to each day, faith becomes part of who your family is. It influences how you act towards others, what you value, and how mindful of God you are. Faith is the leaven of life that helps all of us rise to our calling and dignity as God’s people.

THE SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

July 21, 2024 - Order of the Mass

VOCATIONS PRAYER

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless, you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Jeremiah 23:1-6

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture, says the LORD. Therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who shepherd my people: You have scattered my sheep and driven them away. You have not cared for them, but I will take care to punish your evil deeds. I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all the lands to which I have driven them and bring them back to their meadow; there they shall increase and multiply. I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble; and none shall be missing, says the LORD. Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David; as king he shall reign and govern wisely, he shall do what is just and right in the land. In his days Judah shall be saved, Israel shall dwell in security. This is the name they give him: "The LORD our justice."

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 23

Owen Alstott

The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want

SECOND READING

Ephesians 2:13-18

Brothers and sisters: In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims, that he might create in himself one new person in place of the two, thus establishing peace, and might reconcile both with God, in one body, through the cross, putting that enmity to death by it. He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Mark 6:30-34

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
