PASTOR'S NOTES

What Do We Hold Onto!

Sometimes the teachings and commands of Jesus “bite us where we live.” This week is one of those times. I don't care who we are or what we might have; today's readings should have a dramatic effect on us all. Our lesson begins by reminding us what wonderful presence “wisdom” can make in our lives. The author of this first reading wants us to believe that wisdom is God's gift of his own knowledge and truth so that those who are wise share in the very wisdom of God. How many of us can honestly say we try and seek out this kind of wisdom? Our second reading is telling us that nothing is hidden from God, not even our deepest thoughts or desires. Then, we are hit with that extraordinary command of Jesus to sell all that we have and give to the poor!

Try to imagine yourself being that young man who approached Jesus. He was good, living within the precepts of the law. He felt that he was already doing all that he was supposed to be doing. Then to have Jesus tell him to get rid of everything that is precious to him was just too much. He walked away sad and broken. This was simply too much to ask. We don't know what ever happened to that rich young man but we are led to believe that he couldn't do what Jesus was asking.

So, if we are serious about being one of Jesus' disciples, we too must divest ourselves of everything. How many of us will be like that young man and just walk away sad? What are we really being asked to do today? I believe the question we need to ask ourselves is: what do we hold onto? What do we value in life? What do we need to rid ourselves of? If we can answer these questions then we are able to empty ourselves so that we can be free to do the Lords bidding. Jesus is telling us that if we want to inherit eternal life then we must dispossess ourselves of anything that gets in the way of responding to the invitation to follow Jesus. What is it that gets in your way?

We can make the sad mistake in thinking that Jesus is referring only to the rich. Greed and selfishness are not just attributes to those who have much; they affect all of us wherever we are in life. We all hold onto things that keep us from being free to follow Jesus. We are able to come up with many excuses why we don't do more; we can find many ways to busy our lives so that we don't have time. In the end, we are only fooling ourselves. So, what do you hold onto that keeps you from being that disciple, what are you clinging to? We are all being asked to give up what we value most in life. Are we able to let go? Sometimes the giving up we need to consider most seriously has nothing to do with material possessions. Maybe we need to let go of our opinions in order to listen carefully to what another is saying. Perhaps we need to get rid of our prejudice, rigidity or arrogance. Again we need to ask: what are we clinging to?

This week look at your life. Try to understand what Jesus is asking all of us to do. We all have many things that we can rid ourselves of in life. We all need to be more open to getting involved with life. What does take up your time, and just where are your priorities? However we answer these questions, hopefully we won't be like the man in the gospel and just walk away sad doing nothing to change.

Pastoral / Finance Councils

Over the past few months, I have talked about starting up our councils. If you expressed an interest with me, or if you are interested in being a part of these councils, I am going to have a meeting on Monday October 21st at 6:30 pm at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton's Mack Hall. Since this will be a general introduction of what the councils do and are responsible for, I will invite parishioners from both St. Elizabeth Ann Seton and Immaculate Conception parishes to attend if they are interested.

THE TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

October 13, 2024 - Order of the Mass

VOCATIONS PRAYER

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Wisdom 7:7-11

I prayed, and prudence was given me; I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me. I preferred her to scepter and throne, and deemed riches nothing in comparison with her, nor did I liken any priceless gem to her; because all gold, in view of her, is a little sand, and before her, silver is to be accounted mire. Beyond health and comeliness I loved her, and I chose to have her rather than the light, because the splendor of her never yields to sleep. Yet all good things together came to me in her company, and countless riches at her hands.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 90

Ed Bolduc

Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

SECOND READING

Hebrews 4:12-13

Brothers and sisters: Indeed the word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart. No creature is concealed from him, but everything is naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must render an account.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Mark 10:17-27

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him, and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus answered him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You shall not kill; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal; you shall not bear false witness; you shall not defraud; honor your father and your mother." He replied and said to him, "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions. Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" The disciples were amazed at his words. So Jesus again said to them in reply, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

O God, Our Help in Ages Past

1. O God, our Help in a - ges past, Our Hope for years to come,
2. Be - fore the hills in or - der stood, Or earth re - ceived her frame,
3. A thou - sand a - ges in thy sight Are like an eve - ning gone;
4. Time, like an ev - er - roll - ing stream, Soon bears us all a - way;
5. O God, our Help in a - ges past, Our Hope for years to come,

1. Our Shel - ter from the storm - y blast, And our e - ter - nal Home.
2. From ev - er - last - ing thou art God, To end - less years the same.
3. Short as the watch that ends the night Be - fore the ris - ing sun.
4. We fly for - got - ten, as a dream Dies at the o - p'ning day.
5. Be thou our Guard while life shall last, And our e - ter - nal Home.

Text: CM; Psalm 90, adapted by Isaac Watts, 1674-1748. Music: William Croft, 1678-1727.
