PASTOR'S NOTES

The Widows Mite!

In two of our readings today we hear about the plight of the widows in the days of Jesus. In the scriptures we hear the word widow almost a hundred times. Widowhood is a symbol of loss and emptiness. A woman usually married outside of her tribe, and if her husband died, his family was under no obligation to care for her. It was next to impossible for her to get work other than on a farm. When we understand this social position of the widow, our readings can be more easily understood.

In the first reading from Kings we find the prophet Elijah asking a widow for some food. This poor woman was in the process of preparing the last meal for herself and her son, after they ate they would die. They were in the midst of a terrible famine and there simply was no more food. Because of her trust in God, she was rewarded with enough food to live through the famine.

Jesus in the Gospel uses the example of a widow's generosity as a springboard for stewardship in the church. Jesus makes reference to the scribes as being religious elites who think they are better than others. Jesus holds up the widow as a direct opposite to the elite, she who had no title or status in society gave all that she had. By contrasting her poverty and helplessness with that of the scribes, he shows her to be an example of humility and lowliness; thus she characterizes the life of a disciple. We need to be careful in understanding that Jesus is not simply talking about "widows," rather he is speaking about attitude.

Every one of us has at one time or another had to listen to and suffer from the ill effects of someone else's piety. We have been lectured about individual's personal piety and at times have been exhausted by other people's methods of spiritual self-improvement. Instead of these competing externals of piety, what we need sometimes is a simple image of what is holy. Today we are given a simple black and white version of things with no pretense. The real work of God is to care for the poor, the weak and lowly; this is something that is not on the top of our lists of important things in life. Jesus is not finding fault with the scribes for their vanity, rather he is definitely finding fault with them trying to make all of the external aspects of their faith a symbol of their piety. The poor widows are the ideal version of piety. They shared or gave away all that they had, in both readings the widows gave of themselves for the sake of others. They didn't need to bother with the "externals" of their faith; by their lives they lived their faith.

Today our liturgy is calling us to look at ourselves and see just how we live up to what we profess. In reality we must become the oil from the first reading that anoints the wounds of others. We are the flour from that same reading that feeds the lonely elderly woman with companionship. We are the coins that support hungry children of the world. Do you think that the widows knew something we don't know? And if they did, might their radical generosity make us just a little bit uneasy? How much more should we, who are so richly blessed, give, not from our want, but from our wealth? What is our widow's mite?

- Father Mike

A Prayer for Veterans

Heavenly Father, King and Lord, You instill in all of Your creation an order and value. You call Your children "very good." We surrender to You the conflicts that tear your family apart. We pray for an end to blindness that places pride, greed, power, and selfishness above human dignity and brotherly love. We pray in gratitude for all of those who have defended peace, virtue, and justice with honor. We pray especially for those who have suffered in mind and body from the ravages of war. Let Your Kingdom come! May Your peace that surpasses all understanding reign in our hearts and in our world. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

1 Kings 17:10-16

In those days, Elijah the prophet went to Zarephath. As he arrived at the entrance of the city, a widow was gathering sticks there; he called out to her, "Please bring me a small cupful of water to drink." She left to get it, and he called out after her, "Please bring along a bit of bread." She answered, "As the LORD, your God, lives, I have nothing baked; there is only a handful of flour in my jar and a little oil in my jug. Just now I was collecting a couple of sticks, to go in and prepare something for myself and my son; when we have eaten it, we shall die." Elijah said to her, "Do not be afraid. Go and do as you propose. But first make me a little cake and bring it to me. Then you can prepare something for yourself and your son. For the LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'The jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, until the day when the LORD sends rain upon the earth.'" She left and did as Elijah had said. She was able to eat for a year, and he and her son as well; the jar of flour did not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, as the LORD had foretold through Elijah.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 147
Paul Lisicky

*Praise the Lord, my soul, my soul!
 Praise the Lord, my soul!*

SECOND READING

Hebrews 9:24-28

Christ did not enter into a sanctuary made by hands, a copy of the true one, but heaven itself, that he might now appear before God on our behalf. Not that he might offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters each year into the sanctuary with blood that is not his own; if that were so, he would have had to suffer repeatedly from the foundation of the world. But now once for all he has appeared at the end of the ages to take away sin by his sacrifice. Just as it is appointed that human beings die once, and after this the judgment, so also Christ, offered once to take away the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to take away sin but to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Mark 12:41-44

Jesus sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
