PASTOR'S NOTES

Death is a Part of Living

During the month of November we remember in our thoughts, prayers and masses all of the faithful departed. Also during this month we will end another Church Year. Because of these two factors our liturgy pushes us into thinking about the end of times. Death and dying is one aspect of life that none of us like to think of; and yet we all know that death is the one part of living that awaits us all.

Even though we know in our minds that death is a part of life and a part of God's plan for salvation, often our hearts tell us something different. Whenever someone that we love dies, a part of our heart goes right with them. This is the part of dying that we don't like to think about. Too often we forget about the hope that our faith connects to dying and what would life be without hope. In today's readings we hear from the Prophet Daniel as well as Jesus speaking about those last days and what a message of hope they give us.

The setting for both Jesus and Daniel was a world filled with pain and suffering. It seemed as though the end of times was near. The type of writing we hear from in both the first reading as well as the Gospel is known as apocalyptic literature. The word itself means an unveiling of something that is not known. This type of literature is filled with stark images about the end of the world and the eternal realm of God. However, the darkness doesn't get the last word. We are reminded that people would experience bliss and see "new heavens and a new earth." We are given images of light and darkness, goodness and evil, redemption and judgment, reward and punishment. A New Jerusalem appears on the horizon and the wedding feast of the Lamb presents Christ as victor.

By assuring us of an end of time when the world as we know it will disappear, it makes the present time all the more important and special; at least it should! The words of Jesus referring to the end of time are certainly not meant to scare people. Rather they remind us to pay attention to life and the choices that we make. I suppose that old saying which tells us not to put off until tomorrow what can be done today is appropriate. As we near the end of the Church year we are asked to look at our lives and see how we are living and what choices we are making. If for some strange reason God came to you and told you that your life will end tomorrow, what would you do for the last 24 hours that you had on this earth? As you look at how you would answer that question, it tells us something about how we are living. If there are many loose ends that we would want to take care of, then we need to determine why we haven't taken care of them as they came up. If there are people we need to make up to, then why haven't we taken care of that. It is good for us to think about life and the end of life. It is healthy to see what we are "putting off" for the tomorrows that we might never see.

Today we are reminded that Christ came to save all peoples and salvation is not limited to those who have specifically known Christ. God's love is universal. It is not how long we live in life that is important; it is how we live that counts. As we all stand before the judgment seat of God we will be asked how we planted God's word in our hearts. Jesus is interested in where we stand, what kingdom we belong to, what word we serve, what truth we speak, what we have done in God's name – in this world. It is in this world that we make it or break it!

-Father Mike

St. Vincent de Paul Society Annual Report October 1, 2023-September 30, 2024

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul thanks you for your continued generous support of our ministry to those in need in the Irwin/North Huntingdon local community. Church/poor box collections, donations in memory of a deceased loved one, and donations totaled $67,914. Our monthly food pantry serves an average of 126 families (300 people) with the help of 40-60 dedicated volunteers who unload the truck from Westmoreland County Food Bank and facilitate the distribution. Westmoreland County Food Bank provides 600 boxes of frozen, fresh, and dried food items each month. The ministry hosts two Fresh Express distributions annually which provide supplemental fresh food to clients that are already receiving food at our pantry. The St. Vincent de Paul Society also manages a helpline. Volunteers return calls received requesting assistance for food, shelter, gasoline, medical costs, heating, hot water tanks, automobile repairs, and utilities. During this past fiscal year, $57,266 was distributed to assist these callers. In addition to requests for assistance during the monthly food distribution, 196 face-to-face home visits were made, helping 588 people. Emergency food, and donated furniture and clothing were also provided to 134 neighbors in need. Requests for help with clothing for school-aged children are provided with a gift card. The ministry reaches out to nearby churches to twin when requests for assistance are high. For callers out of our area, we provide them with their local resources to contact for assistance. A Christmas party is hosted for the children registered in our food bank. Gift cards donated through the giving tree are distributed to the parents while the children enjoy games and activities run by our Youth Ministry. A table of donated gently used toys and books is also available. Santa's Shoe Box collection for the people of Appalachia is coordinated annually in the fall. This year's collection yielded 379 shoe boxes. This little insight into the good work that happens every day is known by two people – the person in need and the helpful voice on the other end of the call offering relief and hope. These good deeds happen because of your generous gifts throughout the year. As you continue to support the ministry, please say a special prayer for those requesting assistance and the volunteers. Together we can help our neighbors know they are not alone. If you are interested in learning more about the ministry or becoming a member, please contact Jack Steiner at (412) 979-2077 or Kathy Takacs at (412) 491-7044.

In the Spirit of the wise men, who brought gifts to the infant child Jesus to reveal his divinity, we ask you to help be the giver of gifts that will allow the spirit of the Christ Child to be alive in the hearts of the needy. You will find upon our humble tree tags that you may select to purchase Giant Eagle, Walmart, or Target gift cards with a variety of denominations. You may also purchase gift cards through Queen of Angels School (please see order form below). Starting on November 18th this tree will be displayed in the Hall of Memories. Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Daniel 12:1-3

In those days, I Daniel, heard this word of the Lord: "At that time there shall arise Michael, the great prince, guardian of your people; it shall be a time unsurpassed in distress since nations began until that time. At that time your people shall escape, everyone who is found written in the book. "Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake; some shall live forever, others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace. "But the wise shall shine brightly like the splendor of the firmament, and those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever."

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 16

James Scavone

You are my inheritance, O Lord!

SECOND READING Hebrews 10:11-14, 18

Brothers and sisters: Every priest stands daily at his ministry, offering frequently those same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But this one offered one sacrifice for sins, and took his seat forever at the right hand of God; now he waits until his enemies are made his footstool. For by one offering he has made perfect forever those who are being consecrated. Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer offering for sin.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Mark 13:24-32

Jesus said to his disciples: "In those days after that tribulation the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. "And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky. "Learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near. In the same way, when you see these things happening, know that he is near, at the gates. Amen, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. "But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
