PASTOR'S NOTES

Thy Kingdom come...

Our celebration this week recognizes the end of another liturgical year with the recognition of Christ as King. Over the past couple of weeks we have been reminded of our responsibilities to be prepared and live life as servants of the Kingdom. Today we hear in a very poignant way that the end of times is near and we must all be ready and take comfort in that fact. Daniel in the first reading continues with his vision of what it will be like in the final days. We hear that the just will be raised from the dead and rewarded with eternal life while the evil ones will suffer eternal punishment.

Although these words written by Daniel as well as those we hear in the second reading are supposed to give comfort, we find the images very uncomfortable leaving us with anything but a feeling of peace. Daniel makes reference to a figure "like the son of man," which is an obvious reference to the one who will judge the world. This "son of man" was a heavenly being who would come at the end of time to establish the reign of God's holy people. In the Gospels Jesus often refers to himself as the "son of man," so making it clear of his own understanding that he would be judge of all at the end of time. The reign which Jesus establishes will be everlasting and the kingship of Jesus will never end.

As Americans, we are not all that good at understanding symbolic language. Therefore the language we find today and the symbolism used needs to be understood if it is to be real for us. We need to understand that the language used in our liturgy today is symbolic in nature and certainly not realistic. Symbols like rams, goats, beasts, and horns are all symbolic representations of empires, oppressive and brutal rulers, and dynasties. When properly understood books like Daniel or Revelation can bring comfort and encouragement because they ultimately affirm the attributes of God. If believers are faithful to God's law and confident in God's power, they can be assured that God will deliver them from the dangers of falling into sin and reward them with a life of eternal union with the God of love.

In the gospel for this final Sunday of the year, we find Pilate questioning Jesus about his kingship. It can be difficult for us to imagine the "kingship" of Jesus because our culture does not use that term or title. The kingship we refer to is often full of royalty, pomp and titles. The kingship Jesus makes reference to is one of the true suffering servants willingly offering himself on the cross. This definitely is a contradiction. It is obvious that Pilate did not even understand the terms of the question he was asking Jesus. Too often we think and act in physical realities and we forget about the spiritual dimensions of life.

The Kingship of Christ then becomes not something of honor and glory; rather it is one of love and service, not dominion and exploitation. Jesus reminds all of us that this level of love and service must go hand in hand. We cannot have one without the other. On this last Sunday of the year we are gently reminded that our salvation depends on how we respond to his command of perfect love. As we pray the Lord's Prayer we gently whisper: "Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done."

-Father Mike

PRAYER FOR THANKSGIVING

Lord, thank you for walking with us through the seasons of our lives. For the winter, when we are held safe in your arms through the darkness. For the hope of spring, as we are filled with new promise and life. For summer time, full of warmth and color. And for autumn days as leaves fall to seed new growth. You are always with us. Amen.

The Advent prayer is recited 15 times each day, starting on the feast of Saint Andrew (Nov. 30th) until Christmas day.

“Hail and blessed be the hour, and the moment in which the son of God was born of the most pure Virgin Mary, at midnight, in Bethlehem, in piercing cold. In that hour, vouchsafe, O my God, to hear my prayer, grant my desires, through the merits of our Savior Jesus Christ, and His Blessed Mother, Amen”

Dear Parish Families, As we approach Thanksgiving, I wanted to take a moment to express my gratitude for the incredible support you provide to Queen of Angels Catholic School. It is truly a blessing to be part of a community that values faith, learning, and compassion as much as ours does.

Our students and their families, teachers, and staff feel deeply supported by your prayers, encouragement, and generosity. With your partnership, we are able to nurture not only academic growth but also the spiritual and moral development of our students. For this, we are immensely thankful.

This Thanksgiving, I pray that you and your families are surrounded by warmth, love, and the joy of gathering with loved ones. May we all continue to be guided by gratitude and faith, and may our community remain a beacon of hope and kindness.

Thank you for being a vital part of our mission. Wishing you a blessed and joyful Thanksgiving.

God Bless,
Mrs. Filak

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Daniel 7:13-14

As the visions during the night continued, I saw one like a Son of man coming, on the clouds of heaven; when he reached the Ancient One and was presented before him, the one like a Son of man received dominion, glory, and kingship; all peoples, nations, and languages serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away, his kingship shall not be destroyed.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 93

Michel Guimont

The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

SECOND READING

Revelation 1:5-8

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood, who has made us into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father, to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen. Behold, he is coming amid the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him. All the peoples of the earth will lament him. Yes. Amen. "I am the Alpha and the Omega, " says the Lord God, "the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty."

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

John 18:33b-37

Pilate said to Jesus, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you say this on your own or have others told you about me?" Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom does not belong to this world. If my kingdom did belong to this world, my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not here." So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
