PASTOR'S NOTES

The Presentation of the Lord

It has been forty days since we celebrated the Nativity of the Lord. It is the final visit to Jerusalem that Jesus made which we all remember, when he was welcomed by cheering onlookers, celebrated the Last Super, was arrested, sentenced, and put to death. Today we celebrate that day when Mary and Joseph, in fulfillment of the Law of Moses, came to Jerusalem and presented Jesus to God in the Temple. This is an important day not only in the life of Christ, but also in our own lives. Our liturgy has Joseph and Mary presenting Jesus to the temple as it was prescribed by law. The Son of God approaches his people in the most vulnerable way. Jesus enters the Temple as a helpless infant in Mary's arms, protected by Joseph. This is not much different than when parents bring their child to be baptized. Every parent wants the very best for their children, and every parent fears what might lay ahead for their children.

When Christ was presented in the temple, Jesus approaches his people in the most vulnerable way. Those in the temple see a poor couple carrying two turtledoves, obviously people of little or no importance. But "there was a man in Jerusalem named Simeon, and a prophetess Anna, inspired by the Holy Spirit who see more. In the infant, they see the salvation of the nations..." He embraced the child and gave thanks to God that he lived long enough to see God's salvation. "...a light to the revelation of the Gentiles and the glory of thy people Israel." Because of the words that Simeon spoke in reference to Jesus being the light to the gentiles, the custom was developed to bless candles on this feast, hence this day also became known a Candlemas day.

As we embrace the promise that Simeon experienced we all are reminded that God has also made a promise to each of us. Through the light of Christ we have all been brought into the glory of God's kingdom. Like Joseph and Mary we are to trust that God's will be done and that God's help will always be there for us if we have faith and believe.

Simeon saw the salvation of all people's in the child Jesus. He recognized Jesus' identity. Do we recognize the Child in others? In the poor and destitute? In the refugee and the immigrant? In the prisoner or the homeless person begging on the street corner? The Light of Christ burns within all of us. As we live our lives we are all called to react the same way as Simeon and Anna did by recognizing the presence of the Divine in others.

It was after Anna's encounter with Jesus that she spoke to "all who were awaiting the redemption of Jerusalem." She was the second witness, but did anyone listen to what this old lady had to say? Or did the people in the temple just dismiss her as just a crazy old lady? Remember that is women who are first to visit the empty tomb. When they return to the apostles with this great news that Jesus had been raised, the apostles thought "their story seemed like nonsense and they did not believe them." Would Anna have fared any better when telling people that this tiny baby would be the source of their salvation? We all need to be open to the messengers that God puts before us, I am sure there have been many times when we have just dismissed the "messenger" and totally disregarded the message. It is the wonder of God that works in mysterious ways, we must always remember that!

Please pray for the family of Calvin Garbowsky and all of our faithful departed.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

World Day for Consecrated Life

God of all goodness, you have called people to follow you faithfully. Humans have heard that call and many choose to follow your call in varied and faith-filled lives. Some follow your call in private, silent lives as hermits; some choose to follow you with lives lived as virgins and widows; while others choose public lives of vowed men and women as religious brothers and sisters. Abundantly give to these men and women the courage to follow their call as witnesses to your gifts and faith and service to the world. We ask this in faith through the name of Jesus our Savior. Amen.

Prayer of Faith

Dear God, Open my eyes to Your movement in my life. And, even when I don't see it or don't understand, help me to rely on the promises of Your love and mercy. Amen.

VOCATIONS PRAYER

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Malachi 3:1-4

Thus says the Lord GOD: Lo, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me; And suddenly there will come to the temple the LORD whom you seek, And the messenger of the covenant whom you desire. Yes, he is coming, says the LORD of hosts. But who will endure the day of his coming? And who can stand when he appears? For he is like the refiner's fire, or like the fuller's lye. He will sit refining and purifying silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, Refining them like gold or like silver that they may offer due sacrifice to the LORD. Then the sacrifice of Judah and Jerusalem will please the LORD, as in the days of old, as in years gone by.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 24

Richard Proulx

Who is this king of glory? It is the Lord!

SECOND READING

Hebrews 2:14-18

Since the children share in blood and flesh, Jesus likewise shared in them, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the Devil, and free those who through fear of death had been subject to slavery all their life. Surely he did not help angels but rather the descendants of Abraham; therefore, he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every way, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest before God to expiate the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested through what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Luke 2:22-32

When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, Mary and Joseph took Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord, just as it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that opens the womb shall be consecrated to the Lord, and to offer the sacrifice of a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons, in accordance with the dictate in the law of the Lord. Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, awaiting the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Christ of the Lord. He came in the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to perform the custom of the law in regard to him, he took him into his arms and blessed God, saying:

“Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel.”

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
