PASTOR'S NOTES

God Will Have the Last Word!

Did you ever stop and think about how many times we hear the same things in the scriptures? Over and over again the message comes out the same, but for some strange reason we don't always get it. Today, hope and justice dominate our liturgy. We are told how a life of justice will automatically flow from our hope in God. Jeremiah in the first reading asks us: Where is your trust? If it is not in God, then we are missing the point. So often we do put our trust in the wrong people and in the wrong things. We sometimes feel so secure with our material wealth that we forget about the ultimate trust we should have in God.

It is ironic how often in life we are able to put our trust in people that don't deserve it. Jeremiah is referring to leaders of the people both politically and religiously. The people of Israel were putting their trust in others blindly, forgetting about God. We must always remind ourselves that it is God who has the last word. St. Paul reminds the people of Corinth as he reminds us that this is the case if we believe in the resurrection. Often we focus so much on the here and now that we completely lose sight of the hereafter.

The gospel reading for this week has Jesus balancing blessings upon the poor and a word of woe to the rich. The gospel of Luke unlike the other gospels spends a great deal of time and effort showing Jesus' concern for social outcasts and in particular the poor. The blessed life, according to Luke is not lived amid pomp, power and popularity. God's blessings are not conditioned by economic or social status but are the free gift of God's graciousness. The only condition for God's blessings is clearly spelled out in the first reading: "trust in the Lord." We are all blessed when we learn to surrender to the Lord. The gospel challenges us to trust in God, to keep God at the center of our lives and recognize that all blessings come from God.

The Beatitudes which Luke gives us today are about the qualities of life that help people to live humane and holy lives. To be "blessed" is to share in God's life and grace. It is clear that Luke is repulsed by greed and hoarding by people whose riches and material wealth keep them from trusting in God. We are all being asked: Where is our treasure and where do we put our trust? As we search the answers to these questions, we need to look beyond ourselves and recognize the goodness of Christ within all. How we live and the choices we make are ultimately up to us. We need to be honest in what we profess to believe in and where we place our trust.

VOCATIONS PRAYER

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Jeremiah 17:5-8

Thus says the LORD: Cursed is the one who trusts in human beings, who seeks his strength in flesh, whose heart turns away from the LORD. He is like a barren bush in the desert that enjoys no change of season, but stands in a lava waste, a salt and empty earth. Blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD, whose hope is the LORD. He is like a tree planted beside the waters that stretches out its roots to the stream: it fears not the heat when it comes; its leaves stay green; in the year of drought it shows no distress, but still bears fruit.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 1

Michel Guimont

Blessed are they, blessed are they who hope in the Lord.

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20

Brothers and sisters: If Christ is preached as raised from the dead, how can some among you say there is no resurrection of the dead? If the dead are not raised, neither has Christ been raised, and if Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins. Then those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are the most pitiable people of all.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Luke 6:17-20-26

Jesus came down with the twelve and stood on a stretch of level ground with a great crowd of his disciples and a large number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon. And raising his eyes toward his disciples he said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for the kingdom of God is yours. Blessed are you who are now hungry, for you will be satisfied. Blessed are you who are now weeping, for you will laugh. Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice and leap for joy on that day! Behold, your reward will be great in heaven. For their ancestors treated the prophets in the same way. But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. Woe to you who are filled now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will grieve and weep. Woe to you when all speak well of you, for their ancestors treated the false prophets in this way."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.

FREE MEDICARE HELP

Tired of getting tons of mail for Medicare? Are you confused about how the process works? Let Me Help! My services are free.

I represent most all carriers in Western PA, i.e. Highmark, UPMC, Aetna, Humana, Wellcare... and many more. I will provide a personalized "Medicare 101" class and assist you in enrolling in Part A,B,C & D.

I will be there for you all year round to help with any questions or concerns, and each year during Open Enrollment to make sure you are ready for next year.

I'm your local Medicare/Insurance Advisor - Chris Visco
