PASTOR'S NOTES

We Celebrate Easter!

The resurrection of Jesus is a paradox; we believe but we do not understand. The resurrection is a mystery, which we can never understand but only believe. This mystery takes us beyond all, which is familiar to us – to a realm where God's glory and power lift us up to a new dignity of risen life. It is a freely given gift by the Divine One who has loved us from the beginning of creation, who breathed life into us, and who continues to beckon us to grow in the truth of who we are.

Easter is a celebration where we acknowledge who Christ really is, the one who shared in our humanity even to the point of accepting death, but who conquered death to raise us up to a share in his life. What exactly is it that we celebrate every year on Easter. We recognize the fact that Jesus rose from the dead; but, don't we do that every time we celebrate the Eucharist? So, what makes Easter such a special celebration in our Church year? It might have something to do with the springtime of the year when everything in nature seems to resurrect. It might also have something to do with the fact that for forty days we have been anticipating this glorious day. Whatever the reason that makes this day so special, we like to celebrate it each and every year. We tell the wonderful story of the resurrection over and over again. Jesus squeezed life out of death and goodness and love triumphed.

The story of Easter is hard for us to accept because we have never seen or experienced anyone rise from the dead. So, we search for symbols to help us comprehend this great mystery. Just as at Christmas, Christians have come up with symbols to say something about resurrection. From ancient times the egg has been a symbol of fertility and immortality, and the church borrowed it and applied it as a visual lesson to the resurrection of Jesus. There is even a tradition that Simon of Cyrene, who helped Jesus carry his cross to Calvary, was an egg merchant. The legend has Simon returning to his shop after the crucifixion only to find that all of the eggs had turned miraculously into a variety of colors adorned with drawings. The butterfly is the most ancient symbol of the resurrection because they are born out of a caterpillar's sleep in a cocoon, symbolizing the grave. They are transformed, as if with a glorified body, unconstrained by the limitations of matter, flying into the air.

These symbols are strong statements about life, and what happened on that first Easter morning is "life" itself. I pray that as you celebrate this day with your family and friends, the peace and the joy that resurrection brings to our lives may be yours in abundance. Have a wonderful celebration and rejoice in the fact that Jesus truly has risen and that same reward awaits each of us. Alleluia!!

Easter Gratefulness

As we bask in the glory that the Risen Lord brings I can't help but think over the past few weeks with much gratitude. As a parish family I think we celebrated this great feast with much style and grace. God's Spirit could certainly be felt in the hearts of all. Sometimes we do not realize how many people are involved in a single liturgy let alone an entire season. I certainly would like to thank everyone for their willingness to give so generously of their time and talents. I am grateful to all of our Ministers who certainly put in extra time. As a Parish Family we have enjoyed a Blessed Easter celebration! ~Father Mike

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

Congratulations!

It is with great joy that we celebrated the Sacraments of Christian Initiation at the Easter Vigil with Sarai Perez. We also share our joy with Michael Cumberledge, Matthew Staub, and Elizabeth Whittington who were received into Full Communion with the Catholic Church. We also congratulate Charles Thomas, who journeyed and celebrated the Rites of the Catechumenate and Purification and Enlightenment with us at Immaculate Conception and was received into Full Communion with the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish. They have all grown in the love of Christ and his Church. With our prayers, example, and continued support, they will continue to deepen that love on their ongoing Journey of Faith. Their excitement and happiness can be a reminder to us to renew our own commitment and appreciation for the wonderful gifts Christ has given us in the Sacraments. Congratulations to all who were received into the Church and celebrated the Sacraments for the first time. May God continue to bless you with His abundant grace and love.

ANGELS CORNER QUEEN OF ANGEL CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Queen of Angels Catholic School - HAPPY EASTER! As we enter the month of April, we are reminded of the beauty of renewal and the hope that comes with the Easter season. This is a special time in our Catholic faith, when we celebrate Christ's resurrection and the promise of new life. May this season fill your hearts and homes with joy, peace, and abundant blessings.

April is also a busy and exciting time at our school. Students continue to grow spiritually, academically, and socially, and we are grateful for the dedication they show each day. As we move through the final months of the school year, we encourage families to remain engaged in their child's learning journey. Your support at home plays a vital role in their success.

Queen of Angels Catholic School's production of Aladdin, Jr. presented by our Drama Club and Mrs. O is Friday, April 25th and Saturday, April 26th. Tickets are $5.00 for adults and $2.00 for Students. Come and enjoy an evening with our talented students. We are so proud of them!

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Acts 10:34a,37-43

Peter proceeded to speak and said:

“You know what has happened all over Judea,

beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power.

He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.

We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem.

They put him to death by hanging him on a tree.

This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead.

To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.”

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 118

Marty Haugen

*Give thanks to the Lord, for God is good; God's mercy endures for ever;
Let the house of Israel say: "God's mercy endures for ever."*

*The hand of the Lord has struck with power, God's right hand is exalted,
I shall not die, but live anew, declaring the works of the Lord.*

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone, the Lord of love and mercy has brought wonder to our eyes!

SECOND READING

Colossians 3:1-4

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.

Think of what is above, not of what is on earth.

For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

John 20:1-9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
