PASTOR'S NOTES

Trinity Sunday

As we move along with the Church calendar, the week after Pentecost is Trinity Sunday. Today our Liturgy focuses on this great mystery of life and faith. We start off by hearing the wonderful words taken from the collection Wisdom literature. In the book of Proverbs we see that Wisdom is presented to us as feminine personification. This genre of literature is a collection of images on how we are to live our lives. It is filled with wise sayings based on one's observations on life. The two dominant images that evolve in this biblical form are wisdom and folly and the eternal conflict that exists between them. The writer personifies wisdom as beautiful and alluring women who do good things. Wise people practice honesty, generosity, self-control, industriousness, prudence; those of folly are greedy, dishonest, drunkards, hotheads, misers and liars.

Today we are told that Wisdom was created before anything else existed and lives on a different plane from all other creatures. She determines the order of all things and speaks to humans and is available to anyone who would listen and learn. The church uses this reading from Proverbs on Trinity Sunday because it sees a resemblance between Wisdom's role as a master-worker or crafter of the universe and the Word of God, Jesus, who became flesh, but pre-existed from the beginning. Wisdom is seen as a person. Jesus is incarnate and is God personified. Christians in the early church saw Jesus as the wisdom of God incarnate. The author of Proverbs invites us to look around and see the divine in what we often take for granted, how God's goodness has graced our world and is at the heart of creation.

St. Paul picks up on this idea in the second reading by telling us that there is a strong sense of relationship among the persons in God, a certain intimacy that has been given to us in faith, and now we live in right relationship with God. The Gospel has Jesus giving his farewell speech to the apostles telling them that he will send the Spirit upon them as the source of wisdom to guide them to speak truthful words. The Spirit comforts us and gives us strength to witness our faith to others.

It is the indwelling of the Spirit within us that assures us of the triune God's working within and through us: the Fathers love, the Son's mission, the Spirits truth. The gospel today assures us that we are never alone. God will forever be a mystery to us. We can only know something about God because of what has been revealed to us. One of the things we do know about God is that God is person, and we can have a relationship with God. Trinity is the way we express our most fundamental relationships with God. For God to be person there must be relationship within God. As we become closer to the relationship of the Father, Son, and Spirit we must in turn be in relationship with one another. Nobody can be totally alone, it would be unbearable. It is through our love of God that we share that love with those we are in relationship with. It is through the saving mystery of Jesus that we learn to "be" for one another, and it is through the help of the Spirit that we find the heart to make that happen.

~Father Mike

A Goodbye Message

Lessons in life can sometimes be hard as well as humbling; however, life would be boring without learning anything new about ourselves, or the place we have in God's plan. As I ponder over this past year, I know that I have learned many things and I am sure you have as well. Transitions in life can be challenging, but they can also be exciting. As I retire from active ministry, I carry with me many memories and certainly many blessings. Sometimes we touch one another's lives in ways we do not even realize, good or bad.

Regardless, we make a mark that will forever be a part of who we are to become. I hope that I have been able to touch your lives with goodness, and that you will be able to carry that goodness with you as you continue to live your lives. I know that you have touched mine. As Fr. James Morley assumes Pastor, my prayer is that the journey you take together may be filled with goodness and love.

Blessings,

Father Mike

Please pray for the families of Lucinda Chiea, Joseph Watt, and Albert Orsino and all of our faithful departed.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Pray for Fathers

God and Father of all creation,
we come before you today with humble hearts.
You are our model of a loving father.
When we fail and fall short of your expectations,
you are always there at the end of the day with open arms,
ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day
and to encourage us to try again and not to give up.

We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world
as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others.

Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children.

Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures.
Provide them with the words needed for encouragement
and perseverance.

We ask all this in the name of Jesus.
Amen.

Diocesan Lenten Appeal

We are gaining on our Diocesan Lenten Appeal goal this year. Our Diocesan goal is $162,067.00. We would like to see as many people as possible donate to support our parish and ministries like International Priests, Seminarian's Education, Faith Formation programs, and Catholic Charities. Below is a pledge card and information about making a gift online. Any amount will help towards our goal. Father Mike, Father Louiegene, Father Vijay, Immaculate Conception Staff and your fellow parishioners appreciate your support.

As of June 4th total pledged is $133,480.30.

That is 82.4% of our Diocesan goal.

We have received gifts from 406 parishioners, which is only 15.1% of our parish family.

Thank you to all who have already given a gift to the 2025 Diocesan Lenten Appeal and to those who will give a gift.

Thank you for supporting our parish!

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Proverbs 8:22-31

Thus says the wisdom of God:
"The LORD possessed me,
the beginning of his ways,
the forerunner of his prodigies of long ago;
from of old I was poured forth,
at the first, before the earth.
When there were no depths
I was brought forth,
when there were no fountains
or springs of water;
before the mountains were settled into place,
before the hills, I was brought forth;
while as yet the earth and fields were not made, nor the first clods of the world.

"When the Lord established the heavens
I was there,
when he marked out the vault
over the face of the deep;
when he made firm the skies above,
when he fixed fast the foundations
of the earth;
when he set for the sea its limit,
so that the waters should
not transgress his command;
then was I beside him as his craftsman,
and I was his delight day by day,
playing before him all the while,
playing on the surface of his earth;
and I found delight in the human race."

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalms 8

Michel Guimont

O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

SECOND READING

Romans 5:1-5

Brothers and sisters:
Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we even boast
of our afflictions, knowing that affliction
produces endurance,
and endurance, proven character,
and proven character, hope,
and hope does not disappoint,
because the love of God
has been poured out into our hearts
through the Holy Spirit
that has been given to us.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:
"I have much more to tell you,
but you cannot bear it now.
But when he comes, the Spirit of truth,
he will guide you to all truth.
He will not speak on his own,
but he will speak what he hears,
and will declare to you
the things that are coming.
He will glorify me,
because he will take from
what is mine and declare it to you.
Everything that the Father has is mine;
for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine
and declare it to you."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
