PASTOR'S NOTES

Greetings Immaculate Conception and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parishes!

As your new Pastor, I am honored to write this first note to you in the bulletin! I am also truly grateful and humbled for the Blessing of being able to be a Shepherd here for you! I have been ordained for 10 years.

I have two sisters and both of my parents close enough to the area that I am sure you'll see them at Mass! I enjoy having a section of the bulletin to share with you some of the clarities I have received in my spiritual life and things that I find helpful. I try to do this weekly, and I hope you find them helpful. A big part of my life is prayer; so I share prayerful things often! I know it is not the Lenten season right now, but I want to give you a way that I have found helpful in my own life in loving our Lord in the Eucharist even more!

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. A Few Lenten seasons ago, I noticed something in my heart during the Stations of the Cross in my former parish. I noticed my lack of engagement of the mind and attention during the praying of the stations. I felt guilt about this lacking in my will and let it be what it was, a place for growth. Not too long after, I experienced a simple but good clarity during a Holy Hour. The clarity was that I needed to pray just two Stations of the Cross per day, year round, and begin immediately.

So, I got started. I had a very simple stations booklet and began with the First and Second Station on a Monday usually at the end of my Holy Hour. In a week's time (2 per day) I prayed all 14 stations (But) this week I didn't just pray them... I meditated on them. I invited them to take root in my mind without even realizing it. Doing this daily practice was a wonderful gift the Holy Spirit prompted me to do. Very quickly, I had memorized the Stations in a new and more fruitful way. I could see them when I closed my eyes and meditated on a certain station.

After a few months of this 2 stations per day habit, I noticed that when I was visiting a different Catholic Church I wasn't regularly at, I would genuflect to the Tabernacle and immediately want to look upon the stations around the Church, especially my new favorite one: Veronica Wipes the Face of Jesus! Station #6. I love the way different Artistic Stations depict this most Holy Moment in this prayer from tradition. The next Lenten Season after forming this habit, I looked forward to prayerfully walking the Stations of our Lord and entered more deeply, because they didn't only live now in my book, they lived in my mind. I also experienced a noticeable increase in centering my life around the Holy Eucharist! This is one prayerful way I have found help in centering my mind on our Lord daily in His gift of himself to us in the Eucharist. I hope it is helpful to you!

~Father Jim

A Quote from St. John Chrysostom, Bishop

"Prayer stands before God as an honored ambassador. It gives joy to the spirit, peace to the heart. I speak of prayer, not words. It is the longing for God, love too deep for words, a gift not given by man but by God's grace. The apostle Paul says: We do not know how we are to pray but the spirit himself pleads for us with inexpressible longings. When the Lord gives this kind of prayer to a man, he gives him riches that cannot be taken away, heavenly food that satisfies the spirit."

Diocesan Lenten Appeal

We are gaining on our Diocesan Lenten Appeal goal this year. Our Diocesan goal is $162,067.00. We would like to see as many people as possible donate to support our parish and ministries like International Priests, Seminarian's Education, Faith Formation programs, and Catholic Charities. Below is a pledge card and information about making a gift online. Any amount will help towards our goal. Father Mike, Father Louiegene, Father Vijay, Immaculate Conception Staff and your fellow parishioners appreciate your support.

As of June 13th total pledged is $136,695.30.

That is 84.3% of our Diocesan goal.

We have received gifts from 416 parishioners, which is only 15.5% of our parish family.

Please remember if Immaculate Conception Parish does not reach our diocesan goal, the parish will receive a bill for the difference that must be paid out of our parish savings. If we have to use our parish savings then we will not have money in the savings for other parish needs. Also it is important to understand the money in our savings is your offertory from previous years.

It is important to note that every penny we raise above our Diocesan goal is ASSESSMENT FREE. That means all those dollars stay here at Immaculate Conception parish.

Thank you to all who have already given a gift to the 2025 Diocesan Lenten Appeal and to those who will give a gift.

Thank you for supporting our parish!

Complete the pledge card below & place in offertory basket.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Genesis 14:18-20

In those days, Melchizedek,
king of Salem, brought out bread and wine,
and being a priest of God Most High,
he blessed Abram with these words:
"Blessed be Abram by God Most High,
the creator of heaven and earth;
and blessed be God Most High,
who delivered your foes into your hand."
Then Abram gave him
a tenth of everything.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 110

Michel Guimont

*You are a priest forever,
in the line of Melchizedek.*

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Brothers and sisters:
I received from the Lord
what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus,
on the night he was handed over,
took bread, and,
after he had given thanks,
broke it and said,
"This is my body that is for you.
Do this in remembrance of me."
In the same way also the cup,
after supper, saying,
"This cup is the new covenant in my blood.
Do this, as often as you drink it,
in remembrance of me."
For as often as you eat this bread
and drink the cup,
you proclaim the death of the Lord
until he comes.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Luke 9:11b-17

Jesus spoke to the crowds about the kingdom of God,
and he healed those who
needed to be cured.
As the day was drawing to a close,
the Twelve approached him and said,
"Dismiss the crowd so that they can go to the surrounding villages and farms and find lodging and provisions;
for we are in a deserted place here."
He said to them,
"Give them some food yourselves."
They replied,
"Five loaves and two fish are all we have,
unless we ourselves go
and buy food for all these people."
Now the men there numbered about five thousand.
Then he said to his disciples,
"Have them sit down in groups of about fifty."
They did so and made them all sit down.
Then taking the five loaves
and the two fish,
and looking up to heaven,
he said the blessing over them,
broke them,
and gave them to the disciples
to set before the crowd.
They all ate and were satisfied.
And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.

raise you up, and I will raise you

RECESSIONAL HYMN

O God, Beyond All Praising

1. O God be-yond all prais-ing, we wor-ship you to - day
*2. The flow'r of earth-ly splen-dor in time must sure-ly die,
3. Then hear, O gra-cious Sav-ior, ac-cept the love we bring,
And sing the love a-maz-ing that songs can-not re-pay;
Its frag-ile bloom sur-ren-der to you, the Lord most high;
That we who know your fa-vor may serve you as our King;
For we can on-ly won-der at ev-'ry gift you send,
But hid-den from all na-ture the e-ter-nal seed is sown,
And wheth-er our to-mor-rows be filled with good or ill,
At bless-ings with-out num-ber and mer-cies with-out end.
Though small in mor-tal stat-ure to heav-en's gar-den grown.
We'll tri-umph through our sor-rows and rise to bless you still,
We lift our hearts be-fore you and wait up-on your word;
For Christ, the man from heav-en, from death has set us free,
To mar-vel at your beau-ty and glo-ry in your ways,
We hon-or and a-dore you, our great and might-y Lord.
And we through him are giv-en the fin-al vic-to-ry!
And make a joy-ful du-ty our sac-ri-fice of praise.
