PASTOR'S NOTES

Life is busy in 2025.

What should I focus on each day to embrace the Will of God in addition to my prayer time?

The parables of Jesus Christ!

In this Sunday's first reading we hear in Deuteronomy 30: 11-14 (NAB) "For this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious and remote for you. It is not up in the sky that you should say, "Who will go up in the sky to get it down for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?" Nor is it across the sea, that you should say, "Who will cross the sea to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?" No, it is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out.

-Beautiful, clear words from the book of Deuteronomy that remind me of the parables of our Lord. We all think life will be clear and focused when we begin on a spiritual path of our Catholic Faith. But soon enough, we realize that the deserts in life are part of the journey. I love when a clarity strikes me in unexpected times; such as a little prompting of the Holy Spirit to refocus and anchor into something of the Lord. One of these clarities came to me after receiving the sacrament of Reconciliation. I was contemplating how I could best remain focused on the Lord and anchored into His Will. The idea of the parables of our Lord entered my mind. More specifically, the idea of trying to live out one parable per day of our Lord as an anchoring practice of the Lord's Will. The 3rd Luminous mystery of the Holy Rosary is the Proclamation, or as I like to pray it: "Jesus teaches us the kingdom of God." He does this in many ways but perhaps most especially in his parables of the Gospels. They are like the Gold Plans for the Spiritual life given to us by God himself. The parables of Jesus Christ are timeless; never outdated. I realized this particular day that I don't think about them very much, other than when they come up in the Mass readings for the day. So, here is the clarity of the plan I came up with. 1. Focus on one parable of our Lord every day (Just 1 per day) make a cycle or a sweet rhythm to this. 2. This rhythm should be about enough for a 1month cycle. Why is this? In the synoptic Gospels; (Matthew, Mark and Luke) we can count a little over 30 unique parables of Jesus Christ, give or take. That's perfect for contemplating about 1 per day for the month and repeating this sweet routine! Why is this good? I can't think of a better way to actually welcome the seeds of our Lord's parables into my heart and let them be planted and grow by the Holy Spirit watering them in my mind in the context of my daily life experiences. Any good growth always begins with a new good habit.

Why do I believe this was a good clarity of a practice for my life? The Lord God knows that we have many things competing for the attention of our mind everyday. Even with the gift of prayer throughout the day, it is very helpful to be contemplating something in Holy Scripture. (and) for this type of practice, I can't imagine a better focus than the parables of Jesus Christ. I could try to think about all of them everyday, but I know that would quickly turn into thinking about none of them for it would be too much to actually focus on. But I can sure contemplate one parable per day as a sweet monthly routine! May the parables of Jesus Christ enrich and strengthen your focus on the Will of God today and all month long!

How do you find them? Read through the synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark and Luke) and mark them in your Bible, (or) look them up online to utilize a road map or guide to find them in the gospels. Sounds fun right? I think so! (and) Most bibles already have them labeled as parables!

What is the difference between our Lord using a parable or simply speaking directly in the Gospels? Parables occur when Jesus tells a story rather than speaking directly about a teaching and are usually labeled as such in our Gospels, such as "The Parable of the Sower" in Matthew 13. Just prior to that parable in Matthew 12, Jesus gives a teaching; "For whoever does the will of my Father in Heaven is my brother, and sister, and mother." (but in that case does not use a story-so it would not be a parable.) Hope that helps!

~Father Jim

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul harnesses the power of community and partnerships to feed, clothe, house and heal individuals and families in our community who have nowhere else to turn for help.

Our volunteer members — known as Vincentians — are women and men who are compelled by our Catholic Christian faith to serve those who are in need and suffering.

From rental assistance and homelessness prevention, to thrift stores and food pantries, to utility assistance and car repairs, we share our time and treasure with those who need help and hope. We believe EVERYONE deserves a fair chance at a bright future, regardless of income or life circumstances.

You can be a light in this season of darkness. The gifts we have, we are given to share — and we invite you to join us in a season of generosity. When you give to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you're giving love, help, and hope to our neighbors in need. Thank you for your prayers and generosity. THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Moses said to the people: "If only you would heed the voice of the LORD, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes that are written in this book of the law, when you return to the LORD, your God, with all your heart and all your soul. "For this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious and remote for you. It is not up in the sky, that you should say, 'Who will go up in the sky to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?' Nor is it across the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross the sea to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?' No, it is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out."

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 19 Michel Guimont

Your words, Lord, are spirit and life.

SECOND READING Colossians 1:15-20

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING Luke 10:25-37

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test him and said, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" He said in reply, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live." But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied, "A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and cared for him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.' Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
