PASTOR'S NOTES

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Pray your sufferings by naming them to the Lord in prayer.

In today's second reading from Colossians, Saint Paul says; "Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake." What does that mean to rejoice in his sufferings? St. Paul had a heart so conformed to Christ that his sufferings were offered all for the Kingdom of God. He was able to offer them immediately for the Lord no matter what they were. How was he able to do this? The Lord Jesus changed him from a man against the Will of God to a man completely conformed to the Heart of Christ. I love to contemplate how to become more like St. Paul. However, I am weak and have much to learn and many areas I need to grow in holiness each day. But I know it is the Holy Spirit who helps us in our weakness!

All growth begins with small but firm habits incorporated into our daily routine with the help of the Holy Spirit. I want to offer you one habit I find helpful that I have learned to do. You could call this prayer your "Saint Paul Bowl" or your "Rejoice in your daily sufferings bowl." I usually just call them, "praying my daily sufferings"...and I have found this to be a very good form of prayer. How do you do this? Simply find a few (perhaps 5) little crosses around your house or in your drawers and gather them into one place. Get a little bowl or container for them. Enter into some quiet time at the end of the day and contemplate your day. Try to think of 5 different sufferings you received in the day, big or small, and say, "Lord Jesus I love you, I desire a heart that is united to yours. You suffered unimaginably so that we could recover miraculously. In my weakness, I don't want crosses in my day, but they are there and I choose to pray them so that in some small way, I can be united to you." I then simply place one cross in the bowl as I name the suffering of the day. I like the number 5 for the 5 wounds of our Lord. When you pray them, try to forget them, never write them down, let them be offered and try not to complain about them later. I do this before Night Prayer, but you could simply pray an Our Father, and Act of Contrition, or a Hail Holy Queen prayer to conclude.

What are the fruits of this daily prayer? Our sufferings have an impact on our faith, the enemy wants us to turn away from Christ when we suffer, but the Lord calls us to pick up our cross and follow him on the path of light. This prayer has helped me over the years to see inconveniences and stumbling blocks in my day as opportunities for prayer. The crosses in a bowl method just makes it a very tangible way to do this prayer exercise. I also pray my joys every day! I love those and I have many! But I have learned to appreciate the need to pray my sufferings or inconveniences as well. Below is a photo from my kitchen table I took for this bulletin piece of my "Saint Paul Bowl."

Pro Tip: You can still pray asking the Lord to heal or remove sufferings you receive after having prayed them and seek to do better tomorrow so that whatever may have caused them is healed: But you can still pray them today! I'm never perfect at this prayer and you don't have to be either-but it is a gift you and I can give to the Lord in conformity with His Will! May your daily sufferings be light and easy to pray today.

Psalm 20:3,4 "May He remember all your offerings, and regard with favor your burnt sacrifices! May He grant you your hearts desire, and fulfill all your plans."

~Father Jim

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Genesis 18:1-10a

The LORD appeared to Abraham by the terebinth of Mamre, as he sat in the entrance of his tent, while the day was growing hot. Looking up, Abraham saw three men standing nearby. When he saw them, he ran from the entrance of the tent to greet them; and bowing to the ground, he said: "Sir, if I may ask you this favor, please do not go on past your servant. Let some water be brought, that you may bathe your feet, and then rest yourselves under the tree. Now that you have come this close to your servant, let me bring you a little food, that you may refresh yourselves; and afterward you may go on your way." The men replied, "Very well, do as you have said." Abraham hastened into the tent and told Sarah, "Quick, three measures of fine flour! Knead it and make rolls." He ran to the herd, picked out a tender, choice steer, and gave it to a servant, who quickly prepared it. Then Abraham got some curds and milk, as well as the steer that had been prepared, and set these before the three men; and he waited on them under the tree while they ate. They asked Abraham, "Where is your wife Sarah?" He replied, "There in the tent." One of them said, "I will surely return to you about this time next year, and Sarah will then have a son."

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 15

James Chepponis

He who does justice will live in the presence of God.

SECOND READING

Colossians 1:24-28

Brothers and sisters: Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ on behalf of his body, which is the church, of which I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God, the mystery hidden from ages and from generations past. But now it has been manifested to his holy ones, to whom God chose to make known the riches of the Glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; it is Christ in you, the hope for glory. It is he whom we proclaim, admonishing everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone perfect in Christ.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Luke 10:38-42

Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak. Martha, burdened with much serving, came to him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me." The Lord said to her in reply, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
