PASTOR'S NOTES

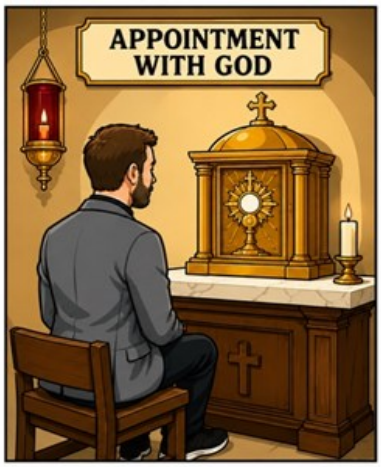

Make your daily Appointment with God

One of the most difficult things to do as a priest is to protect a daily Holy Hour. The reason is not that I don't love God. The reason is that priests are busy. Every day is filled with appointments, meetings, emergencies, phone calls, visits, and responsibilities. Life changes constantly, and before long it can feel almost impossible to find one uninterrupted hour before the Tabernacle apart from Holy Mass and the ordinary prayers of the day.

Last week, I prayed about this and the Holy Spirit gave me a simple clarity that changed the way I look at my schedule. I realized that my calendar is filled with appointments and meetings with other people and I wondered... "Why don't I treat my Holy Hour the same way? Why isn't it in my phone calendar like all the other appointments I'm obliged to be present for? -God is infinitely more important than every meeting on my calendar, I thought, yet He is also infinitely patient. -He doesn't demand my attention. He waits... Somehow, everyone else's appointments became fixed, while my appointment with the Creator of the universe became optional? -That realization convicted me. If I truly want to love God, then my appointment with Him must become the most important appointment of my day. So, I made one simple change.

(The change) -The day before, I pray about tomorrow. I look at my schedule and ask, "Lord, where can I spend one uninterrupted hour with You?" Then I put that Holy Hour into my calendar just like every other appointment. I protect it. I plan around it. I arrive early and label it: "Appointment with God." It has a time and a location... just like all the other appointments of the day. Then I came up with another image in prayer that really resonated: Before entering the church for Holy Hour; I stop before a statue of the Blessed Mother and quietly say, "Blessed Mother, I'm here for my appointment with your Son." It was scheduled yesterday for 7:00PM today- I picture her checking me in. Then, I wait quietly until the appointed time begins, enter the church, and simply sit before Jesus in silence for my Appointment. I let whatever thoughts and prayers come to me be part of the meeting. Such a simple adjustment in my priorities has fixed a major lacking area for me. Don't let God become your last priority. If your prayer takes place before the Blessed Sacrament, in a quiet church, or in the silence of your home, make your appointment with God first. Write a time and a place the day before. You and I both need it daily! You don't have to do the same as a priest does, but I bet you could use a daily appointment with the creator of the universe too!

Please pray for Marie Demalon and all our faithful departed, that the purgative love of Jesus Christ will make them perfect in heaven as they look forward to the resurrection of the body.

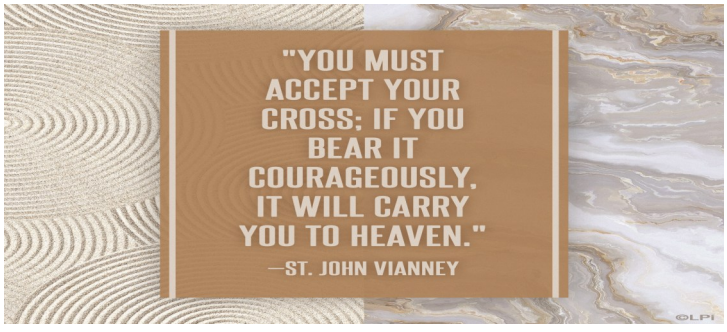

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Please join us for the Divine Mercy Chaplet Monday through Friday at 3:00 pm at Immaculate Conception Church. We start with Divine Mercy Chaplet then followed by additional prayers. All are welcome!

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Our active participation is 18.6% (438 donors).

Total pledged is $161,088.00 which is 98% of our Diocesan Target of $164,426.00.

We need $3,338.00 to make our Diocesan Goal.

Immaculate Conception Parish has been a part of our community for over 150 years. The stories of our families are entwined in the story of our church; from baptisms & weddings to funerals and holidays, our church has been an integral part of our lives. It is our responsibility to maintain our property so that Immaculate Conception Parish can continue to be our home for our faith, a place for fellowship and a part of our community for many years. Our 2026 DLA projects this year are centered on repairs & improvements to our buildings so we can continue to serve our parishioners.

Our list of current parish projects are estimated to cost approximately $150,000.00

THE EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

August 2, 2026 - Order of the Mass

VOCATIONS PRAYER

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN — Shepherd of Souls

Text: James Montgomery, 1771–1854, alt.
Tune: ST. AGNES, CM; John B. Dykes, 1823–1876; harm. by Richard Proulx, 1937–2010

Text: ICEL, © 2010
Music: Congregational Mass; John Lee, revised by Ronald F. Krisman, © 1970, 2011, GIA Publications, Inc.

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading — Isaiah 55:1-3

Thus says the LORD: All you who are thirsty, come to the water!
You who have no money,
come, receive grain and eat;
Come, without paying and without cost,
drink wine and milk!
Why spend your money for what is not bread; your wages for what fails to satisfy?
Heed me, and you shall eat well,
you shall delight in rich fare.
Come to me heedfully,
listen, that you may have life.
I will renew with you the everlasting covenant, the benefits assured to David.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm — Psalm 145

Michel Guimont

The hand of the Lord feeds us;
he answers all our needs.

Second Reading — Romans 8:35, 37-39

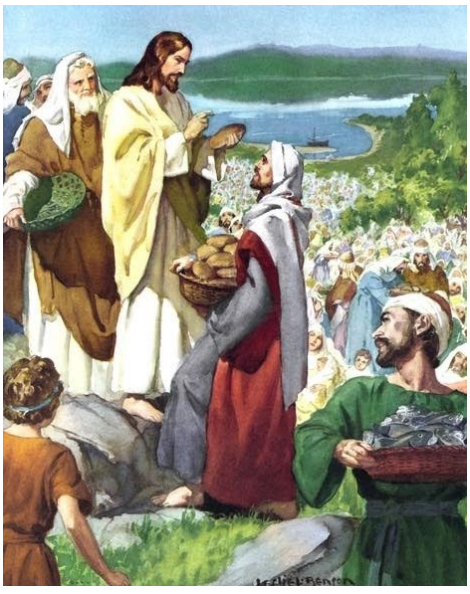

Brothers and sisters: What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine,
or nakedness, or peril, or the sword?
No, in all these things we conquer
Overwhelmingly through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities,
nor present things, nor future things,
nor powers, nor height, nor depth,
nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading — Matthew 14:13-21

When Jesus heard of the death of John the Baptist, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. The crowds heard of this and followed him on foot from their towns.
When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples approached him and said, “This is a deserted place and it is already late; dismiss the crowds so that they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves.” Jesus said to them, “There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves.” But they said to him, “Five loaves and two fish are all we have here.” Then he said, “Bring them here to me,” and he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds. They all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments left over— twelve wicker baskets full.
Those who ate were about five thousand men, not counting women and children.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Creed

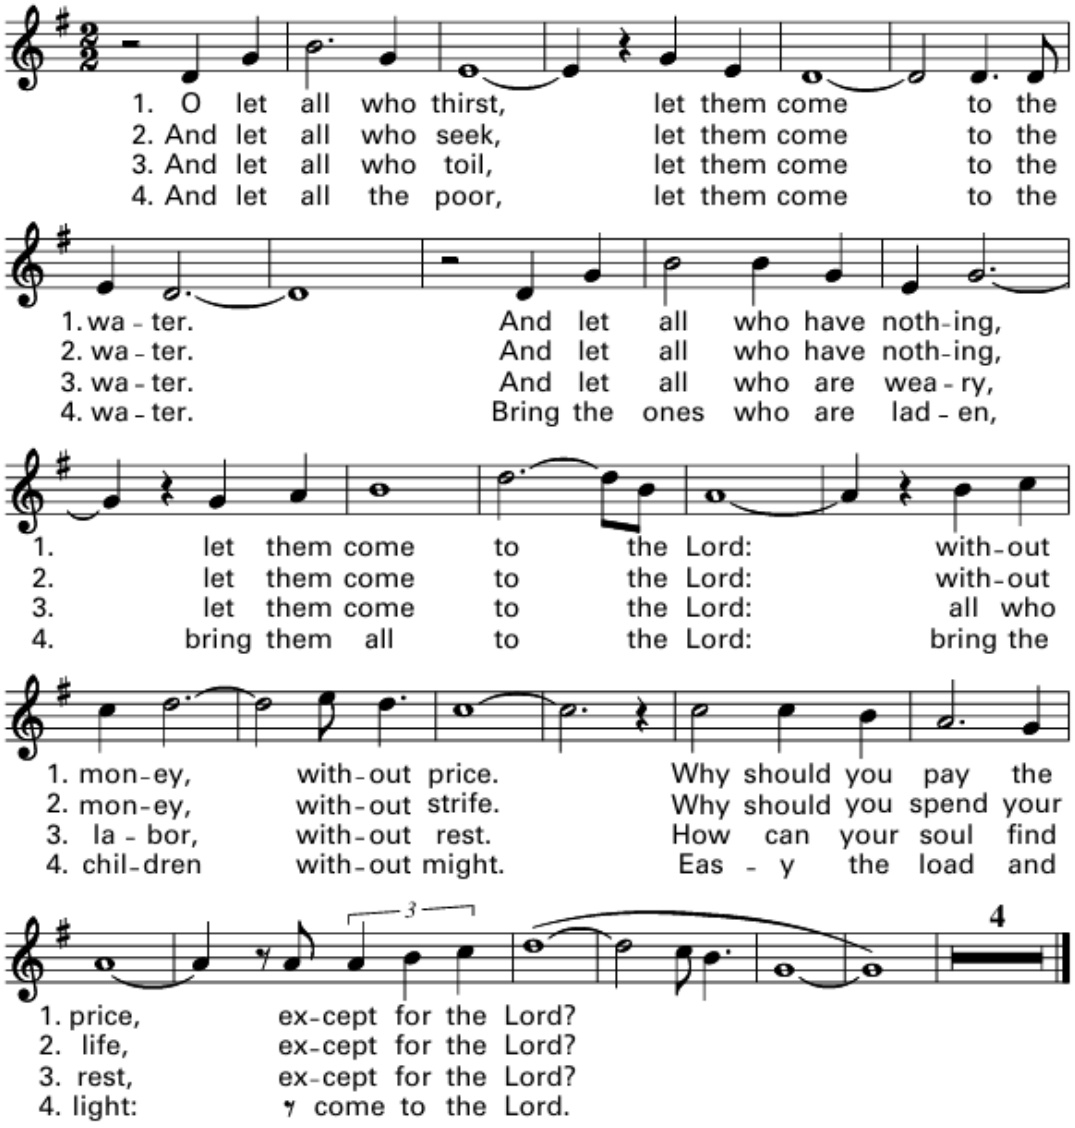

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
