PASTOR'S NOTES

Who Is My Guardian Angel? The Church does not teach that I am required to think about my guardian angel. However, the Church clearly teaches that devotion to the holy angels is good and beneficial for us in faith.

Throughout the Bible, angels appear as God's faithful messengers and servants, carrying out His holy will. One of the greatest examples is the Archangel Gabriel announcing to the Blessed Virgin Mary that she would become the Mother of our Lord.

Over the centuries, theologians and saints have reflected more deeply on what it means that each person is entrusted to the care of a guardian angel. Rather than exploring every theological detail, I'd like to keep the focus simple and practical.

The Church teaches that, by the mysterious will of God, each one of us has been entrusted to a guardian angel whose mission is to help lead us toward heaven. Your guardian angel serves God perfectly and therefore is far more powerful than the enemy. The angel's strength does not come from himself but from the Lord whom he faithfully serves. Nothing is stronger than God's will.

Because God respects our freedom, we can ignore this tremendous gift. We can go through life without ever thinking about our guardian angel. Yet God, in His goodness, still lovingly works through His creatures. Throughout salvation history, God delights in drawing heaven and earth together as He carries out His plan.

A guardian angel is not God. Angels are pure spirits, possessing intellect and will, free from the weaknesses and limitations of our human nature. They remain mysterious beings, and the Church wisely does not claim to explain everything about them. Wherever God has revealed something, we receive it with gratitude. Wherever He has remained silent, we receive that mystery with humility.
So what is a good practice? Spend a few moments each day acknowledging your guardian angel. It can be as simple as saying: "Holy Angel of God, I love you. With the Lord's permission, please watch over me. Present my prayers before Almighty God. Help me to pray well, to avoid sin, and to grow in holiness." Then simply ask for whatever spiritual help you need that day.

One important caution: do not attempt to give your guardian angel a personal name. Throughout Scripture, giving a name often signifies authority or dominion, and the holy angels are not under our authority. They are glorious servants of God who lovingly carry out His will for our salvation.
May your guardian angel lead you to God's Will today.

Special thanks to all who have made your DLA 2026 donation so far! I am so happy to report we have passed our target! (and) have now reached the golden window in which all DLA 26 donations until the end of the year remain 100% in our parish! Help me get to our overall parish goal! Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

OUR FOUNDATION * OUR FUTURE

We have made our diocesan goal of $164,426.00!

We are in the Golden Window

Now every penny we raise above our diocesan goal is ASSESMENT FREE, which means 100 % of those dollars remain here at Immaculate Conception Parish until December 31, 2026! We need $94,678.00 to make our PARISH GOAL!

Immaculate Conception Parish has been a part of our community for over 150 years. The stories of our families are entwined in the story of our church; from baptisms & weddings to funerals and holidays, our church has been an integral part of our lives. It is our responsibility to maintain our property so that Immaculate Conception Parish can continue to be our home for our faith, a place for fellowship and a part of our community for many years. Our 2026 DLA projects this year are centered on repairs & improvements to our buildings so we can continue to serve our parishioners.

Thank you to all who have already given a gift to the 2026 Diocesan Lenten Appeal and to those who will give a gift.

How to Give to DLA

By Check - Please write check payable to Diocese of Greensburg/IC parish & use the form mailed to you from the Diocese.

Online - The quickest way to donate is to visit dioceseofgreensburg.org/DLA2026 or use the QR Code below

Prayer in Faith in Trial

Dear God, In this time of difficulty, be with me. When I don't feel Your presence or hear Your voice, sustain me. When I don't see the path ahead, guide me. When I don't know the next step, support me. In every day and in every moment, be my strength. Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Vocations Prayer

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading — 1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13a

At the mountain of God, Horeb, Elijah came to a cave where he took shelter. Then the LORD said to him, "Go outside and stand on the mountain before the LORD; the LORD will be passing by." A strong and heavy wind was rending the mountains and crushing rocks before the LORD— but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake— but the LORD was not in the earthquake. After the earthquake there was fire— but the LORD was not in the fire. After the fire there was a tiny whispering sound. When he heard this, Elijah hid his face in his cloak and went and stood at the entrance of the cave.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm — Psalm 85

Paul French

Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Second Reading — Romans 9:1-5

Brothers and sisters: I speak the truth in Christ, I do not lie; my conscience joins with the Holy Spirit in bearing me witness that I have great sorrow and constant anguish in my heart. For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh. They are Israelites; theirs the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; theirs the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, is the Christ, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading — Matthew 14:22-33

After he had fed the people, Jesus made the disciples get into a boat and precede him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. After doing so, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When it was evening he was there alone. Meanwhile the boat, already a few miles offshore, was being tossed about by the waves, for the wind was against it. During the fourth watch of the night, he came toward them walking on the sea. When the disciples saw him walking on the sea they were terrified. "It is a ghost," they said, and they cried out in fear. At once Jesus spoke to them, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." Peter said to him in reply, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" After they got into the boat, the wind died down. Those who were in the boat did him homage, saying, "Truly, you are the Son of God."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Creed

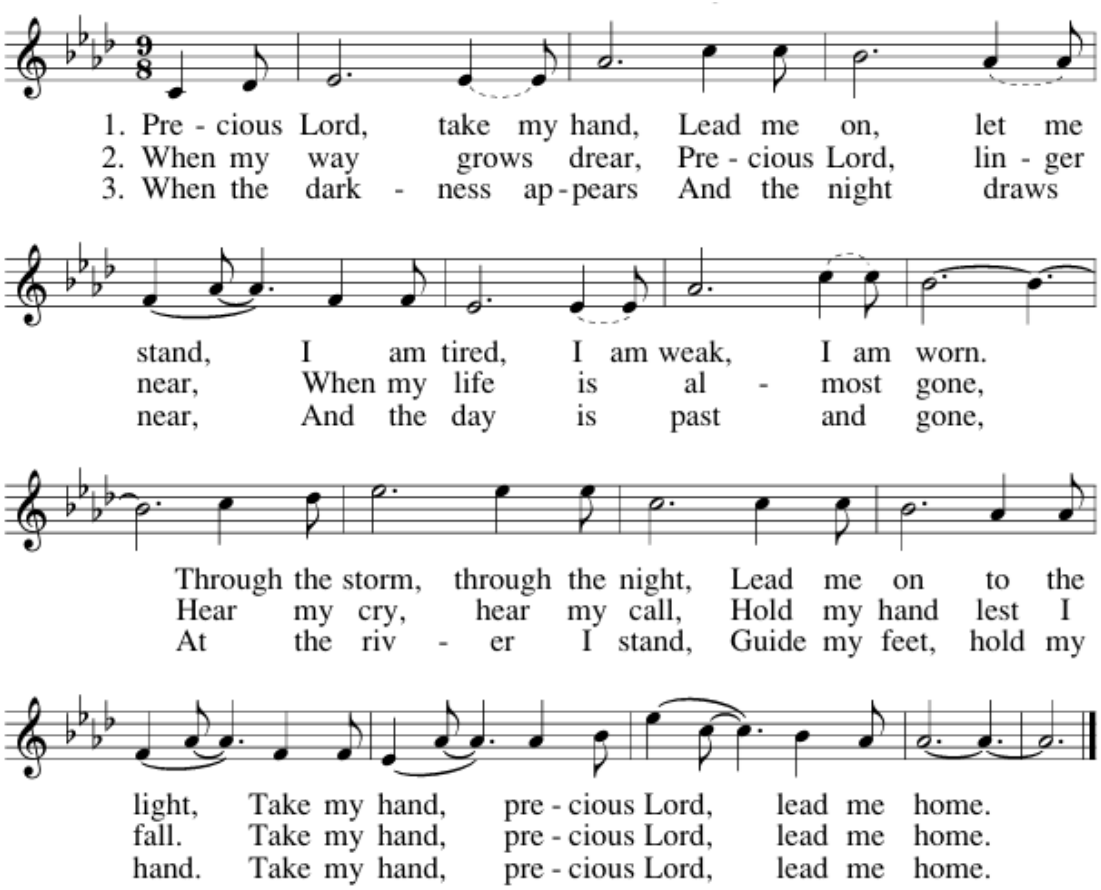

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
