PASTOR'S NOTES

Sometimes when I read Holy Scripture, the message is clear to me. Other times, especially in the Old Testament prophets and even in some of the New Testament, like in the book of Revelation, I just don't see any connection to my life …or any point that's helpful to my relationship with God? Have you felt this way?

A Baking Analogy

Sacred Scripture is like the raw ingredients given to us by God that we need in order to bake the meals of clarity in our lives. The ingredients have all been inspired by God. The Head Cook is always the Holy Spirit. The meal always points to the person of Jesus Christ, the Word made Flesh. The Priest or Deacon who preaches on this word of God at Mass or elsewhere works in the Holy Spirit's Kitchen. We also participate in the Holy Spirit's kitchen when we read our Bible at home and prayerfully engage with the word of God with proper Catholic tools/utensils by our side, like the Catechism!

What do I mean by raw ingredients? The Bible, without anything else, can be like eating the raw ingredients of a meal when we read many sections. It's a library spanning thousands of years of revelation inspired by the Holy Spirit through human language. Even great ingredients like Raw Flour, Baking Soda or Vanilla extract taste bad by themselves, but added to the right meal, become great! The best spices need to be part of the larger meal. That's Scripture; a collection of 73 books all containing ingredients the Holy Spirit gave to make all the meals we need prepared by the Church our Lord instituted.

This is the relationship between Sacred Scripture and Tradition or Teachings of the Church. The Tradition contains the meals that have been prepared from the ingredients of Scripture over time by the Holy Spirit's Inspiration. The Meals (Tradition) are nothing without the ingredients (Scripture) and the ingredients (Scripture) aren't ready to eat before they are prepared into a meal by the Church.

Amen.

St. Monica's Tears

A Holy Hour for Our Wayward Children

Date: Tuesday, August 25, 2026

Time: 7:00 PM

Location: Ascension Church, 615 Division Street, Jeannette, PA

We invite you to a Holy Hour to pray for our children and loved ones who have left the Church.

We pray especially for those who were hurt by Christ's ministers and struggle to forgive.

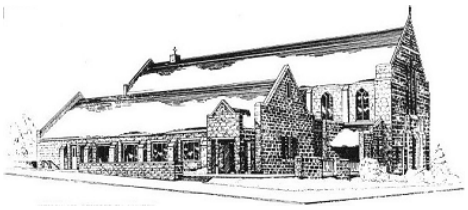

We pray for those who have gone lukewarm and have forgotten the Lord.

We pray for those who have been attracted to other religions, perhaps because it is easier, or more fun.

We pray for those who are burdened by sins and do not understand that the forgiveness of Christ is far greater than their sins.

Like St. Monica, whose persistent prayers and tears for over twenty years were answered in the conversion of her son, St. Augustine, we gather tonight to place our heartaches, hopes, and children into the merciful hands of Our Lord.

VOCATIONS PRAYER

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN — The Church's One Foundation

AURELIA

Text: 76 76 D; Samuel J. Stone, 1839–1900. Music: Samuel S. Wesley, 1810–1876.

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading — Isaiah 22:19-23

Thus says the LORD to Shebna, master of the palace: "I will thrust you from your Office and pull you down from your station. On that day I will summon my Servant Eliakim, son of Hilkiah; I will clothe him with your robe, and gird him with your sash, and give over to him your authority. He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. I will place the key of the House of David on Eliakim's shoulder; when he opens, no one shall shut when he shuts, no one shall open. I will fix him like a peg in a sure spot, to be a place of honor for his family."

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm — Psalm 138

Michel Guimont

Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands.

Second Reading — Romans 11:33-36

Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How inscrutable are his judgments and how unsearchable his ways! For who has known the mind of the Lord or who has been his counselor? Or who has given the Lord anything that he may be repaid? For from him and through him and for him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading — Matthew 16:13-20

Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi and he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" They replied, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus said to him in reply, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." Then he strictly ordered his disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Creed

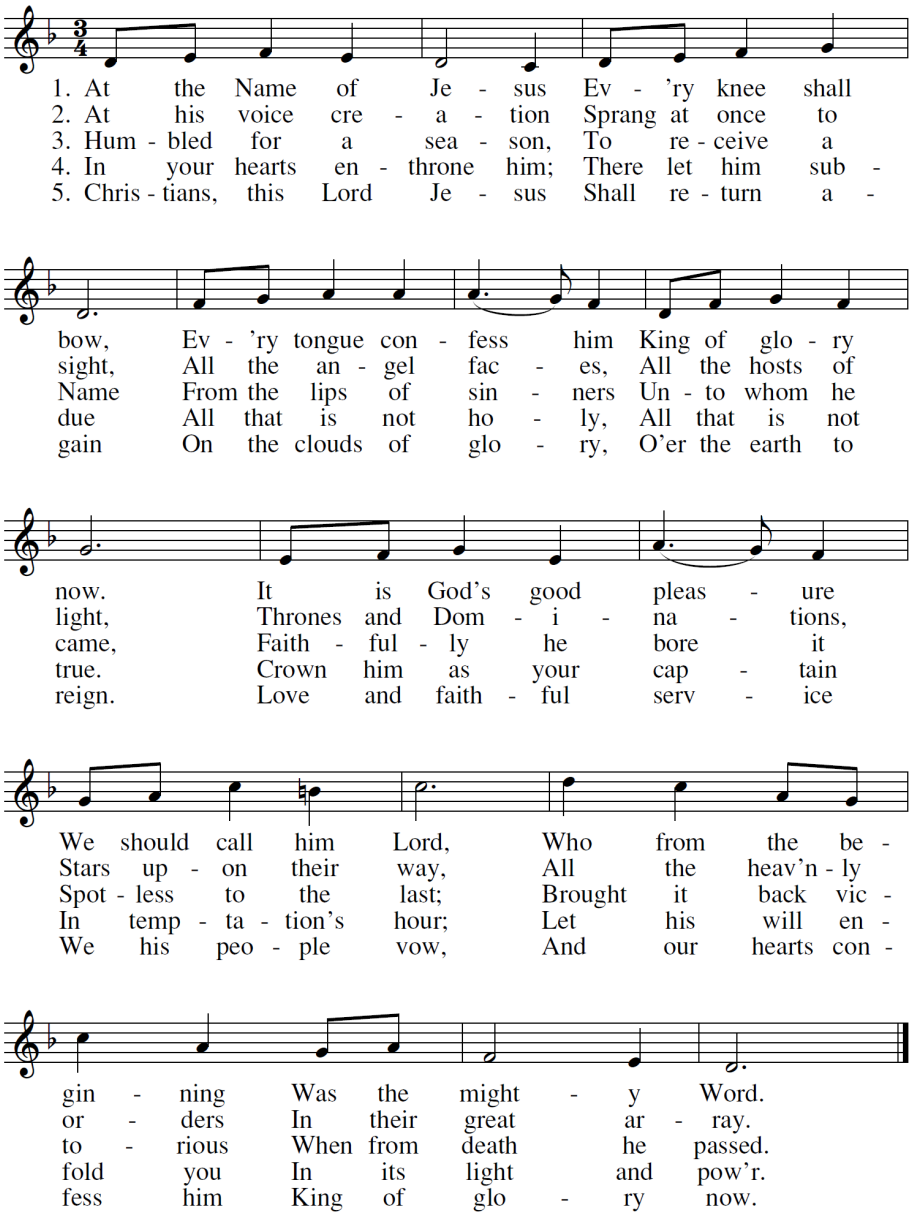

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
