PASTOR'S NOTES

Every Sunday at Mass, the readings can sound like the same recipe. We get an Old Testament reading, sing a Psalm, hear a few pious words from St. Paul, sing the Alleluia, hear the Gospel, and then listen to a homily about them. And we might think: "Isn't this basically the same thing we hear every Sunday? If the message is always to strive to do better, repent of sinful ways, turn toward the mercy and grace of the Lord, ask forgiveness when we fail, and embrace the Sacraments—why do we need to hear it over and over again? If you've ever thought that, welcome to the club.

But the repetition is the point. God knows we need something stable to hear—something that remains the same in a constantly changing world. That's why he gave us his enduring word. The rhythm of the readings at Mass is supposed to be just that: a rhythm that doesn't change. There is eternal beauty in its ordinary language. We aren't coming to Mass each week for something new. We are being pulled back into something timeless, and the treasures within the ordinary sound of scripture convert us to what is most special; God's Will.

It wasn't until I stopped trying to make every reading interesting to my earthly mind that I began to find peace in the ordinary. Think about that for a moment in a fast paced changing world-God's word in Scripture will never change. We can rest in this reality. It's an anchor to hold onto.

This Sunday is a good example. We get Jeremiah—which is a nice change since it seems like Isaiah shows up every other week--another passage from Romans, and another passage from Matthew. But listen to the rhythm underneath them.

Jeremiah describes God's Word as a fire burning within him. St. Paul tells us, "Do not conform yourselves to this age, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind." Jesus then tells us to deny ourselves, take up our cross, and follow Him.

The Rhythm: God calls us, changes us if we allow him and asks us to follow in his ways. Simple and unchanging in every generation.

OUR FOUNDATION * OUR FUTURE

We have made our diocesan goal of $164,426.00!

We are in the Golden Window

Now every penny we raise above our diocesan goal is ASSESMENT FREE, which means 100 % of those dollars remain here at Immaculate Conception Parish until December 31, 2026!

We need $87,613.00 to make our PARISH GOAL!

Immaculate Conception Parish has been a part of our community for over 150 years. The stories of our families are entwined in the story of our church; from baptisms & weddings to funerals and holidays, our church has been an integral part of our lives. It is our responsibility to maintain our property so that Immaculate Conception Parish can continue to be our home for our faith, a place for fellowship and a part of our community for many years. Our 2026 DLA projects this year are centered on repairs & improvements to our buildings so we can continue to serve our parishioners.

Thank you to all who have already given a gift to the 2026 Diocesan Lenten Appeal and to those who will give a gift.

THE TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

August 30, 2026 - Order of the Mass

VOCATIONS PRAYER

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN — Lift High the Cross

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading — Jeremiah 20:7-9

You duped me, O LORD,
and I let myself be duped;
you were too strong for me,
and you triumphed.
All the day I am an object of laughter;
everyone mocks me.
Whenever I speak, I must cry out,
violence and outrage is my message;
the word of the LORD has brought me
derision and reproach all the day.
I say to myself, I will not mention him,
I will speak in his name no more.
But then it becomes like fire
burning in my heart,
imprisoned in my bones;
I grow weary holding it in,
I cannot endure it.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm — Psalm 63

Michel Guimont

My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

Second Reading — Romans 12:1-2

I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship. Do not conform yourselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading — Matthew 16:21-27

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly from the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised. Then Peter took Jesus aside and began to rebuke him, "God forbid, Lord!
No such thing shall ever happen to you."
He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? Or what can one give in exchange for his life? For the Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father's glory, and then he will repay all according to his conduct."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Creed

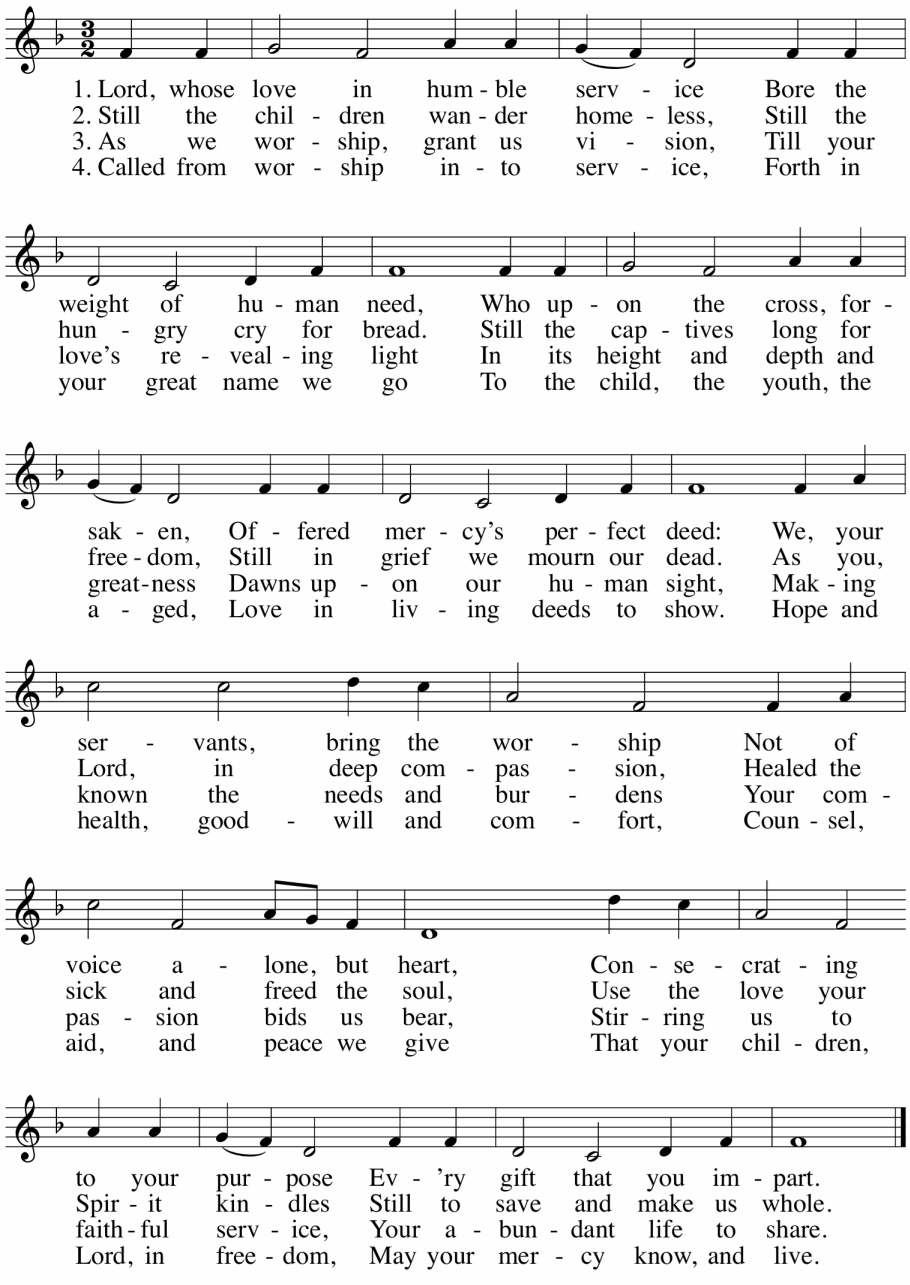

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
