PASTOR'S NOTES

Make One Gospel Your Prayer Book This Month

The Gospels of Jesus Christ are amazing—and yet, I probably spend less time simply praying with them than I do with almost any other form of prayer. Granted, priests don't promise to pray the Gospels daily like we do the Liturgy of the Hours but this is a real need to know our Lord. There is something different about sitting with Christ's own words, watching what He does, noticing how He communicates with people, and allowing ourselves to remain there with Him...to Hear Him daily.

But here is the problem I sometimes encounter—maybe you do too. I open the Gospels to pray, and almost immediately I think, I already know this story. Or I get the feeling that I should be doing something else—something more structured, more productive, or somehow more "prayerful." If you experience that, push back against that idea like I need too.

The Gospels are for prayer. They are not a classroom book for the semester to complete.

Of course we study them. We learn theology from them. The Church is formed by them. We hear them proclaimed at Mass. But Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John are also places where we encounter Jesus Christ. We don't need to analyze every verse or figure something out. We just need to spend time in them. So here is my challenge for September—Join me if you like!

Choose one Gospel; Matthew, Mark, Luke or John (Only One) and make it your prayer book for the September.

Continue praying your daily Rosary or other foundational prayers important to your life but perhaps replace some of those extras with a Gospel! And stick with that one Gospel. It is your prayer book. Don't worry about finishing it. Don't worry about how many chapters you read. Read slowly enough that when something catches your attention, you can stop. Stay there. Talk to the Lord about it. Listen. Let yourself become familiar again not merely with a Gospel story, but with Jesus Himself.

DLA UPDATE

Thank you to all who have already given a gift to the 2026 Diocesan Lenten Appeal and to those who will give a gift.

Labor Day Blessing

Dear God, We thank You for this Labor Day. Bless the men and women who serve in our workforce, and grant them strength and protection in their work. Bless, too, those who courageously seek to build fairer and more just working environments for all our brothers and sisters. Bless all of us as we gather to rest and recreate during this holiday weekend.
Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation

September 1 marks the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation and begins the Season of Creation, which continues through October 4, the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi. As Christians, we recognize the world around us as a gift from God. Scripture reminds us that creation belongs to Him and that we are called to receive it with gratitude and care for it responsibly. This year's theme, "Living Water," draws from Ezekiel 47, where life flourishes wherever the water flowing from God's sanctuary goes. May this season renew our gratitude to God for the beauty of creation and strengthen our commitment to be good stewards of the gifts He has entrusted to us. (Information submitted by Sr. Edie and the creation care team)

The Catholic Foundation for the Diocese of Greensburg

1. What is a Qualified Charitable Distribution?

A Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) is a direct transfer of funds from an eligible IRA to a qualified charitable organization. If you are age 70½ or older, you may be able to direct money from your IRA directly to a qualified charity without having the distribution included in your taxable income, provided all IRS requirements are met. For 2026, the annual QCD exclusion limit is $111,000 per individual.

2. Why might a QCD be attractive to a charitable donor?

A QCD may provide an opportunity to support the Church with IRA assets while potentially reducing taxable income.

3. Does a QCD count toward my Required Minimum Distribution?

Yes. If you are required to take an RMD, a properly completed QCD can satisfy all or part of that requirement. For example: Your RMD is $10,000. You direct $10,000 from your IRA directly to your parish as a QCD. The $10,000 QCD can satisfy your RMD, assuming all requirements are met.

4. Can I make a QCD to my parish to support my Parish Lenten Appeal or Parish Endowment Fund?

Potentially, yes, provided the recipient is an eligible charitable organization and the gift is structured to satisfy the IRS requirements.

5. What should I do if I am interested in making a QCD? (Consider these steps)

- Contact your IRA administrator and inform them of your wish to make a Qualified Charitable Distribution directly to the Catholic Foundation appropriate parish charitable entity.
-Contact the Catholic Foundation for the Diocese of Greensburg at 724-552-2587 to ensure your gift is directed according to your wishes.

Important Disclaimer: This educational material is intended for general informational purposes and is not tax, legal, or financial advice. QCD rules and individual tax circumstances vary. Donors should consult their tax advisor, financial advisor, and/or legal counsel before making a charitable distribution from an IRA.

Vocations Prayer

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Ezekiel 33:7-9

Thus says the LORD: You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel; when you hear me say anything, you shall warn them for me. If I tell the wicked, "O wicked one, you shall surely die, " and you do not speak out to dissuade the wicked from his way, the wicked shall die for his guilt, but I will hold you responsible for his death. But if you warn the wicked, trying to turn him from his way, and he refuses to turn from his way, he shall die for his guilt, but you shall save yourself.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 95

John Schiavone

If today you hear God's voice, harden not your hearts.

SECOND READING Romans 13:8-10

Brothers and sisters: Owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery; you shall not kill; you shall not steal; you shall not covet, " and whatever other commandment there may be, are summed up in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING Matthew 18:15-20

Jesus said to his disciples: "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother. If he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, so that 'every fact may be established on the testimony of two or three witnesses.' If he refuses to listen to them, tell the church. If he refuses to listen even to the church, then treat him as you would a Gentile or a tax collector. Amen, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again, amen, I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I with them."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
