PASTOR'S NOTES

The New Testament. How did we get it?

The New Testament gives us the Good News, the Gospel of Jesus Christ, crucified and risen from the dead, and the fulfillment of God's promise to draw humanity into a new and everlasting Covenant with Him. A promise foreseen by the prophets of the Old Testament.

The books of the Old Testament already existed and formed the Scriptures of the Jewish faith into which Jesus was born according to God's plan. Jesus knew these Scriptures, quoted them, prayed them, and fulfilled them. But when Jesus walked the earth, the New Testament did not yet exist. The Gospels, the letters of Saint Paul, Acts and Revelation had not yet been written.

First came Jesus Christ Himself. Then came the Apostles, their preaching, the life and worship of the early Church, and the handing on of what Christ had taught them. From within that living apostolic Church, the books that we now call the New Testament were gradually written during the first century. Later, the Church formally recognized which of those writings belonged to the inspired collection we now call the Bible. But how did the Church discern this?

The Bishops of the early Church did not simply sit down and choose the books they personally liked best. Rather, they collectively recognized and discerned the writings that were already being handed on, copied, read, preached from, and used in the worship of Christian communities. They had to consider whether a writing came from an Apostle or someone closely connected to the Apostles, whether it was widely received and used by Christian communities, particularly in worship, and whether its teaching was consistent with the apostolic faith the Church had already received from the Apostles and had been teaching.

This process took time. Some books were accepted very early and widely, while others were debated in different parts of the Christian world. Eventually, through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the Church formally recognized the books that belonged to Sacred Scripture. The Church did not make these books inspired; The Holy Spirit did that. Rather, the Church was given the responsibility of discerning and recognizing which writings God had inspired and entrusted to His people. That collection of inspired writings is what we now hold in our hands and call the New Testament conclusion to the Word of God we call the Bible.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. THE TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

September 13, 2026 - Order of the Mass

VOCATIONS PRAYER

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN — Rejoice! The Lord is King

Text: Charles Wesley, 1707–1788, alt.
Tune: DARWALL'S 148TH, 6 6 6 6 with refrain; John Darwall, 1731–1789; harm. from The Hymnal 1940

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading — Sirach 27:30—28:7

Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight. The vengeful will suffer the LORD's vengeance, for he remembers their sins in detail. Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven. Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the LORD? Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself, can he seek pardon for his own sins? If one who is but flesh cherishes wrath, who will forgive his sins? Remember your last days, set enmity aside; remember death and decay, and cease from sin! Think of the commandments, hate not your neighbor; remember the Most High's covenant, and overlook faults.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm — Psalm 103

Marty Haugen

The Lord is kind and merciful.

Second Reading — Romans 14:7-9

Brothers and sisters: None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. For this is why Christ died and came to life, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading — Matthew 18:21-35

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times. That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants. When he began the accounting, a debtor was brought before him who owed him a huge amount. Since he had no way of paying it back, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife, his children, and all his property, in payment of the debt. At that, the servant fell down, did him homage, and said, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back in full.' Moved with compassion the master of that servant let him go and forgave him the loan. When that servant had left, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a much smaller amount. He seized him and started to choke him, demanding, 'Pay back what you owe.' Falling to his knees, his fellow servant begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.' But he refused. Instead, he had the fellow servant put in prison until he paid back the debt. Now when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were deeply disturbed, and went to their master and reported the whole affair. His master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?' Then in anger his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt. So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Creed

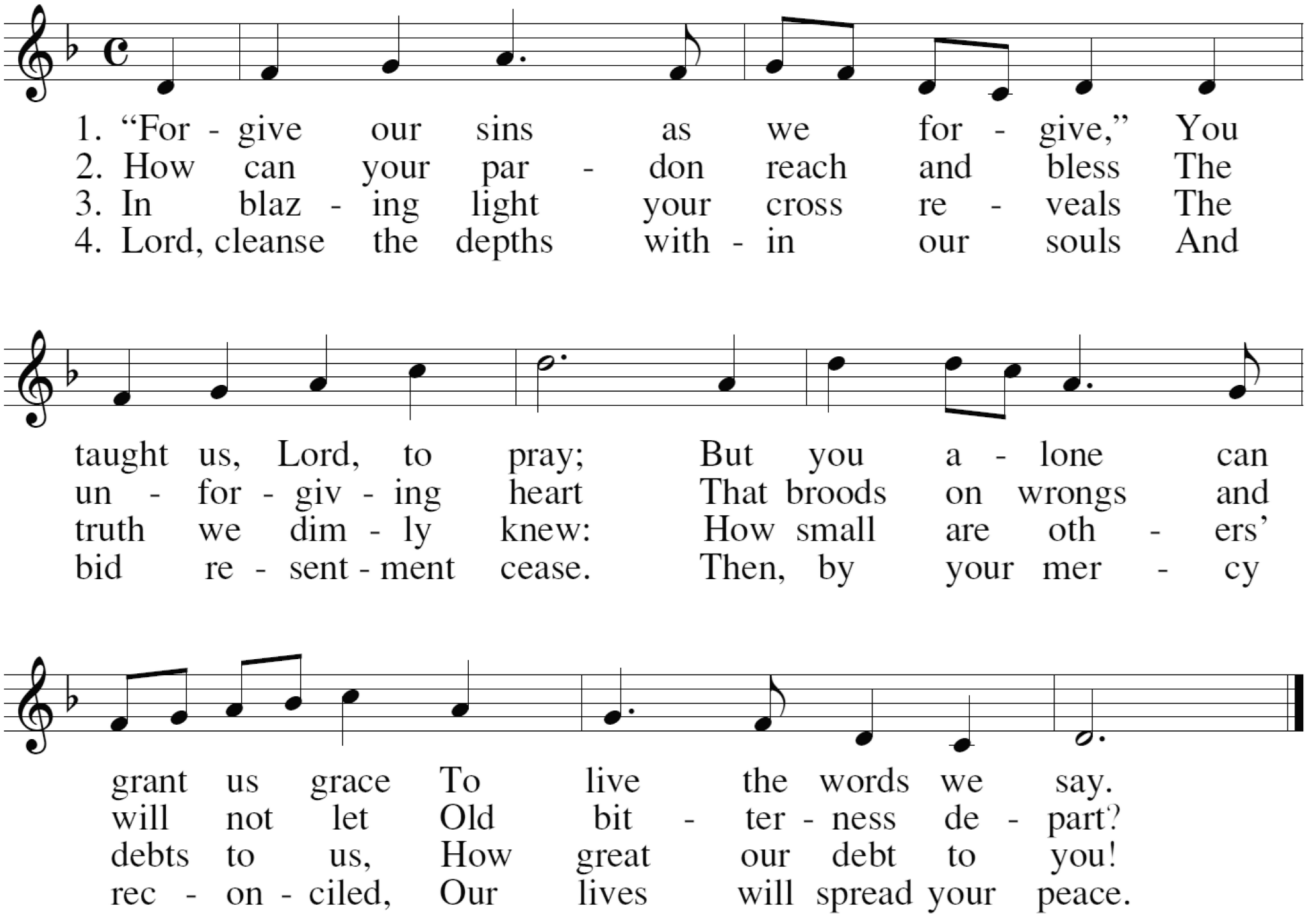

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
