PASTOR'S NOTES

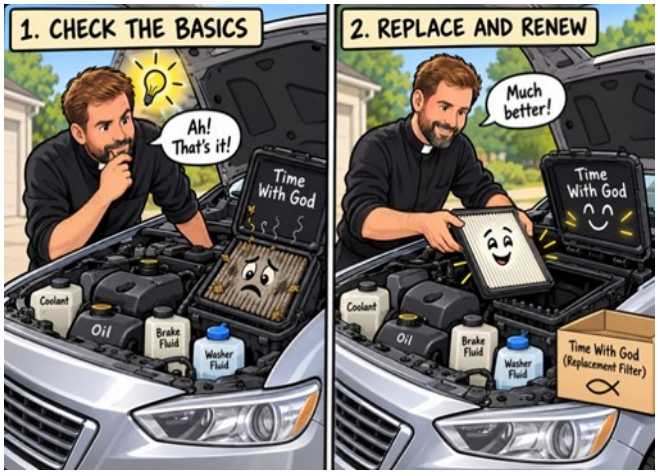

Always check the basic things first. A very common difficulty for Catholics who experience new seasons of tension in their lives is that they panic. Using myself as an example, I get rattled easily and go too far trying to figure out God: Why has He removed His favor? What progress have I failed to make that He is angry with me about? What am I neglecting that is stirring up the wrath of God? I don't say it out loud like that, but I inadvertently begin thinking in those terms.

Now, as a priest who falls into these traps regularly, let me help you—and myself—overcome these false questions. The solution is surprisingly simple: When God is not providing what you have grown used to, and your season of life has gotten noticeably more tense, always check the basics first.

What are the basics? Go into prayer in front of the tabernacle and think about the last time you experienced God's favor. What was your daily prayer life like then? Have you started skipping things that were good for you? Perhaps you were making 30 minutes a day unwaveringly in silent prayer, and you started skipping it because work got harder. Perhaps you were talking to Jesus about your life every day, and you simply stopped because you got tired of it.

There is one thing I am sure of: the best filter to check and see if it needs attention is your time with God. Not words—time. Let's use an example. If you were praying two Rosaries a day for four months and it just wasn't feasible to continue that form of prayer, don't necessarily return to two Rosaries just yet. Instead ask yourself: What did I replace those 22 minutes with that used to be my second Rosary? If the answer is, "Well, surfing the internet for golf gear," or anything else—hold that thought. God doesn't miss your words. He misses your time!

That's a human way of saying it, but it resonates with us. God is Love and the source and sustainer of our life, and by His amazing mystery, He wants to spend time alone with us. And it is the easiest thing to skip. Why? Because He doesn't demand it like other people in our lives do. He calls through signs and internally, through the whisper of the Holy Spirit. But we feel it when we have backed away from quality time with our Father. And there are so many ways we can use that time. We just have to be alone with Him and seek to know Him. In my experience, the negative effects of spending less time with God don't show up right away, it takes a few weeks or longer for God is patient with us. Good habits are hard to form and bad habits are hard to break. But let's check our basics today!

Water Is Precious

The theme for the Season of Creation this year (September 1 – October 4) is "Living Water". Much of our country is very blessed with water, but we use twice the global average, more than 2200 gallons per day per person! Most of that goes to beef production and cooling power plants. Household use averages about 150 gallons a day. What makes water so precious? Over 70% of the earth's surface is covered in water, but only 3% of it is fresh water. 66% of the fresh water is frozen in glaciers and polar ice caps, leaving only 1% of the Earth's water for us. And sadly about 95% of that water goes directly down the drain. Meanwhile one in eight people worldwide do not have access to clean drinking water. When you and I change our habits around water, we can make a difference. Sponsored by the Creation Care Team, written by Dave Wasil and Sister Edie Strong, SC

A Note about our Mass Setting

Fall is always a time of new beginnings – the start of the school year, the first weeks of choir rehearsals, the beginning of sports seasons, when I start to look for the soup recipes I saved all summer long – and in my liturgical planning, it is also the time of year when we change up the Mass setting.

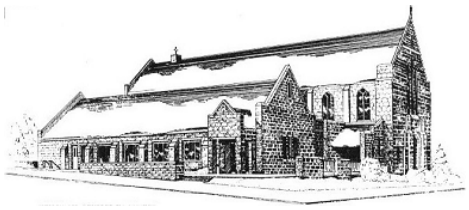

Our Mass setting is the music that we use during the Eucharistic Prayer (Holy, Holy, Holy, Mystery of Faith, Great Amen, and Lamb of God). For the fall we will be returning to New Plainsong III by David Hurd. Plainsong is the liturgical chant of the Roman Catholic Church. (You may be more familiar with the term Gregorian Chant and the story of the dove whispering the melodies into St. Pope Gregory the Great's ear!). In its simplest form, plainsong is one line of music in free rhythm that is meant to highlight the text. Chant served a practical purpose in the early church. Without modern amplification, it was much easier to hear words that were sung to congregations as opposed to just spoken word. The melodies are intended to highlight the text and mimic the patterns of spoken language.

David Hurd is Organist and Choirmaster at The Church of St. Mary the Virgin in Times Square and is widely recognized as one of the most influential modern church musicians. He says about the New Plainsong Mass, "it was my intention to continue in the tradition of ancient monophonic [one line] liturgical song while providing melodic forms which are designed specifically for modern English text." Much of the plainsong that we sing at Immaculate Conception uses English translations of the original Latin text. This setting creates new melodies specifically for the translated text in order that the words themselves become the focus of the music.

Vocations Prayer

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father: courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading — Isaiah 55:6-9

Seek the LORD while he may be found, call him while he is near. Let the scoundrel forsake his way, and the wicked his thoughts; let him turn to the LORD for mercy; to our God, who is generous in forgiving. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD. As high as the heavens are above the earth, so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm — Psalm 145

Steven Janco

The Lord is near to all who call on him.

Second Reading — Philemon 1:20c-24, 27a

Brothers and sisters: Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me life is Christ, and death is gain. If I go on living in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. And I do not know which I shall choose. I am caught between the two. I long to depart this life and be with Christ, for that is far better. Yet that I remain in the flesh is more necessary for your benefit. Only, conduct yourselves in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading — Matthew 20:1-16a

Jesus told his disciples this parable:
"The kingdom of heaven is like a Landowner who went out at dawn to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with them for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. Going out about nine o'clock, the landowner saw others standing idle in the marketplace, and he said to them, 'You too go into my vineyard, and I will give you what is just.' So they went off. And he went out again around noon, and around three o'clock, and did likewise. Going out about five o'clock, the landowner found others standing around, and said to them, 'Why do you stand here idle all day?' They answered, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You too go into my vineyard.' When it was evening the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Summon the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and ending with the first.' When those who had started about five o'clock came, each received the usual daily wage. So when the first came, they thought that they would receive more, but each of them also got the usual wage. And on receiving it they grumbled against the landowner, saying, 'These last ones worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who bore the day's burden and the heat.' He said to one of them in reply, 'My friend, I am not cheating you. Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go. What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous?' Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
