PASTOR'S NOTES

What Is Hell? Ideas about hell have been imagined and feared in many ways over the centuries. Dante's Inferno, written in the 14th century, had enormous influence on the medieval imagination and on how people pictured hell for centuries afterward. But Dante's imagery is not the Church's definition of hell and it wasn't written to be. The Catechism is much more direct and simple: "The chief punishment of hell is eternal separation from God" (CCC 1035).

Here is the most helpful way I believe there is to explain hell: Imagine that everything you could ever want from this world was given to you. Every earthly appetite was satisfied. Everything you thought would make you happy was yours. -And then you realized... this is it? for eternity...nothing more?? ...when there remains within you a deep longing that none of it can satisfy. Now imagine the terrible realization that you will never be in communion with the God who created that longing within you. That, I think, helps us understand the words of Jesus when He speaks of "weeping and grinding of teeth." What greater sorrow could there be than finally discovering that everything you looked toward for fulfillment could never give you what you were actually seeking in the core of your heart? You were seeking God. You were made for God, but given a free will to choose or reject him.

The Catholic Church teaches that this is real and possible, but why should the reality of hell turn us toward our loving Father rather than make us afraid of Him? I love this way of putting it: a great defense against the fear of losing salvation is remaining humble before the Father and keeping the simple daily attitude before our God; "I love You. I have been wrong. Have mercy on me." This also helps us understand sin. Sin is not wrong merely because God made a rule and commanded us not to break it. God's commandments protect what is good. Sin damages our communion with Him. It causes us to lose confidence in the Father, to lose our innocence before Him, and eventually to drift and look elsewhere for what only God can provide.

That is why the reality of hell should turn us toward the Father, not away from Him. We do not need to spend our lives anxiously wondering whether we have done enough. Christ has given us extraordinary means of returning to God: Prayer, Confession, the Eucharist, repentance, works of mercy, and the sacramental life of the Church. The Catechism reminds us that "God predestines no one to go to hell" (CCC 1037). Hell is real because our freedom is real. But so is the mercy of the Father. Turn to your Father daily and ask his mercy!

Or should we view them as folklore, fables, or legends? Dr. Pitre demonstrates how the Gospels are best understood as ancient biographies, and, consequently, as reliable sources of historical information about Jesus. All are welcome!

Living Water
Season of Creation 2026
IMMERSION IN LIVING WATER
Ezekiel 47:9, 12

Putting Faith in Action

The theme for the Season of Creation this year (September 1 – October 4) is "Living Water". What can each of us do to show our appreciation to God for sustaining us with the gift of water? Here are some ideas: Eat less meat, and use more sustainable forms of power like Solar. Turn off water while brushing teeth and while soaping when taking a shower - and take shorter showers. Re-use cooking water to water plants. Fix leaks and buy more water efficient toilets and washing machines. Pray that, with our efforts, planet earth will be habitable for our children and children's children. Let's do our part to show our appreciation to God for sustaining us with the gift of water.

A Music Note

You Satisfy the Hungry Heart

Written by Omer Westendorf, "You Satisfy the Hungry Heart" is one of the most recognizable modern Catholic hymns. Having a true Roman Catholic hymn written in English was not something that was common before Vatican II took effect and the Novus Ordo Mass was introduced.

Prior to the Novus Ordo, the Mass was entirely in Latin and all sung texts came from the Roman Missal. When the Mass was put into the vernacular and the opportunity to include hymnody was included, parishes across the globe began to borrow from other traditions. Catholic hymns existed - mainly composed for use during the Liturgy of the Hours - and they were included in new hymnals, but protestant traditions had been writing and using vernacular hymns since the Reformation in 1517, so there was a large repertory to borrow from. Many of the hymns we use today in Mass come from Lutheran, Anglican, Baptist, and Methodist traditions.

Omer Westendorf (1916) was the founder of World Library Publications, one of the large publishers of Catholic music. He composed this text for the 1976 International Eucharistic Congress hymn competition and it was selected as the winner.

THE TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

September 27, 2026 - Order of the Mass

VOCATIONS PRAYER

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading — Ezekiel 18:25-28

Thus says the LORD: You say, "The LORD's way is not fair!" Hear now, house of Israel: Is it my way that is unfair, or rather, are not your ways unfair? When someone virtuous turns away from virtue to commit iniquity, and dies, it is because of the iniquity he committed that he must die. But if he turns from the wickedness he has committed, he does what is right and just, he shall preserve his life; since he has turned away from all the sins that he has committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm — Psalm 25

Steven Janco

Remember your mercies, O Lord.

Second Reading — Philemon 2:1-5

Brothers and sisters: If there is any encouragement in Christ, any solace in love, any participation in the Spirit, any compassion and mercy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, with the same love, united in heart, thinking one thing. Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves, each looking out not for his own interests, but also for those of others. Have in you the same attitude that is also in Christ Jesus.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading — Matthew 21:28-32

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: "What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He came to the first and said, 'Son, go out and work in the vineyard today.' He said in reply, 'I will not, ' but afterwards changed his mind and went. The man came to the other son and gave the same order. He said in reply, 'Yes, sir, 'but did not go. Which of the two did his father's will?" They answered, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Amen, I say to you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you. When John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
