PASTOR'S NOTES

In the second reading today, Philippians 4:6–9, we hear:

"Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus."

These are helpful words for our spiritual life, and they are not complicated. Saint Paul is saying: bring your things to God habitually. Throughout your day, express your intentions to Him. Some call these little "arrow prayers"—short prayers that interrupt our anxiety, frustration, or fear and turn our minds back toward God.

"Lord, please help me with this stress." "Father, help me with this fear."

"Lord Jesus, I need you, I trust you."

And I'll tell you, as a priest, I do not do this enough. An anxiety or frustration comes into my mind, and instead of turning it into prayer, I too often let it dwell in me. We have a mixed interior life. We have our own weakness and brokenness from sin. We live in an imperfect world. And the enemy can use anxiety, fear, and discouragement against us. So, what do we do about that? We remember who our Father is. We listen to Saint Paul in Scripture and we turn to Him.

Here is my advice for and for me: First, measure where you are. When do you pray? How often? If your prayer life is not measurable at all, begin with one consistent time for prayer every day. The Church gives us a rich tradition to draw from, especially the Holy Rosary. But if you already have a regular prayer life, try adding something different: pay attention to your disposition throughout the day. When you notice anxiety, anger, frustration, or fear, turn it into opportunities for short mental prayer. Do not feel trapped that it has to be a formal prayer every time--just remember who your Father is and say something of trust to Him. "Father, I love you, I need support right now, I trust you. I am your Child through your Son, Jesus" -Amen.

Please pray for Brody Heckman, Walter "Buzz" Pointz Jr., & Michael Ferguson, all our faithful departed that the purgative love of Jesus Christ will make them perfect in heaven as they look forward to the resurrection of the body.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,
grant that I may not so much seek
to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
Amen.

Christmas: A Reason for Hope

Grief Share

How planning benefits, you

The holidays can be unpredictable in grief, but having a simple, flexible plan will help give you a bit of control over your emotions.

Will the holidays always hurt this much?

In the video, H. Norman Wright, counselor and traumatologist who faced the death of his wife and two children, answers this question.

Join us for an afternoon with others that are struggling the loss of a loved one this holiday season. There is no charge and we will gather together on

Sunday, November 8, 2026
from 1 PM to 3 PM
Immaculate Conception
In Our Lady's Plaza
RSVP gerridornin@gmail.com

Two Grief Share groups are available:

Weds. evenings at Immaculate Conception Parish: Grief Share support group will be held at Immaculate Conception in the Children's Liturgy Room on Wed. from 5:45 p.m. - 7:15 p.m. Contact Gerri Dornin at new email address gerridornin@gmail.com to register or for additional information. You are welcome to start attending at any point, as each session is "self-contained."

Thursday afternoons at St. Agnes Parish: Grief Share support group will be held at St. Agnes in Resurrection Hall Thursdays from 1:00 pm - 2:30 p.m. Contact Audrey Quinlan at audreyquinlan@comcast.net to register or for additional information. You are welcome to start attending at any point, as each session is "self-contained."

IMG/IWG

Our next sessions will be next Saturday, Oct. 10th for the men's group (IMG) and next Sunday, Oct. 11th for the women's group (IWG) at 6:30am in Our Lady's Plaza. In this fourth session of Dr. Brant Pitre's series "Lectio: The Case for Jesus" entitled "When Were the Gospels Written?", we'll see that some attempt to cast doubt on the reliability of the Gospels, asserting they were written far too late in the first century to provide accurate information about Jesus. Is there any evidence that the Gospels were written closer to the events they describe? And how did the disciples' training as students influence the reliability of their witness? All are welcome!

Living Water
Season of Creation 2026

IMMERSION IN LIVING WATER
Ezekiel 47:9, 12

Feast of St. Francis

St. Francis of Assisi gave us "The Canticle of the Sun" as a beautiful hymn of praise in the year 1225. It has inspired people for centuries to be grateful to God for the gift of creation. Some of the words of that Canticle are: "Most High, all powerful, good Lord, yours are the praises, the glory, and the honor, and all blessing. To you alone, Most High, do they belong and no human is worthy to mention your name…Praise to you, my Lord, through Sister Water, who is very useful and humble and precious and chaste…" May St. Francis be an inspiration for us to be continually grateful for the living water given to us by God. Let's make the changes in our lives that will make every season a season of creation by continuing gratitude for God's gift to us, the gift of creation.

A Music Note

Christ is Made the Sure Foundation

Hymns are made up of two parts, the tune and the text. The word "hymn" really refers to the poetry, not the tune and text together. This hymn was written by John Mason Neale (1818-1866).

Neale was one of the most important translators of hymns during the Oxford Movement. This was a period in the Anglican Church when they started to turn back toward practices of the Roman Catholic Church after turning away during the English Reformation. As part of this movement, historians discovered that the medieval Breviary included hymns that were used during the Divine Offices. This period overlapped with the Romantic Era of music, art, and literature when creatives were intensely focused on reintroducing ideas and values from history, focusing on Greek and Roman sources. Neale and many other writers at the time, translated these hymns from Latin and metricized the text in order to use them in Liturgies.

This text was paired with a tune written by Henry Purcell (1659-1695), Westminster Abbey. You can find the name of the hymn tune (usually with a different name than then hymn text) at the bottom of the hymn in the worship aid listed in all capital letters.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN — The Church's One Foundation

Text: Samuel J. Stone, 1839–1900, alt.
Tune: AURELIA, 7 6 7 6 D; Samuel S. Wesley, 1810–1876

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading — Isaiah 5:1-7

Let me now sing of my friend, my friend's song concerning his vineyard. My friend had a vineyard on a fertile hillside; he spaded it, cleared it of stones, and planted the choicest vines; within it he built a watchtower, and hewed out a wine press. Then he looked for the crop of grapes, but what it yielded was wild grapes. Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard: What more was there to do for my vineyard that I had not done? Why, when I looked for the crop of grapes, did it bring forth wild grapes? Now, I will let you know what I mean to do with my vineyard: take away its hedge, give it to grazing, break through its wall, let it be trampled! Yes, I will make it a ruin: it shall not be pruned or hoed, but overgrown with thorns and briers; I will command the clouds not to send rain upon it. The vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are his cherished plant; he looked for judgment, but see, bloodshed! for justice, but hark, the outcry!

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm — Psalm 80

Michel Guimont

The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Second Reading — Philippians 4:6-9

Brothers and sisters: Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me. Then the God of peace will be with you.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading — Matthew 21:33-43

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people: "Hear another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a tower. Then he leased it to tenants and went on a journey. When vintage time drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to obtain his produce. But the tenants seized the servants and one they beat, another they killed, and a third they stoned. Again he sent other servants, more numerous than the first ones, but they treated them in the same way. Finally, he sent his son to them, thinking, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.' They seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes?" They answered him, "He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times." Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; by the Lord has this been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes? Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
