PASTOR'S NOTES

My thoughts on Matthew 22:15–21

In today's Gospel, we witness an encounter that could have become a holy prayer. Instead, because of the intentions of the Pharisees, it becomes an attempt to discredit Jesus. This encounter reminds me of the importance of approaching God our Father as His child every day.

I remember listening to a Catholic speaker a few years back who was talking about his devotion to God the Father. I remember thinking; "Can you really have a devotion to God the Father?" Isn't that what our devotions to the Saints and our Blessed Mother Mary are supposed to lead us toward? But I loved the way he said it. It caused me to ask myself a wonderful question: Do I have a devotion to God the Father??

Our Lord Jesus teaches us that unless we become like little children, we cannot enter the Kingdom of Heaven. He also tells us, "Whoever has seen me has seen the Father" (John 14:9). Our Lord shows us the way to the Father, and the Holy Spirit gives us the grace to keep at the path through difficulties. So, perhaps we can turn the accusation of the Pharisees in today's Gospel into an opportunity for prayer.

There is a tension within each of us. Like the Pharisees, we want to test God. We want Him to bend to our will rather than surrender ourselves to His in a trusting childlike way. When things aren't going well, I can find myself questioning God: Why aren't You providing what I've asked for? Why haven't You answered me? Why aren't things working out the way I think they should? I might not use the same words as the Pharisees, but the tension is remarkably similar.

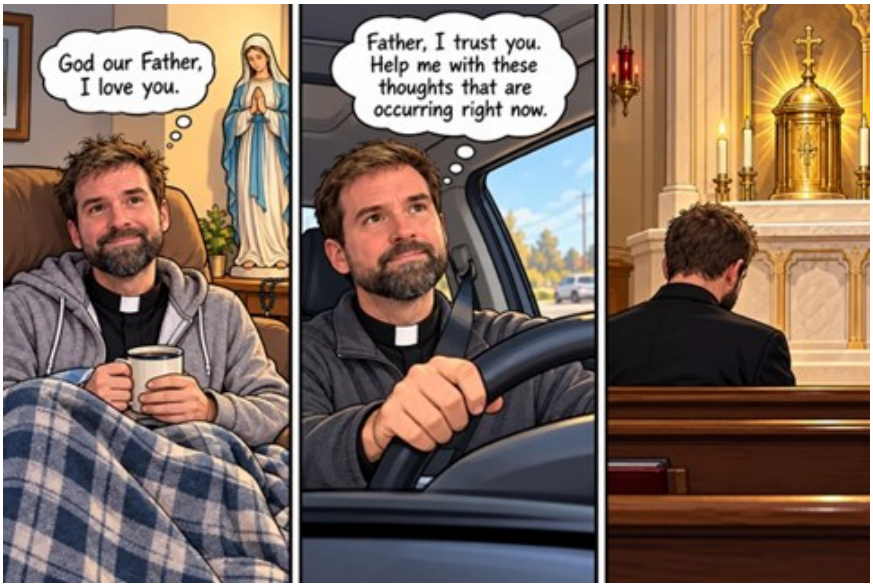

The Lord doesn't give us the Gospels so we can look back and recognize how wrong the Pharisees were. He gives us these encounters as invitations to conversion, helping us recognize our own brokenness and our need for His grace. How do we do that better? By making sure we have a devotion to God our Father.

Jesus concludes today's Gospel by telling us to give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God. And what belongs to God? Everything good within us. Here are 3 ways to cultivate a devotion to God the Father in your life in addition to receiving His most precious Son in the Eucharist at Mass.

1. Wake up with "God our Father, I Love you, your Son Jesus is my hope and my Lord." I want to be your son or daughter today. Will you help me?

2. Name your thoughts and tensions periodically to your Father in short prayers of the mind with a childlike trust.

3. Spend any time you can during your week in front of the Blessed Sacrament (Tabernacle in Church) Why? That's your most direct pathway to your Father=Through the Presence of Christ our Lord in the Eucharist.

Blessing for World Mission Sunday

O God,
You never cease to call us to Yourself, bless the mission fields where we sow, tend, and reap. Give us your grace and strength as we share Your love with families and friends, strangers and sojourners. Give us the right words, the right inspirations, the right invitations, the right love. Your love, shared.
Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

THE PENNSYLVANIA WE CHOOSE: A CALL TO FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP FROM BISHOP KULICK:

As we celebrate the 75th anniversary of the Diocese of Greensburg and reflect on our responsibilities as Catholics and citizens, Bishop Larry J. Kulick invites all parishioners to read or watch his important pastoral message regarding the upcoming election at theaccentonline.org. In his message, Bishop Kulick encourages the faithful to pray, form their consciences according to Church teaching, and thoughtfully consider issues such as the dignity of human life, educational opportunity, religious freedom, immigration and the common good. He reminds us that while political seasons come and go, our Catholic faith and moral principles remain constant. Parishioners are encouraged to take time to read the Bishop's full message at theaccentonline.org and his previous pastoral letter, Donum Libertatis (The Gift of Freedom), at theaccentonline.org/giftoffreedom and to faithfully exercise their responsibility as citizens this November.

IC parish office hours on Thurs. Oct. 22nd will be 8:00 am to 11:00 am. The staff will be attending the Diocesan Know Him Event.

Thank you from Bethlehem Christian Families

We would like to extend our heartfelt appreciation for welcoming us back to IC and Seton Parishes Oct. 3 &4 . Thanks to your generosity and the kindness of your parishioners, the sales of the olive wood carvings reached an impressive total of $8,702.00. It was truly uplifting to witness the warmth and enthusiasm of your community—not only in their interest in our religious articles, but also in their expressed desire to visit the Holy Land. Please know that you and all the members of your parish are remembered in our prayers.

Our next sessions will be next Saturday, Oct 24th for the men's group (IMG) and next Sunday, Oct 25th for the women's group (IWG) at 6:30am in Our Lady's Plaza. In this sixth session of Dr. Brant Pitre's series "Lectio: The Case for Jesus" entitled "Did Jesus Claim to be God?", we'll look at: What answers can we give skeptics who think that the early Christians exaggerated stories about Jesus and made him out to be something he was not? Dr. Pitre takes an in-depth look at three particular New Testament passages that show Jesus's revelation of his divinity and his disciples' understanding that Jesus is the one true God. All are welcome!

A Music Note

Mass of the Immaculate Conception

The new Mass setting we will be using for the rest of Ordinary Time is Mass of the Immaculate Conception by Dr. Peter Latona. Dr. Latona (b. 1968) is the Director of Music for the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C. The music of Peter Latona has been featured at papal visits in 2008 and 2015.

This setting of the Mass of the Immaculate Conception is designed to be sung with choir and congregation or solo cantor and congregation. As one of the most accomplished composers of contemporary Catholic music, Latona's compositions are widely used among volunteer and professional choirs.

courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate,

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading — Isaiah 45:1, 4-6

Thus says the LORD to his anointed, Cyrus, whose right hand I grasp, subduing
nations before him, and making kings run
in his service, opening doors before him and leaving the gates unbarred: For the sake of Jacob, my servant, of Israel, my chosen one, I have called you by your name, giving you a title, though you knew me not. I am the LORD and there is no other, there is no God besides me. It is I who arm you, though you know me not,
so that toward the rising and the setting of the sun people may know that there is none besides me. I am the LORD, there is no other.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm — Psalm 96

Michel Guimont

Give the Lord glory and honor.

Second Reading — 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: grace to you and peace. We give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers, unceasingly calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father, knowing, brothers and sisters loved by God, how you were chosen.
For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with much conviction.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading — Matthew 22:15-21

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone's opinion, for you do not regard a person's status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax." Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?"
They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
