PASTOR'S NOTES

Let the Silence Speak Both to You and for You in Your Life

Most would agree that in 2026, and perhaps even since the latter half of the 20th century, silence has become a treasured but forgotten resource for humanity, at least in much of the modern world. There are many perks to living in the modern world, but there is also a cost. The cost is our peace.

We have to fight for our peace as Children of God. What does that mean? Well, the Catechism of the Catholic Church describes prayer as a battle, not simply an easy delight. Why? Because there is so much working against our prayer life: competition for our attention, attacks from the enemy, and even our own brokenness and fear of silence.

Take a moment and measure the time you spend in silence each day. Is it hours? Minutes? Is it only when you're asleep?

Do you remember those old weight-loss commercials that would come on TV so often? They all promised something similar: Give our program just 20 minutes a day, or even less, and it will change your life! Imagine that!

Well, the Lord, in His love and mercy, has everything we need to change our life. But how can we allow Him to purify our minds and wills to be ordered to what is good for us if we never give Him the silence in which to work?

Here's my invitation to you: Give the Lord 20 minutes of your time every day and test it! Find a quiet place at home or come into church. Sit in silence with the Lord. Think about your life with Him. Ask Him to wash away all that is unholy in your mind and fill it with holy things. Then allow the silence to speak. You don't have to fill this time with any words. It works! But just like spending 20 minutes a day in the gym, you have to make it a habit. We cannot expect the fruits of a disciplined prayer life without actually giving ourselves to prayer in silence.

Let the silence speak both to you and for you. You will be surprised at how much clarity the Lord is been waiting to give you.

As we prepare for the upcoming election, Bishop Larry J. Kulick has issued an important pastoral message reflecting on our responsibilities as Catholics and citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Bishop Kulick encourages all faithful to pray, inform their consciences, learn where candidates stand on important issues such as the dignity of human life, education, religious freedom, and immigration, and faithfully exercise their right to vote. All parishioners are encouraged to read Bishop Kulick's complete message and reflect on his call to responsible citizenship and faithful participation in public life. The full message and video are available at theaccentonline.org/Bishop.
Bishop Kulick encourages the faithful to take time to read it or watch the video prayerfully as we prepare for Election Day.

A Music Note

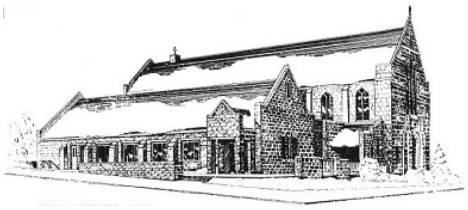

Love Divine, All Loves Excelling

The processional hymn this weekend is Love Divine, All Loves Excelling to the Welsh tune Blaenwern. At Immaculate Conception, I have used this tune for this text frequently, but most often this text is paired with a different Welsh tune, Hyfrydol. Blaenwern was written by William Penfro Rowlands (1860-1937). The title comes from a farm in Pembrokeshire where Rowlands spent time as a child. The tune gained popularity through Billy Graham crusades when it was paired with the text "What a Friend We Have in Jesus."

The text for this hymn was composed by Charles Wesley (1707-1788). Charles and his brother, John Wesley founded the Methodist movement which led to the development of the modern Methodist denomination. Both Wesley brothers valued the connection between music and spirituality and used hymns as part of their evangelization efforts. To this day, Methodist Hymnals include "Directions for Singing" written by John Wesley that encourage active participation of congregations in the liturgical music. This text and tune pairing was used at the royal wedding of Prince William and Kate Middleton in 2011.

October 25, 2026 - Order of the Mass

VOCATIONS PRAYER

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN — Love Divine, All Loves Excelling

Lyrics: 87.87 D; Charles Wesley, 1707-1788, fr. his "Hymns for Those That Seek, and Those That Have Redemption in the Blood of Christ", 1747.
Music: BLAENWERN; William P. Rowlands, 1860-1937, in Henry H. Jones' "Cân a Moliant", 1915.

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading — Exodus 22:20-26

Thus says the LORD: "You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt.
You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry. My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans. "If you lend money to one of your poor neighbors among my people, you shall not act like an extortioner toward him by demanding interest from him. If you take your neighbor's cloak as a pledge, you shall return it to him before sunset; for this cloak of his is the only covering he has for his body. What else has he to sleep in?
If he cries out to me, I will hear him; for I am compassionate."

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm — Psalm 18

Christine Krzystofcyk

I love you, Lord; I love, Lord, my strength.

Second Reading — 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10

Brothers and sisters: You know what sort of people we were among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in great affliction, with joy from the Holy Spirit, so that you became a model for all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything. For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus, who delivers us from the coming wrath.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading — Matthew 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
