PASTOR'S NOTES

What Song Is Your Life Singing to God?

Today's Gospel, regarding the ten bridesmaids awaiting the bridegroom, reminds us, even across a great cultural distance in meaning, of the importance of being prepared to meet our Lord. Our Lord continually teaches us to be ready, whether we have lived ten, twenty, or eighty years on this earth. We must not waste the time we have been given to prepare to know Him.

This invitation brings a question to my mind to ask you: What song is your life singing to your Lord today? What hymn are your actions and choices sending forth to heaven? You have full freedom to improve and so do I. Throughout the Book of Psalms, we hear the invitation, "Sing a new song to the Lord!" Perhaps we can think of our own lives as a hymn to God, with each day offering another opportunity to sing that hymn more beautifully.

With that in mind, I'd like to invite you to measure five areas of your life, almost like five verses of a hymn you are singing to the Lord even if you don't know you are. Can you identify five ways you are responding to the Lord's call? And if you struggle to do so, that's okay. The important thing is to examine our lives honestly. If we never stop to measure how we're living, we won't recognize where we need to grow and sing a better song to the Lord.

1. Prayer: In addition to attending Mass on Sundays: Am I praying every day, even when I feel absolutely no consolation in prayer? Am I remaining faithful to prayer when it feels difficult or fruitless.

2. Charity: Am I paying attention to the opportunities the Holy Spirit places before me to serve people in genuine need? We cannot solve every problem for every person we encounter, nor are we called to do so. But we can recognize where the Holy Spirit is asking us to give our time.

3. Silence: Am I resting in the Lord? Am I making sure that my days are not so filled with busyness that I leave no room for silence, listening, and simply sitting with God?

4. Honesty: Am I practicing honesty in my words and actions? Am I telling the truth in ways that are both appropriate and charitable? Am I living each day with integrity within my power to do so?

5. Recalibration: Am I willing to examine my actions and decisions daily and reject the pride of being right? Can I embrace the power of humility and recognize where I need to do better today, take no earthly credit and live more silently? Can I say today; "Lord Jesus, I Love you, I was wrong, I will choose your ways today."

Amen.

A Music Note

Come Ye Thankful People Come

The text of this hymn was written in 1844 by Anglican clergyman Henry Alford (1810-1871). Stanza one focuses on the physical harvest, making it a favorite hymn in American churches around Thanksgiving. The second stanza references Jesus' parable of the wheat and the tares from Matthew 13:24-30. The final two stanzas reference the second coming of Christ when the faithful will be joined with Christ in Heaven.

The tune for this hymn, ST. GEORGE'S WINDSOR was composed in 1865 by George J. Elvey (1816-1893). Originally paired with a different text, "Come Ye Thankful People Come" was paired with ST. GEORGE'S WINDSOR in 1861 with the publication of the hymnal Hymns Ancient and Modern.

Vocations Prayer

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father:
courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life, and holy men and women to the Sacrament of Marriage.
Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness by listening to the Father's voice and responding with a sacrificial love. Holy Mary, Model of vocations, pray for us.

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading — Wisdom 6:12-16

Resplendent and unfading is wisdom, and she is readily perceived by those who love her, and found by those who seek her.
She hastens to make herself known in anticipation of their desire; Whoever watches for her at dawn shall not be disappointed, for he shall find her sitting by his gate. For taking thought of wisdom is the perfection of prudence, and whoever for her sake keeps vigil shall quickly be free from care; because she makes her own rounds, seeking those worthy of her, and graciously appears to them in the ways, and meets them with all solicitude.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm — Psalm 63

Chrysogonus Waddell

My soul is thirsting for you, Lord my God.

Second Reading — 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep. Indeed, we tell you this, on the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will surely not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself, with a word of command, with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God, will come down from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore, console one another with these words.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading — Matthew 25:1-13

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "The kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were wise. The foolish ones, when taking their lamps, brought no oil with them, but the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps. Since the bridegroom was long delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep. At midnight, there was a cry, 'Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!' Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish ones said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' But the wise ones replied, 'No, for there may not be enough for us and you. Go instead to the merchants and buy some for yourselves.' While they went off to buy it, the bridegroom came and those who were ready went into the wedding feast with him. Then the door was locked. Afterwards the other virgins came and said, 'Lord, Lord, open the door for us!' But he said in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.' Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Creed

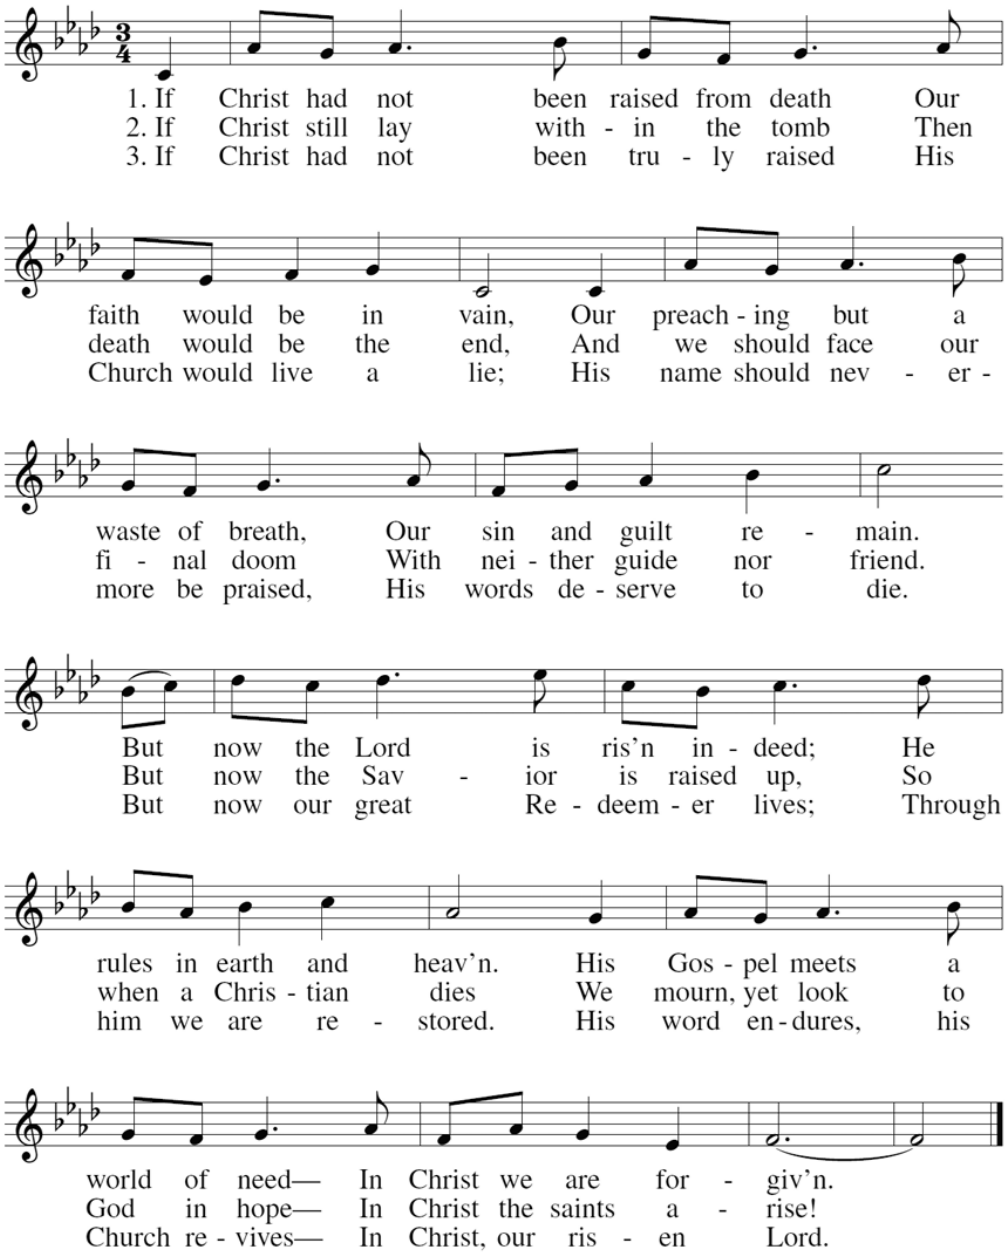

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
