TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: The woman saw that the tree was good for food, pleasing to the eyes, and desirable for gaining wisdom. So she took some of its fruit and ate it; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. (Gn 3:6)

Psalm: Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned. (Ps 51)

Second Reading: For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so, through the obedience of the one, the many will be made righteous. (Rom 5:19)

Gospel: Then the devil took him up to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in their magnificence, and he said to him, "All these I shall give to you, if you will prostrate yourself and worship me." At this, Jesus said to him, "Get away, Satan!" (Mt 4:8-10a)

Lenten Disciplines of Fasting & Abstinence

Catholics in good health ages 18 to 59 are required to fast and to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

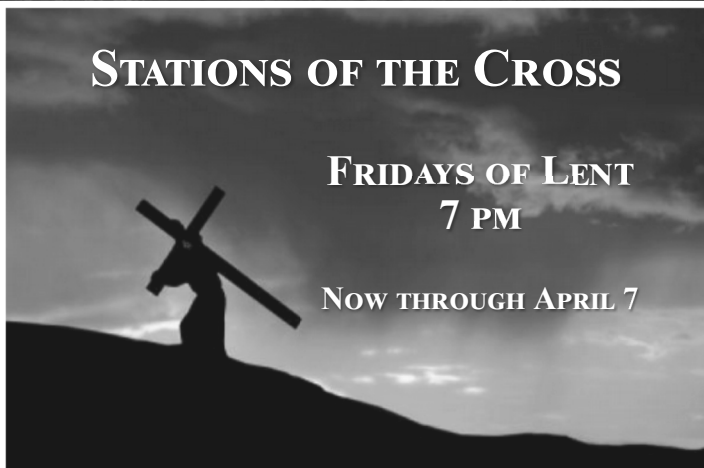

Fasting consists of eating only one meal, with the possibility of two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal.

Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on all Fridays in Lent.

AN EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE

"Brothers and sister, fill your minds with everything that is true, everything that is honorable, everything that is just and pure, everything that is lovely and gracious, and everything that can be thought virtuous and worthy of praise."
St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians, chapter 4, verse 8

"...everything that is true..."

- Are there ways that I've been dishonest with those closest to me?
- Are there any areas where I'm not being honest with myself and the Lord?
- Am I trying to hide some sin from the Lord?
- Am I avoiding my need to deal with an area in my life that is out of order?

"...everything that is honorable..."

- Am I using my gifts and talents for God's glory?
- Do my goals in life reflect gospel values, or are they based more on self-centered worldly ambition?
- Do I speak TO other people--and ABOUT them--in a way that is respectful and straightforward?

"...everything that is just..."

- Am I trying my best to care for the poor and the unfortunate?
- Do I treat other people fairly?
- Have I engaged in improper deals, whether at work or among friends?
- Have I focused more on the flaws of those around me than on my own flaws?

"...everything that is pure..."

- Have I guarded my mind and my eyes against lust?
- Have I acted impurely, either with someone else or with myself?
- Am I treating my spouse with honor and respect?

"...everything that is lovely and gracious..."

- Are there ways in which my witness to Jesus is tarnished, whether by my speech or my actions?
- Am I modest in my dress and my appearance?
- Am I overly concerned about how I look before others?
- Do I entertain grudges or resentments against someone else?
- Is there someone I need to forgive?

THURSDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

Thursdays at 9:30am in the hall. Current 10 week study ends April 6th entitled The Early Church (the second study in the Epic Church history series) presents in dramatic detail the first 500 years of the Church through the lives and events of the saints, philosophers, theologians, martyrs, and ruthless emperors. Discover that many of the challenges facing the Church today are the same ones boldly confronted by the Early Church Fathers. jasismimi@gmail.com

THURSDAY EVENING BIBLE STUDY Thursday Evenings at 7pm in the hall. The New Testament includes many references and quotes from the Old Testament. Join our current study, "Panorama of the Old Testament". Every good adventure involves planning and reflection, to explore the sweeping saga of God's people and their journey with God. This study invites readers to survey the variety of books found in the Old Testament and the themes that are woven together will become clearer, the familiar characters will be placed in context, and God's overall plan of salvation will come into focus. St. Jude teens represented at Youth Day 2017 in Anaheim! They were joined by 13,000 other teens coming together to praise and show their love for our faith. The theme "What are you waiting for?" is a call that all of us should answer: the call to love unconditionally, serve relentlessly, and grow into a deeper relationship with Christ. The group had the opportunity to listen to speakers, Joe Melendrez and Mark Hart, as well as attend Mass with Archbishop Gomez. Everyone had a great day and many of the teens even want to help out with Youth Day 2018!

Activities and Reflections for Your Family

Fasting is not just giving up candy, almsgiving is more than giving away your unused allowance, and prayer becomes active. Embark on the adventure of practicing the three tenets of Lent in new ways:

- The Easter Tree grows with symbols (nails, an empty egg, three dimes and more) rooted in Scripture, and blooms with flowers through your Lenten observance.
- Sunday Love Letters (and drawings) share the love of Christ with family members.
- Crafts, family outings, recipes, and other activities help reveal the meaning of Lent.

TRANSPORTATION SAFETY IS KEY

The safety of your children is often entrusted to other drivers – bus drivers, family members, friends' parents, coaches – and parents should be aware of who is in charge of transportation.

Although you cannot control everything, you can teach your children how to ride in another person's vehicle. Teach kids to always wear seatbelts, and avoid distracting behavior that will take the driver's attention away from the road. Ask your school about their policies and the requirements for those who may be in charge of transportation. For a copy of the VIRTUS© article "Child Care Providers Urged to Check Vehicle Safety, Training, and Health of Drivers," contact vienna@la-archdiocese.org or (213) 637-7227. Giving Opportunities

Visit the "Ministries" section of our website www.saintjudetheapostle.org you will find a comprehensive list of all of the many opportunities available to you in ministry throughout our parish. See page 6 of this bulletin for list of ministries.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Calling all knitters, crocheters, quilters, or anyone who wants to make fleece blankets to bless others! This special ministry is part of our "Open Arms" Hospitality. We meet Fridays twice a month in the Parish Library at 10am.

You can work from home as you have time and create any pattern using any material you'd like! This is fun and easy! Next Meetings are March 17 and 31

After the creations are made, they will be prayed over and given to someone sick, going through a hard time, a newborn, homebound and our military. We want them to know they are loved by their faith community at St Judes.

Anyone who is good at teaching how to knit, crochet or fleece we need your help too!

Please contact Gina Conti Gconti555@gmail.com

PROJECT HOMELESS CARE BAGS MARCH 11TH & 12TH

Pack bags for the homeless with fellow parishioners in the hospitality patio on March 11-12 after all Masses.

Bags will be filled with supplies gathered in January at the Frank's Homeless Project Collection and distributed to service agencies serving the homeless in Ventura County.

FIND A NEED AND FILL IT

We have a small but busy team doing some great behind-the-scenes work at St. Jude's. Furniture is needed when a homeless family moves into low-income housing or when a refugee arrives in our area. We need more strong arms and a few vehicles--trucks or large SUVs.

If the team is larger, everyone can have fewer turns! Please call Jackie to learn more at 805-495-4630.

ADOPT A FAMILY EASTER PROJECT Signup Weekend March 18 & 19

Each Spring, St. Jude Parishioners donate Easter Baskets for the less fortunate children in our community.

Signup Weekend is March 18 & 19 at all doors of the church after all Masses.

Collection Weekend will be Palm Sunday weekend, April 8 & 9 after all Masses. The completed Easter Baskets can be dropped off in the parish hall.

The baskets can be made or bought for children from infants to 13 years. We ask that baskets be enclosed in cellophane for easy delivery. Cash donations are appreciated--checks can be made out to Adopt a Family Easter Baskets.

The Easter Baskets will be given to RAIN, Many Mansions and Catholic Charities of Moorpark, Ventura and Oxnard. Last year we collected 850 Easter Baskets.

THE JUSTICE CORNER

Human Dignity and Justice

It is impossible for us to comprehend the depth of the love that God has for us. It is constant, unconditional, without limit, and graced with His compassion, forgiveness and mercy. No one is excluded from God's love.

We humans, however, tend to focus on our inner circle, paying scant attention to those beyond, especially the poorest and most disadvantaged who are "out of sight and out of mind".

Justice, which is Jesus in action, calls us to become aware of and to treat all of His brothers and sisters with Dignity. He understands that we are imperfect, and that we fail, but He knows we are capable of doing more than we do. He does not give us the option to turn away from His call to treat others with Dignity, or to relegate that call to our bottom drawer.

How do we do this? How can we motivate ourselves to see the value of our brothers and sisters outside our circle, and to affirm them and treat them with the Dignity with which they are due?

One way is to remind ourselves of the way God sees them.. The U.S. Catholic Bishops, in their Pastoral Letter "Economic Justice for All" said it this way: "When we deal with each other, we should do so with the sense of awe that arises in the presence of something holy and sacred. For that is what human beings are: we are created in the image of God."

"When we treat people with Dignity we practice Justice"
