AUGUST 6, 2017 THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

Today's feast of the Transfiguration presents the full force of God's power. In the rare moments when humans are permitted to encounter God's intense fullness, the human reaction is the same: fear. The prophet Daniel is so frightened by his visions that he falls flat on his face in terror. Today's Gospel reports that Peter, James, and John were "very much afraid" when they saw Jesus transfigured on the mountain. They too fell prostrate in fear. These mighty revelations of God's brilliant majesty have a paralyzing effect on those who witness them. God does not prefer to terrify us, however. God chooses only rare moments to reveal the divine glory, and then sends witnesses to the rest of us so we can believe without fear. Saint Peter's letter advises us to be attentive to God's witnesses. Their testimony is true. Their words renew our hearts and transform our lives.

THE EYE OF THE BEHOLDER

Saint Matthew's Gospel reveals that Jesus' face "shone like the sun" during his transfiguration. The evangelist is using a figure of speech, of course, but we can imagine what beholding the Transfiguration might have been like for Peter, James, and John. The brightness of Jesus' face is compared to the sun. Earth is about ninety-three million miles distant from the sun, yet if we look directly at it, we suffer retinal burns, permanent eye damage, or severe vision loss. The disciples were so close to the Lord during his transfiguration that he could touch them. What is it like to behold the brightness of Jesus? The disciples were terrified. Perhaps looking at Jesus in his glory feels as dangerous as staring at a solar eclipse. Sure enough, the disciples hid their eyes, falling flat on their faces.

GOD'S MERCY

Although the disciples' experience on the mountain was frightening, our merciful Lord does not want fear to overshadow the miracle they witnessed. Jesus touched them, saying, "Rise, and do not be afraid." God's words from the cloud overhead were similarly encouraging: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." God lovingly reassures us, confirming Jesus' identity as the Son of Man and inviting us to pay attention to the One who comes to save us.

Saint Peter, an eyewitness to the event, declares that his testimony is "altogether reliable." We can depend on his word. Saint Peter hopes his words act like a "lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts." Thanks be to God, we can rely on the life-changing experiences of others to help transform our own lives. We may not ever have intimidating mountaintop revelations like Peter, James, and John, so we listen to them as witnesses of God's majesty. All of our readings today remind us that God gives us the Word to believe and live, and sends us the words of Daniel, Peter, and Matthew to encourage us.

Today's Readings: Dn 7:9-10, 13-14; Ps 97:1-2, 5-6, 9; 2 Pt 1:16-19; Mt 17:1-9

TEENS

CONFIRMATION PROGRAM

Confirmation at St. Jude celebrates the Holy Spirit working in the hearts of our teens. The Confirmation process is a time of discernment for our teens to explore, challenge, grow and eventually take ownership of the Catholic Faith. The process involves not only the teens, but the whole family and the entire parish community. Confirmation is a two year process for teens, which typically begins in 9th grade. Teens that are going into 10th or 11th grade are welcome to begin Confirmation as well. Register at <http://www.saintjudetheapostle.org/Confirmation-Program>

SUPPORTING THE CONFIRMATION CORE TEAM

Thank you to everyone who supported the Confirmation Core Team by buying ice cream. The Core Team made $700 which will be used to offset some of the cost of the leadership retreat the Core Team will be attending at the end of the month. The student leaders work hard all year long, putting in hundreds of volunteer hours. This leadership retreat will help in their discernment while also working on leadership skills. If you missed the ice cream sale, donations are still being accepted through August 20th. Every little bit helps reduce the cost the students have to pay. Thank you! Donations may be dropped off at the pastoral office marked “Core Team Leadership Donation”

Welcome to all who have come to St. Jude Catholic Community. We hope that our Father's house will be a place of solace and grace for you. Inquiry Nights Every Tuesday

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process by which people can question, search, and inquire into the Catholic faith. We recognize that people are in all different places in their journey and we are here to help you in any way we can.

You may be baptized in another faith or you may just be starting to ask questions. Wherever you are in your faith journey, we are here to pray with you, answer questions, share with you and be a part of your walk of faith. Contact Fr. THANK YOU

Thank you to all who responded in a big way to the latest needs in the Loaves and Fishes "Find a Need Box." Twelve fans were collected and distributed to farm-worker families to relieve the heat in their small, crowded apartments. Often several families live together to make the rent. "Friends of Field Workers" was very appreciative for your generous outpouring.

Your great response to the needs at St. Catherine's struggling school in Reseda was met by prayers of thanksgiving and much appreciation. Thank you to all the parishioners who stepped up with both new and good condition used computers for the school office and their five teachers. With the help of a generous grant, Loaves and Fishes also contributed backpacks and school supplies for thirty students on the free lunch program and balls of all kind for their playground. Thank you all!

Back to school safety tips

There is a lot that goes into preparing for the new school year, and it's important to remember to talk about safety. These are a few tips to consider: (1) meet all of your child's teachers, (2) discuss school bathroom behavior (no one should go into a stall with a child for any reason), (3) occasionally walk your children to their class instead of using the carpool line. To request a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Three Things that Simply Must Be Done" email vienna@la-archdiocese.org or call (213) 637-7227. For St. Jude's Protecting God's Children Program contact Dot Kelly dotandpuff@gmail.com.

CENTERING PRAYER AND LECTIO DIVINA

Beginning August 8th the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month | 7pm to 8:30pm
Facilitators: Sister Betty Mae Bienlein and Sister Regina Robbins

Each session will begin with Centering Prayer according to the method of Thomas Keating, OSB. Through guided silence and quieting the mind, we open our awareness to God who is within us. This is followed by lectio divina, praying a selected scripture passage. All are welcome to share in this prayer experience. We will begin the first sessions with some instructional input regarding methods of these prayer forms.

Centering Prayer Introductory Workshop

Saturday, September 16 * 9am - 12:30pm
Holy Spirit Retreat Center, Encino

Contemplative prayer is God's personal and unique gift to each of us. If we are open to this gift, it will profoundly affect our lives and relationships: with God, others and our world. A form of Contemplative Prayer is that of Centering Prayer. It is a method of prayer that opens us to interior transformation and deeper intimacy with God and others. The workshop includes four presentations and the practice of Centering Prayer. Fee $35. Contact Pat Nelson, CSJ 818-815-4480 or Linda Snow, CSJ 818-815-4497
