FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Have you ever felt called to do something? Perhaps it was the moment you realized you were called to a life vocation--marriage, priesthood, or consecrated life, for example--or when you recognized a call to a particular career. Maybe it was a time when you felt called to a certain kind of service or ministry, or to care for the needs of a family member or good friend. The truth is, we are all chosen as Christ's people, called to share in Christ's mission of love, to "exist for the praise of his glory," as we hear in the Letter to the Ephesians today. In today's first reading, Amos tells how he was called from the life of the shepherd to that of the prophet; in the Gospel we hear how the disciples were called out to share the Good News of Jesus Christ.

CALLED TO MISSION

As baptized Christians, each of us is called to mission. When Catholics hear the word "mission," most usually think of those who go to foreign countries to serve and share their faith. Some might also think of a parish mission, a time of focused reflection, usually led by a visiting speaker. Remember the often-quoted line from Mission Impossible, "Your mission, should you choose to accept it"? Sometimes we use the word mission to describe our purpose or goal, what we have been charged to do. Thinking of mission in this way makes our call as Christians clearer. Our mission is to live as Christian people, to share our faith, to be people of service, and to show Christ's love to others in the ways that we live our daily lives. The choice to live as people of mission is ours. How do you, or will you, live as a person of mission?

CALLED TOGETHER

Notice that the disciples in today's Gospel were sent out two by two. This was not only a practical thing for Jesus to do as he sent the disciples out to preach, teach, and heal. It was also very spiritual, for being sent on mission together with another engenders mutual support. We live and grow in faith in deeper and more lasting ways when we are in community with others. Not only is our relationship with Jesus personal, it is also communal--we are drawn into communion with Christ, through and with the community of faith. Being part of a community offers us the strength and perspective found in relationship with others. We find support, encouragement, and consolation in trying times; we more readily challenge one another to live the gospel call to follow Jesus with our lives. What is your mission? With whom are you called?

Today's Readings: Am 7:12-15; Ps 85:9-10, 11-12, 13-14; Eph 1:3-14 [3-10]; Mk 6:7-13

Thank you from Loaves and Fishes Ministry! You step up to the plate each time we present an opportunity to share—for babies, kids, seniors, homeless, on and on.

We have a request: please ask by calling (805)495-4630 before dropping things off at the office or by the storage shed. We have limited storage space, so it is best if we respond to needs rather than collect items for future use. We appreciate your help in this matter. Please watch the "Find-a-Need....and Fill It" box in the bulletin for specific needs. Thank you.

If you are interested in learning more about placing an ad in our Directory, please contact Travis Lawmaster at (818)401-2998, or by email at tlawmaster@4Lpi.com. Placing an ad in our Directory raises visibility for your business in the community, and functions as a charitable donation to the parish also, which helps us tremendously. We thank all of our current and future advertisers for their support, and encourage our parish members to patronize their businesses.

Plan ahead for safe, fun summer trips

Amusement parks are great places to make memories as a family, but it's important to plan ahead to maximize fun and keep everyone safe. Go over the family rules in advance, and refresh information on the way there. Make sure that everyone follows the buddy system, with at least two people together at all times. Pick a predetermined meet-up site in the event of separations, and show children where they can go for help (information desk, park security). Keep an eye out for any adults that may approach children, and stay on top of children's locations at all times. For more tips and information visit, <https://www.parents.com/fun/vacation/theme-parks/9-ways-to-stay-safe-at-amusement-parks/>. For St. Jude's Protecting God's Children Program contact Eloisa Pasos safeguardingthechildren@saintjudetheapostle.org

Virtus: Protecting God's Children

Protecting God's Children is being offered for anyone in parish ministry who is a visible presence to children or vulnerable adults (ushers, EM team leaders, catechists, lectors, EM to the sick, Loaves and Fishes etc.). Children see us at Mass, volunteering in different ministries and they recognize us as the face of the Church. Together, we work to protect their innocence by being the ears, eyes, and voices of children, young people, and vulnerable adults to prevent abuse and harm in our churches, schools, homes, and communities. Protecting God's Children will be offered on the following dates:

- August 15, 2018 6:30 - 9:30 p.m.
- September 5, 2018 8:30 - 11:30 a.m.

Pre-register for all sessions/ask questions, contact cindy@saintjudetheapostle.org or (818)889-0612
