TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading -- Thus says the LORD: Rejoice heartily, O daughter Zion, shout for joy, O daughter Jerusalem! See, your king shall come to you; a just savior is he, meek, and riding on an ass, on a colt, the foal of an ass. (Zec 9:9)

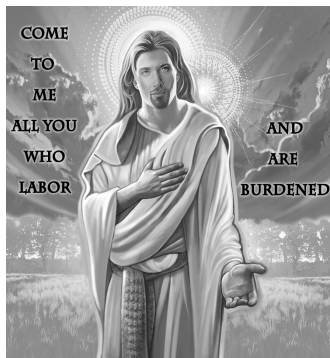

Psalm:

I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God. (Ps 145) Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading: If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit that dwells in you. (Rom 8:11)

Gospel: "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." (Mt 11:28-30)

My Yoke is Easy, and My Burden Light

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Humility is a virtue in short supply in today's world. And yet our reading from the prophet Zechariah describes Israel's coming king, in whom we Christians see Jesus, as humble, riding on a colt, the foal of an ass. No great procession for our Lord and God, for he comes not on a golden chariot with banners and a great procession of soldiers and riches, but on a humble beast of burden. What a contrast to our world of designer clothes and cars; of mega-mansions and architectural embellishments. Humility is not bragging about our worldly goods or our accomplishments. Neither is it the false humility of denying that what we do well is "nothing." It is the acknowledgment of our faults and our successes, with a humble "thank you" to compliment or criticism.

FROM THE RIVER TO THE ENDS OF THE EARTH

How we long for peace in our world! It seems we are surrounded by constant news of death and destruction, whether in our own country or abroad. We hear and we grieve, we try to give shelter to those fleeing war and crime in their own countries. We pray for them and for ourselves, that fear may not overtake us and make us do foolish things or abuse innocent people. For "[God] shall proclaim peace to the nations" (Zechariah 9:10). We can rely on this promise of peace, if we become peaceful people ourselves and do not give in to revenge or deep anger. "You are not in the flesh . . . you are in the spirit" (Romans 8:9).

COME TO ME

Some of the most comforting words in the Gospels appear in today's reading. "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest . . . For my yoke is easy and my burden light" (Matthew 11: 28, 30). Sometimes we carry what seem to be impossible burdens; we carry our cross. But we might be carrying the wrong cross. Our cross, we are promised, will be easy and our burden light. This might not seem to be true when we suffer the loss of a loved one, a job, our home, or our livelihood. But if we turn to Jesus, we will always find the comfort and loving kindness of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The children look to us adults for comfort and support, for "although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones" (Matthew 11:25). We can learn from children about our dependence on God.

So Jesus says to us, "Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart" (Matthew 11:29). Again, the Lord's humility reveals neither bragging nor false denial of his power, but an acknowledgement of his love for us.

Today's Readings: Zec 9:9-10; Ps 145:1-2, 8-11, 13-14; Rom 8:9, 11-13; Mt 11:25-30

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process by which people can question, search, and inquire into the Catholic faith. At St. Jude, members of our parish join with those who are journeying to becoming fully initiated Catholics (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation). We recognize that people are in all different places in their journey and we are here to help you in any way we can.

You may be baptized in another faith or you may just be starting to ask questions. Wherever you are in your faith journey, we are here to pray with you, answer questions, share with you and be a part of your walk of faith. Contact Fr. Jim Stehly frjim@saintjudetheapostle.org or drop in on the first and third Tuesday of the Month from 7pm-8pm in the Faith Formation Office. Next RCIA Drop-In: July 18th and August 1st

Find out a little more about the Catholic faith, ask questions you might have and discuss what it means to be Catholic. We will work through the questions you may have and get you started on your way. There is more information on the parish website www.saintjudetheapostle.org under "Becoming Catholic."

Open Arms Hospitality MINISTRY

welcome to church

The goal of our ministry is to welcome and encourage all new visitors and current parishioners. Our desire is to help everyone get connected and feel part of the St. Jude faith family. You are important to us. If you haven't registered with St. Jude's yet, or you would like to be an ambassador for Christ with the gift of hospitality (baking, greeting, making baskets), we would love to hear from you!

If anyone you know, loved one or friend, is homebound and not able to make it to mass please notify us directly so we can reach out to them.

Protect against potential danger

Taking a few precautions can help children learn to protect themselves against potential danger and ease parents' minds. Teach children to memorize their full name, address, and phone number, so they can provide the information to an adult if they are separated from their parents or caregiver. Instruct children to look for a police officer or other "safe" adult (e.g., a store or park employee) if they need assistance. Teach them how and when to dial 9-1-1. For more tips, request the VIRTUS® article "7 Precautions to Take against Kidnapping," from jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call (213) 637-7227. For St. Jude's Protecting God's Children Program contact Dot Kelly dotandpuff@gmail.com.

Summer Safety Tip: Always TAKE A FRIEND with you when going to malls, movies, parks, or entertainment centers. And always CHECK FIRST with your parents or guardians to make sure it's OK.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Calling all knitters, crocheters, quilters, or anyone who wants to make fleece blankets to bless others! We meet Fridays twice a month in the Parish Library at 10am. You can work from home as you have time and create any pattern using any material you'd like! This is fun and easy!

Next Meeting July 21 and Aug 4

After the creations are made, they will be prayed over and given to someone sick, going through a hard time, a newborn, homebound and our military. We want them to know they are loved by their faith community at St Judes. Anyone who is good at teaching how to knit, crochet or fleece we need your help too!

FOOD SHARE

How can we help some of the 30,000 plus food-insecure adults in Ventura County? If you are micro-farming with a small home garden which produces extra vegetables or fruit, you can contribute some of your produce to FOOD SHARE for this very worthwhile effort. Some of our parishioners are sharing with FOOD SHARE which will pick up your produce. If you would like to join a team and contribute to a pick-up at St. Jude's, or if you have questions, please call Patrick at 805-495-6044.

The Justice Corner

Moving to Action

This Bulletin edition of the Justice Corner completes the discussion about hunger and poverty provided in our May 28 and June 11 Bulletins.

It also expands the scope of the Justice Corner to include suggestions about action – things we can do to help alleviate those suffering from the injustices of hunger and poverty, and from the consequences of unjust structures in our society.

In our last Column in the Bulletin we pointed out that the United Nations, through its Millennium Project, had a dramatic impact on both extreme hunger and extreme poverty in the developing world, reducing both by half. A larger and more ambitious U.N. follow-on effort, called the Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) Program, is now underway, and its objectives, including significant ones for health, education and climate control, are to eliminate both extreme hunger and extreme poverty by 2030. The world is hopeful that SDG will be as successful as Millennium, and there are high expectations that it will deliver strongly when it is completed in 2030.

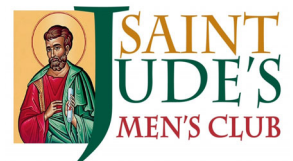

It is time for the Justice Corner to begin to address actions that can be taken, in addition to the education we have been providing, on Justice principles and issues. Therefore it is very important that all of you reading this Bulletin Column also turn to our website Column which covers this subject in considerably more detail. Please promise yourself that the next time you go to your computer you will go to the address www.saintjudetheapostle.org/Jus. Then email us with your comments at tom@saintjudetheapostle.org. We look forward to your ideas and suggestions.

Have you ever considered joining the Eucharistic Ministry? As an extraordinary minister of the Eucharist, commonly referred to as a Eucharistic minister or EM, lay people can serve the Catholic Church by distributing Holy Communion during Mass. An EM must be a fully initiated member of the Church (having received the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion and Confirmation). If you feel a tug at your heart to help in this way, please contact Ty Hutchison tbh12649@gmail.com or (818) 402-8402. www.saintjudetheapostle.org/Eucharistic-Ministry

Men's Club

St. Jude Men's Club is the central gathering point for all men of the St. Jude Catholic Community. We promote men's fellowship while pursuing our common goal of being men of faith and service to our Church and Community. All men are welcome at our meetings.

Men's Club meets on the Second Tuesday night of the month in the parish hall. During the summer months, we will refrain from meeting. The next meetings will be held on July 11 and September 9 from 7 to 9 pm. Meetings include socializing, an update on club events and service opportunities, and usually a guest speaker on a subject of interest to men. Meetings also include "Basic Training for Catholic Men" – a brief presentation on some aspect of Catholicism that we should know to better understand and share our faith.

For more information about Men's Club or to get your name added to the Men's Club email list, contact John Faucher by emailing him at j.d.faucher@sbcglobal.net or by calling 805-217-2967.

You Can Play an Important Role in Our Stephen Ministry Because you may know of a friend, neighbor, co-worker, or relative who is going through a difficult time and who could benefit from the focused care, encouragement, and support of a Stephen Minister. If you know of someone who is hurting, talk with one of our Stephen Leaders: Mariann (805) 495-1732 or Jean-Marie (805) 497-6473. They can talk with you about how we can connect the person you know with one of our Stephen Ministers. It's a great way for you to show how much you care!

Monthly Family Rosary

Aug 6th and Sept 3rd at 3pm
3316 S Medicine Bow Ct, Westlake V.

The rosary is one of the most powerful weapons we have against Satan, and Our Lady in Medjugorje promises many graces to those who pray it. There is no greater way to gain wisdom and be drawn into a deeper understanding of Jesus' life than praying the rosary. The Lord called us to pray together -- "wherever two or more are gathered in my name, I am in the midst of them". He also gave us his Mother as He was dying on the cross - this is a call to ask for her help. Come and join us in praying the rosary, asking our Lady's intercession for the problems of our nation, our community, our families and within ourselves. Bring a friend!

Walk in Her Sandals
By Kelly M. Wahlquist

Pray in a new and creative way this Lent by joining the women of WINE: Women In the New Evangelization on a journey through Christ's passion, death, and resurrection. What if you could have been a witness to the events of the last days of Jesus' life--walking with him as he entered Jerusalem, observing his crucifixion, and embracing him on Easter? What would you have thought and done? How would you have been changed?
