TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading

Thus the LORD passed before him and cried out, "The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity."
(Ex 34:6)

Psalm

Glory and praise for ever! (Daniel 3).

Second Reading

Brothers and sisters, rejoice. Mend your ways, encourage one another, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. (2 Cor 13:11)

Gospel

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. (Jn 3:16-17)

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son

When Moses went up Mount Sinai, God revealed the divine Self to him by name. "The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God" (Exodus 34:6). In the Old Testament, we are accustomed to assuming that the "Lord GOD" indicates the Father only. But in the retrospect with which we look at these readings, we can see that the title is inclusive of the three persons of the Trinity. Never has there been any separation of the three persons in one God, and although there may be mention of only one person, it is understood that all three persons are present. Jesus taught many times that he and the Father are one, and that the Holy Spirit would come upon us and remind us of all things. We believe in God, creator of all that is, the Son, redeemer of our human lives and giver of eternal life, and the Holy Spirit, inspiration of the prophets and lover of all humanity; holy Wisdom, inspiring in us the understanding of all things holy.

everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life," we begin to see how language that expresses the sending of the Son fails to express the unity of the Holy Trinity. This failure of human language in the presence of the mystery of the Trinity is what makes it so hard to explain and comprehend.

So how can we respond when we see a reference to "God"? We can strive to remember that God is three persons, not just one as we are, but one in being. Our best response is praise to the Holy Trinity. "Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, to God who is, who was, and who is to come." And we can bless each other when we pray with Saint Paul, "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you" (2 Corinthians 13:13).

Today's Readings: Ex 34:4b-6, 8-9; Dn 3:52, 53, 54, 55; 2 Cor 13:11-13; Jn 3:16-18

GOSPEL MEDITATION

The Most Holy Trinity

"God so loved the world that he gave his only Son." We are used to this profound idea, so used to it that we often glaze over the incredible reality: God the Father has a Son who became man and dwelt among us! Too often we blithely make the sign of the cross in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, without realizing what a radical theology we are announcing.

Only Christianity proclaims a triune God. Only Christianity professes that we have one God in three divine persons. Only Christianity declares that the very nature of God is to be relational and literally "personal." Why does this matter? Because we are made in God's image, as the opening chapters of Genesis tell us. We, therefore, are made in the image of this Trinitarian God who IS love. We are built to be like this God! Just as God the Father loves God the Son and God the Holy Spirit, we too are called to love one another. In fact, we are not fulfilling our nature and design when we don't. And just as God loved the world (that is, us!) so too we are called to love him in return.

We don't have to embrace this image in which we were made, of course. God gave us freedom so that our love can be real, but this means our choices really matter. We can decide not to reflect God's interpersonal love in the world. We can opt not to return the love that God pours out to each of us. But this can only lead to disappointment in the end. After all, God sent his Son so that "everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." Ultimately, this means spending eternity in the Trinitarian embrace of love. So why not start now?

RCIA

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process by which people can question, search, and inquire into the Catholic faith. At St. Jude, members of our parish join with those who are journeying to becoming fully initiated Catholics (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation). We recognize that people are in all different places in their journey and we are here to help you in any way we can.

You may be baptized in another faith or you may just be starting to ask questions. Wherever you are in your faith journey, we are here to pray with you, answer questions, share with you and be a part of your walk of faith. Contact Fr. Jim Stehly frjim@saintjudetheapostle.org or drop in on the first and third Tuesday of the Month from 7pm-8pm in the Faith Formation Office. Next RCIA Drop-In: June 20th; No drop-in on July 4th

Find out a little more about the Catholic faith, ask questions you might have and discuss what it means to be Catholic. We will work through the questions you may have and get you started on your way. There is more information on the parish website www.saintjudetheapostle.org under "Becoming Catholic."

Join us for Coffee & Donuts Sunday Mornings on the patio following the 8am & 10am Masses.

Volunteers Needed for July & August

Help keep this St. Jude tradition going and volunteer. Donuts are provided by the church all you do is brew coffee and set the table with coffee & donuts. It's easy!

PRIEST RETIREMENT FUND

Our Turn to Help Our Priests

This weekend you are invited to support the Priest Retirement Fund for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. This fund is an essential support system for our retired diocesan priests. It is because of your generous support of this fund that our priests are able to continue to work in their ministry even in their retirement years.

We will have pledge envelopes available in the pews if you would like to make a gift today. If you have given to this fund in the past, you may have received your renewal letter at your home. You may also make a gift in honor or in memoriam for a specific priest. Visit PRFLA.ORG for more information.

Thank you for your continued prayers for our priests and for considering making a gift in their honor.

Giving Opportunities

Visit the "Ministries" section of our website www.saintjudetheapostle.org you will find a comprehensive list of all of the many opportunities available to you in ministry throughout our parish. See page 6 of this bulletin for a list of ministries.

FOOD SHARE

How can we help some of the 30,000 plus food-insecure adults in Ventura County? If you are micro-farming with a small home garden which produces extra vegetables or fruit, you can contribute some of your produce to FOOD SHARE for this very worthwhile effort. Some of our parishioners are sharing with FOOD SHARE which will pick up your produce. If you would like to join a team and contribute to a pick-up at St. Jude's, or if you have questions, please call Patrick at 805-495-6044.

6. A bed was provided for a woman moving off the streets into Many Mansions. Thanks to the generous parish family who seeks Ventura County Community Foundation grants for the Loaves and Fishes ministry to make these things happen.
7. Three car seats were picked up by a Lutheran Social Services volunteer for a grandmother who has suddenly become the caregiver for her grandchildren ages 4, 3, and 1.
8. Thank you to Charles who packed 150 care bags given to our own Gary who serves homeless citizens on Skid Row.
Special thanks for a generous donation from an anonymous parishioner, which made it possible to provide all the necessities for Get on the Bus to take 33 kids and 23 caregivers to visit 17 prisoners--all fathers of the children on the bus. We were also able to provide 20 backpacks for a second bus. What a blessing!

Happy Summer! Loaves and Fishes will be busy with Baby Day and the Back-to-School collection during our "break." Look for us at the doors in July with an invitation to join us in helping our struggling brothers and sisters. Area food collections begin again in September.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Calling all knitters, crocheters, quilters, or anyone who wants to make fleece blankets to bless others! We meet Fridays twice a month in the Parish Library at 10am. You can work from home as you have time and create any pattern using any material you'd like! This is fun and easy! Next Meeting June 23 and July 7.

After the creations are made, they will be prayed over and given to someone sick, going through a hard time, a newborn, homebound and our military. We want them to know they are loved by their faith community at St. Jude's. Anyone who is good at teaching how to knit, crochet or fleece we need your help too!

Please contact Gina Conti Gconti555@gmail.com

Poverty and Hunger – Part II

In our last Column in the Bulletin we discussed poverty and hunger in the world and the United States. Many were surprised at the magnitude of these problems, that literally hundreds of millions of people are suffering from both poverty and severe malnutrition, that several million children under six are dying each year of starvation, and that billions have to live on less than two dollars a day – almost all of them in the developing world. But we believe it. We don't dispute it.

Many are also surprised that we have 43 million people in poverty in this country, according to our government. But many of us don't believe this. Many, of course do. Therefore in the U.S. we have both a poverty and hunger problem and a perception problem. This makes it more difficult for us to deal with hunger and poverty, because many of us are not sure that we even have one.

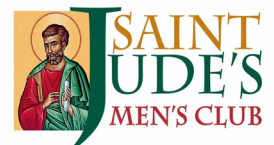

So for today's Column, in the short space we have, we'll address what's been happening across the oceans. We'll come back to the U.S. situation later.

There is good news. The United Nations has had a major program going since 2000 to reduce poverty and hunger- the Millennium Project - and it is working. Instead of 2 billion people with extreme poverty, as in 1990, we now have 800 million. And severe malnutrition has been reduced by almost half. Another UN program has been started with the hope of eliminating extreme poverty by 2030. As the Irish say, praise God, but much more needs to be done, and you will be hearing more.

Men's Club

St. Jude Men's Club is the central gathering point for all men of the St. Jude Catholic Community. We promote men's fellowship while pursuing our common goal of being men of faith and service to our Church and community. All men are welcome at our meetings.

Men's Club meets on the second Tuesday night of the month in the parish hall. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 13 from 7-9 PM. Meetings include socializing, and update on club events and service opportunities, and usually a guest speaker on a subject of interest to men. Meetings also include a segment called "Basic Training for Catholic Men"--a brief presentation on some aspect of Catholicism that we should know to better understand and share our faith.

For more information about Men's Club or to get your name added to the Men's Club email list, contact Chris Tolcher by emailing him at ctolcher@gmail.com, or by calling 818-421-4893.

Catholicism: The New Evangelization

June 20 and 27th
11am in the Parish Library

The Catholic Faith is not about myths or legends, symbols or literary devices. It's about an encounter so overwhelming that you want to tell the whole world. It's an encounter with Jesus Christ. Throughout history, the call of Christ has sent people to the corners of the earth with a message of great joy — a message that has built civilizations, inspired cultures, and even sent some believers to prison and others to their graves. We have the same call. That's evangelization. CATHOLICISM: The New Evangelization explores the Church's mission within the challenges of contemporary culture. Created by Bishop Robert Barron, the documentary focuses on the cultural obstacles the Church faces today.
