OF CHRIST

June 18, 2017

*The bread that we break,
is it not a participation
in the body of Christ?
Because the loaf
of bread is one,
we, though many,
are one body,
for we all partake
of the one loaf.*

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: He therefore let you be afflicted with hunger, and then fed you with manna, a food unknown to you and your fathers, in order to show you that not by bread alone does one live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of the LORD. (Dt 8:3)

Psalm: Praise the Lord, Jerusalem. (Ps 147)
Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading: Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf. (1 Cor 10:17)

Gospel: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world... "For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." (Jn 6:51, 55-56)

I AM THE LIVING BREAD THAT CAME DOWN FROM HEAVEN

June 18, 2017 • The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Today's Gospel verses, John 6:51–58 are a “eucharistic version” of the previous verses, 6:35–50, in which Jesus asserts, “Whoever believes has eternal life” (6:47). Now Jesus replaces “believes” with “Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life” (6:54). This parallelism is mirrored in the complementarity of the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist, the intimate relationship between ambo (lectern) and altar, “the table of God’s Word and the table of Christ’s Body.”

But today's Gospel presents a further parallel, the complementarity of flesh and blood. By using “flesh,” a word he sometimes uses to denote the whole of human nature rather than “body,” John seems to suggest that, in receiving Christ’s Body in the Eucharist, we disciples are to assimilate the whole of Jesus’ humanity, his own radically self-sacrificing-unto-death lifestyle as our distinctive manner of being human. Moreover, the very reason the law forbade partaking of sacrificial blood is precisely why Jesus says we must drink his blood, “for the blood is life” (Deuteronomy 12:23). By partaking of Christ’s Blood in the Eucharist, we “have eternal life” here and now; that is to say, we live by Christ’s victory over death in this life, a victory that will be made permanent when Jesus raises us up on the last day (6:54).

WE ARE ONE

As we partake of this gift, we become one with Christ in reality. But there is more. We also become one with each other. As we all partake of the mystery, we are united in flesh and spirit—in the Holy Spirit—with each other as well. As Paul says, “Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf” (1 Corinthians 10:17).

Today we celebrate this wonderful gift. Even though we do not fully understand it, we believe and accept it with joy. We are one with Christ and one with each other. We too become the Body of Christ in the world.

Today's Readings: Dt 8:2–3, 14b–16a; Ps 147:12–15, 19–20; 1 Cor 10:16–17; Jn 6:51–58

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

At the heart of today's solemnity is a eucharistic procession, held in many parishes, that calls to mind the procession of Holy Thursday, yet has a purpose different from the somber adoration in the night watch. In the late Middle Ages, a procession through the city with the Blessed Sacrament was an occasion of heartfelt joy and great emotion. In a time when people seldom approached the altar to receive Holy Communion, the procession through the streets, past homes and workplaces, was a vibrant reminder that Christ was with them as a dear companion and guide.

Every year on this day, a joyful procession winds through the streets of Rome from the Lateran cathedral. A few years ago, Pope John Paul II, deeply moved at the sight of the throng accompanying the sacred host, said that we ought to feel profoundly united with the faithful everywhere in the world at such a moment. “Before our mind's eye all the Churches of the world, from East to West, from North to South, are present.” Originally this feast was on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday, but after the calendar reform of 1970, its title was expanded from “Corpus Christi” to “The Body and Blood of Christ” and in the United States it was moved to the Sunday after Trinity Sunday. Even though Easter season ended two weeks ago, this beautiful feast is aglow with Easter light.

Open Arms Hospitality
MINISTRY

welcome to church

The goal of our ministry is to welcome and encourage all new visitors and current parishioners. Our desire is to help everyone get connected and feel part of the St. Jude faith family. You are important to us. If you haven't registered with St. Jude's yet, or you would like to be an ambassador for Christ with the gift of hospitality (baking, greeting, making baskets), we would love to hear from you!

If anyone you know, loved one or friend, is homebound and not able to make it to mass please notify us directly so we can reach out to them.

RCIA

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process by which people can question, search, and inquire into the Catholic faith. At St. Jude, members of our parish join with those who are journeying to becoming fully initiated Catholics (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation). We recognize that people are in all different places in their journey and we are here to help you in any way we can.

You may be baptized in another faith or you may just be starting to ask questions. Wherever you are in your faith journey, we are here to pray with you, answer questions, share with you and be a part of your walk of faith. Contact Fr. Jim Stehly frjim@saintjudetheapostle.org or drop in on the first and third Tuesday of the Month from 7pm-8pm in the Faith Formation Office. Next RCIA Drop-In: June 20th; No drop-in on July 4th

Find out a little more about the Catholic faith, ask questions you might have and discuss what it means to be Catholic. We will work through the questions you may have and get you started on your way. There is more information on the parish website www.saintjudetheapostle.org under "Becoming Catholic."

Join us for Coffee & Donuts Sunday Mornings on the patio following the 8am & 10am Masses.

Help keep this St. Jude tradition going and volunteer. Donuts are provided by the church all you do is brew coffee and set the table with coffee & donuts. It's easy!

Blessing of Fathers

God and Father of all creation,
we come before you today with humble hearts.
You are our model of a loving father.
When we fail and fall short of your expectations,
you are always there at the end of the day with open arms,
ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day
and to encourage us to try again and not to give up.
We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world
as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others.
Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children.
Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures.
Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance.
We ask all this in the name of Jesus.
Amen.

Hit the park safely this summer

A great way to beat summer boredom is to head out to the park and play. For many parents, parks provide the space and place for children to play with others and burn off some energy by running around and exploring. However, even in your own neighborhood parks, parents should be vigilant, and should prepare children with basic safety guidelines. Go over the posted rules of the playground with your children, and make sure they understand the boundaries of where they can and cannot play. To request a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Playground Safety Considerations," email vienna@la-archdiocese.org or call (213) 637-7227. For St. Jude's Protecting God's Children Program contact Dot Kelly dotandpuff@gmail.com.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

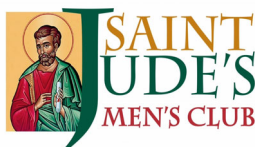

Calling all knitters, crocheters, quilters, or anyone who wants to make fleece blankets to bless others! We meet Fridays twice a month in the Parish Library at 10am. You can work from home as you have time and create any pattern using any material you'd like! This is fun and easy! Next Meeting June 23 and July 7.

After the creations are made, they will be prayed over and given to someone sick, going through a hard time, a newborn, homebound and our military. We want them to know they are loved by their faith community at St. Jude's. Anyone who is good at teaching how to knit, crochet or fleece we need your help too!

Men's Club

St. Jude Men's Club is the central gathering point for all men of the St. Jude Catholic Community. We promote men's fellowship while pursuing our common goal of being men of faith and service to our Church and community. All men are welcome at our meetings.

Men's Club meets on the second Tuesday night of the month in the parish hall. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, July 11 from 7-9 PM. Meetings include socializing, and update on club events and service opportunities, and usually a guest speaker on a subject of interest to men. Meetings also include a segment called "Basic Training for Catholic Men"--a brief presentation on some aspect of Catholicism that we should know to better understand and share our faith.

Join us June 25th from 1:30-5:30pm at the St. Paschal School Grounds as we support the Conejo Food and Wine Festival. A community event and fundraiser for Food Share and Many Mansions. For more information, visit www.conejofoodandwine.com

For more information about Men's Club or to get your name added to the Men's Club email list, contact Chris Tolcher by emailing him at ctolcher@gmail.com, or by calling 818-421-4893.

The Knights of Columbus are looking for a few good Catholic men!

Being at least 18 years old and a practicing Catholic are the only requirements! Once a member, you are entitled to participate in the Knights Insurance Program. Rated as in the top 5% of Ethically oriented Insurance companies with over $1 Billion in policy coverage! Meet other like minded parish members, contribute your talents to the parish as you are able and foster new friendships while participating in local parish activities. See KofC.org and californiaknights.org for more information.

Have you ever considered joining the Eucharistic Ministry? As an extraordinary minister of the Eucharist, commonly referred to as a Eucharistic minister or EM, lay people can serve the Catholic Church by distributing Holy Communion during Mass. An EM must be a fully initiated member of the Church (having received the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion and Confirmation). If you feel a tug at your heart to help in this way, please contact Ty Hutchison tbh12649@gmail.com or (818) 402-8402. www.saintjudetheapostle.org/Eucharistic-Ministry

"Visions of Mary"

Art Exhibit at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels

As the Mother of the Church, the Blessed Virgin Mary is the guide and inspiration of everyone who seeks to be a servant of God. For centuries, the Church has set aside the entire month of May to honor her. To commemorate the Month of Mary, the Cathedral is pleased to present a special art exhibit entitled Visions of Mary. This exhibit, in honor of Mary, the Mother of God features the work of Southern California artist, Joanne Balak. The exhibit can be found in the Art Chapel located in North Ambulatory of the Cathedral and will run from May through the end of July.

Catholicism: The New Evangelization

June 20 and 27th

11am in the Parish Library

The Catholic Faith is not about myths or legends, symbols or literary devices. It's about an encounter so overwhelming that you want to tell the whole world. It's an encounter with Jesus Christ. Throughout history, the call of Christ has sent people to the corners of the earth with a message of great joy — a message that has built civilizations, inspired cultures, and even sent some believers to prison and others to their graves. We have the same call. That's evangelization.

CATHOLICISM: The New Evangelization explores the Church's mission within the challenges of contemporary culture. Created by Bishop Robert Barron, the documentary focuses on the cultural obstacles the Church faces today.

Relic Tour

Of St. Thomas More & St. John Fisher

Please join Archbishop Gomez and faithful throughout Southern California on July 1 to welcome the relics of St. Thomas More and St. John Fisher, two 16th-century martyrs who exemplified courage and conviction in the face of persecution, to the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels during Mass at 12:10 p.m.

A presentation of the Relics by the curator will immediately follow the Mass, from 12:50 p.m. to 2 p.m. Jan Graffius is the curator of collections at Stonyhurst College, a Jesuit school in England, where the relics are kept.

Los Angeles is one of the last stops of the national relic tour – organized by the USCCB – during Fortnight for Freedom (June 21-July 4), a special time of the year when dioceses nationwide highlight the importance of defending religious freedom. The relic tour is part of two-week period of prayer, education and action by American Catholics in support of religious freedom.
