COMING TO THE END OF LIFE IN CALIFORNIA

By Archbishop JOSÉ H. GOMEZ

On June 9, California becomes the fifth state in the nation to allow doctors to prescribe lethal medications for patients who ask for them.

With the new “End of Life Options” law we are crossing a line — from being a society that cares for those who are aging and sick, to a society that kills those whose suffering we can no longer tolerate.

Our government leaders tell us that granting the right to choose a doctor-prescribed death is compassionate and will comfort the elderly and persons facing terminal and chronic illness.

But killing is not caring. True compassion means walking with those who are suffering, sharing their pain, helping them bear their burdens. Loving your neighbor as yourself is not a duty we fulfill by giving our neighbor a lethal dose of pills.

Assisted suicide represents a failure of solidarity and will only increase the sense of isolation and loneliness that many people already feel in our society. With this new law, we are abandoning our most vulnerable and frail neighbors — dismissing them as “not worthy” of our care and as a “drain” on our limited social resources.

This new law will worsen the inequalities in our health care system. The poor elderly already have far fewer treatment options and far less access to palliative care and nursing home services.

In a state where millions are forced to rely on government-subsidized care, who can imagine the government will continue paying for months and perhaps years of costly treatments rather than prescribing a cheap bottle of suicide pills?

And faced with growing numbers of elderly suffering from Alzheimer’s and other forms of dementia, how long will it be before we start hearing appeals to offer “compassionate choices” for those who can no longer choose or speak for themselves?

This is the danger of this new law: the death that some demand for themselves today may become a “choice” that many will not be able to refuse tomorrow.

The logic of assisted suicide leads inevitably to the government and corporate administrators essentially deciding which lives are worth saving and caring for and who would be better off dead. The criteria for such decisions will always be arbitrary and the process will always mean the strong and powerful deciding the fate of those who are weak and less influential in society. This is the beginning of tyranny.

Californians deserve and should demand better from our lawmakers. Giving doctors a license to kill is not leadership on health care.

On June 9, when this new law takes effect, we will still have all the same problems that make people afraid to grow old or become sick or disabled in California today.

We will still have a health insurance system that prices pain-relief medication beyond the reach of ordinary people and makes it nearly impossible for them to receive the palliative care and other services they need to live their final days with dignity.

On June 9, workers in nursing homes will still be overworked and underpaid and their working conditions will make it difficult for them to provide quality medical care with excellence and compassion. Medical schools still will not be providing future doctors and health professionals with proper training in palliative care and end-of-life treatment.

These are the real issues that make the prospect of terminal illness and dying so frightening to people in California. I appeal to thoughtful leaders in the legislature and medical profession — now is the time to come together and begin to decisively address these issues.

I also appeal to physicians, nurses, health administrators, hospitals and care facilities — this new law protects your rights of conscience. It does not compel your cooperation or participation.

The proper response to an unjust law is conscientious objection. And this is an unjust law.

Helping patients to kill themselves denies patients their dignity and diminishes the humanity of those entrusted to care for them. Medical professionals are called to be servants of life, not dispensers of death.

All of us in California need to pray and work to rebuild a culture of human dignity in the face of this unjust law. We need to proclaim and demonstrate by our actions — that all human life is precious and sacred and is worthy of our care and protection, from conception to natural death.

A person does not stop being a person, does not lose his or her dignity or right to life, — just because he or she loses certain physical or mental capacities. Indeed, it is when people are most vulnerable that they are most in need of our compassion and love.

Let us pray for our great State of California as we enter this new moment.

May God give all of us the courage to do what is right. And may our Blessed Mother Mary help us to see that everyone is a child of God and that we are all brothers and sisters called to love and care for one another.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN BECOMING CATHOLIC?

Are you an unbaptized person? Does what Jesus says--not just to people 2000 years ago, but to you, today, right now--resonate in a particular way? Maybe you were raised in a household where a non-Christian religion was practiced, and you'd like to learn more about Catholic Christianity. There's something--or Someone--drawing you to look into the Church. GIMME A CALL! (818-889-1279) E-MAIL ME! (frjim@saintjudetheapostle.org) Let's talk about this!

Are you a baptized Christian who has been thinking about the possibility of coming into the Catholic Church? Perhaps you're coming to Mass with some regularity with family or friends, and you're tired of coming up at Communion time to receive a blessing instead of the Sacrament. Maybe you've been surprised by how moved you are--and how attracted and interested you are--as you read something that Pope Francis has said or done. CAN WE TALK? (818-889-1279) DROP ME A NOTE! (frjim@saintjudetheapostle.org)

Are you a baptized Catholic who never received your first Communion, or who was never confirmed? There are all kinds of reasons why that may have happened...and there are even more reasons why you should act right now to remedy that situation! Let's talk about those reasons, and how you can become a fully-initiated Catholic Christian! (818-889-1279).

Maybe you who are reading this right now know of someone who is described above. Just a word from you can plant a seed. Maybe this friend or acquaintance or co-worker or family-member is just waiting for an inviting and encouraging word from you. Ask them to consider the possibility that God is tapping them on the shoulder right now to take a step, to make a call. Offer to help them in any way you can.

But reach out with the invitation now. Make that call now.

E-mail me. Let's talk. Let's pray.

Protect kids from bullying while playing online

The pace of online gaming is only growing. There is a small but real chance that victimization could occur when kids play and interact with others on phones, tablets, laptops, desktops and gaming consoles. A helpful way to teach children about handling problems is to encourage them to report issues when they arise. Internet service providers and gaming networks have systems set up to field complaints of abuse and then investigate them (in conjunction with law enforcement, when necessary). For more tips on how to help protect young people from vulnerabilities while playing online please email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call (213) 637-7227 to receive a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Preventing Cyberbullying in Online Gaming, Part 2."

Holy Year of Mercy
December 8, 2015 - November 20, 2016

We are asked to proclaim and live by the word of God's mercy, to reach out to others, to help strengthen and accompany them through their struggles. Reflecting on the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy can help us to find a starting point. Let us share the joy of the Gospel through our actions, our words and our prayers during this Holy Year of Mercy.

The Corporal Works of Mercy

1. Feed the Hungry
2. Give Drink to the Thirsty
3. Clothe the Naked
4. Shelter the Homeless
5. Visit the Sick
6. Visit the Imprisoned
7. Bury the Dead

Corporal works of mercy are noted in each announcement on this page. Take some time to do something for someone else by performing a/some/many corporal works of mercy.

DO YOU HAVE A TRUCK OR SUV?

Loaves and Fishes has many opportunities to assist those moving off the streets into low-income housing or single rooms. That often requires larger vehicles for furniture pieces and other household items. We are looking for parishioners who could ON OCCASION at your convenience donate a little time and their vehicle to help others move these things. For more details or questions, call John at 805-495-4630.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Calling all knitters, crocheters, quilters, or anyone who wants to make fleece blankets to bless others! This special ministry is part of our "Open Arms" Hospitality and will meet twice a month in the Parish Library. Our next meeting is Friday, June 24th at 10 am.

You can work from home as you have time and create any pattern using any material you'd like! This is fun and easy!

After the creations are made, they will be prayed over and given to someone sick, going through a hard time, a newborn, homebound and our military. We want them to know they are loved by their faith community at St Judes.

Anyone who is good at teaching how to knit, crochet or fleece we need your help too!

BABY BOTTLE COLLECTION DAY

Father's Day, June 19th

Each Mother's Day baby bottles are handed out to be filled with loose change. On Father's Day the bottles and new and gently used baby items are collected for struggling moms and newborns. The money collected is developed into a large project for shelters and foster care systems serving infants locally.

Adequate Clothing. Bedding. Blankets. Strollers. Cribs. And the number one need (after Love).....Diapers.

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION

Next week, our (arch)diocese will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which provides Pope Francis with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Join our Holy Father as a witness of charity to those who are suffering.

As part of the Annual Catholic Appeal, Together in Mission supports 81 parishes and 63 schools in every region of the Archdiocese – and we're the only Annual Appeal program in the country that dedicates every dollar to assisting parishes and schools that need it. Your gift enables us to provide essential resources and ministries that enrich parish life, strengthen families, advance Church leadership and inspire and educate future generations of our faith.

"Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by doing so, some people have entertained angels without knowing it." Hebrews 13:2

The next meeting of the Men's Club will be on Tuesday, June 21, from 7-9 PM in the parish hall. Our main event will be to view a video presentation by Catholic speaker and apologist

Tim Staples called "Why Be Catholic?" We've been discussing why people leave the Catholic faith and why there are a growing number of atheists in America, especially among the young. Do you find yourself in conversations with your family or others about faith matters and why you are Catholic? Last time, Tim discussed why belief in God is logical—and more compelling than atheism. This time he will make the case for being Catholic (as opposed to following other religions). We men need to do our part to step into the breach of those whom we know who are leaving the faith for whatever reason. Come and learn how to grow in your faith so you explain it when the time is right.

We are partnering with St. Paschal's Men's Club to promote and sell tickets for the Conejo Food & Wine Festival on Sunday, June 26 (from 1:30-5:30 PM on the grounds of St. Paschal's School). This event is a fundraiser for Manna and Many Mansions, and is a great community event featuring many local restaurants, food vendors, and wineries (among other spirits). Get your tickets and join us for a fantastic time with great people and great food & wine. You can also buy tickets online via the event website: www.conejofoodandwine.com

St. Jude Men's Club is the central gathering point for the men of our parish in order to provide opportunities for fellowship, faith building, and for being of service to our church, our school, and the community. The club meets on the third Tuesday evening of the month in the parish hall. All men are welcome.

SERRA RETREAT MALIBU RENEWED BY DIVINE MERCY

Pope Francis coined a word "mercy-ing" to express his understanding about mercy. It is not just a commodity to be dispensed only to those who are worthy. Rather "mercy-ing" is a way of being in the world that follows the example of Christ who freely shared God's mercy. Join us at Serra to rediscover the true meaning of mercy not as an object but as an action.
